Revelation 2:5 [Repent] Be deeply humbled before God for having so carelessly guarded the divine treasure.¹

[Do the first works] Resume your former zeal and diligence; watch, fast, pray, reprove sin, carefully attend all the ordinances of God, walk as in his sight, and rest not till you have recovered all your lost ground, and got back the evidence of your acceptance with your Maker.

[I will come unto thee quickly] In the way of judgment.

[And will remove thy candlestick] Take away my ordinances, remove your ministers, and send you a famine of the word. As there is here an allusion to the candlestick in the tabernacle and temple, which could not be removed without suspending the whole Leviticus service, so the threatening here intimates that, if they did not repent, etc., he would unchurch them; they

YOUTH SOUL SCALPERS

Shamanistic Drum Beats and Trance Dancing –

Christian Beware!

I, Pat Holliday, have ministered in Africa. These false prophets top any native idolater or pagan witchdoctor in the Dark Continent.³

ON STAGE and in the mosh pit, it is all high-octane energy and infectious enthusiasm: more than 4000 clean-cut Christian kids, pogoing in unison, jumping for Jesus.

Australia's national youth music festival, Big Day Out, plays up the road on Australia Day. But yesterday, in the Olympic Park Sports Centre, it was God's Big Day Out.

It's the opening session of the four-day Planetshakers conference and Sydney is third stop on a five-state tour billed as Australia's largest annual gathering of Christian youth.⁴

The American preacher Reggie Dabbs takes to the stage for a sermon that sounds like no other. Interspersed with self-deprecating humour and music, coined Jesus Rap, his message is of inclusiveness, self sacrifice, living for others and self-motivation.⁵

As the Australian film director Peter Weir once did in Dead Poet's Society, Dabbs commandeers the Latin aphorism "carpe diem" and has his congregation chanting back, "Seize the day". Planetshakers is an offshoot of Adelaide's Paradise Church, from which the Family First political party grew.⁶

Like Hillsong, it is an Assemblies of God church, part of the growing Pentecostal movement. It is headed by the charismatic husband and wife team of Russell and Sam Evans and is rapidly building a congregation in Melbourne Town Hall based on high-energy praise and worship.

This is the second year the church, which says it has no local ambitions, has brought its road train to Sydney.

By the end of the month, more than 20,000 young Christians around the country will have moshed for Jesus.⁷

WHO IS JOHN CROWDER?

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sNEfcijOaGY&feature=player_embedded

John Crowder of the New Mystics

Crowder says, "Wales, hosted "Slosh Fest," a time of experiencing the drunken bliss of Jesus! Prior to Sloshie, we ventured to Bristol for three days of wildfire gatherings. I must say that the week was a blur. There was a deep realm of divine ecstasy that opened during the gatherings. Many were equipped and activated in the supernatural, along with a powerful release of prophetic revelation."

“For millennia humans have been dancing in the wilderness in ritual and in ceremonial rites of passage. In many cultures such as the Bushmen of the Kalahari, we can find techniques of trance dancing, which elevate them into ecstatic, altered states of consciousness. When the Bushmen enter this state, it is reported that such an incredible rush of energy surges through their bodies that they cannot help but fall to the ground. This has been compared to the kundalini rising- the dormant energy at the base of the spine that can be awakened through certain yogic techniques. “ (7) (see my blogs on the Kundalini here)⁹

The second common thread to these kinds of meetings is the very pagan or voodoo sounding drum beats and their relationship to bringing people into trance states or altered states of consciousness.¹⁰

David Cloud states in his article “IS THERE A CONNECTION BETWEEN ROCK MUSIC AND VOODOO OR AFRICAN PAGANISM?”, that the modern rock and roll music industry did indeed have its roots in the African tribal culture:

“The incessant, poly-rhythms pounded out on cylindrical drums [by African tribal’s] is the catalyst of rhythm and blues, rock and roll, and today’s heavy metal. It is amazing that the reactions we see at a contemporary rock concert are an exact copy of what happened in the Pinkster celebrations [black festivals in New York] or at Place Congo [black slave dancing in New Orleans] during the Antebellum Period. Any analysis that denies this fact renders the church impoverished in its understanding of the African connection to the rock movement of the 20th century. (1)

What happens when someone is exposed to this kind of tribal drumming for any period of time? “Studies have shown that vibrations from rhythmic sounds have a profound effect on brain activity. In shamanic traditions, drums were used in periodic rhythm to transport the shaman into other realms of reality. The vibrations from this constant rhythm affected the brain in a very specific manner, allowing the shaman to achieve an altered state of mind and journey out of his or her body.” (2)¹¹

This letter came from a Catholic friend of mine from England.

Dear Pat,

These Nicolatians (Peter Wagner, Bob Jones, Rick Joyner, Patricia King, Paul Cain, Che Ahn, Sharon Stone, Gerald Coates, James Goll, Trevor Baker, Julie Anderson, Ken Gott, Rupert Foxwell, Rev Dr Mark Stibbe, Todd Bentley, Stephen Strader, Kathie Walters and accomplices) are not Catholic Mystics in origin and Catholics are deeply insulted by this false claim.

These people are The Nicolatians much hated by God in the Book of Revelation.

They seek power as leaders and false shepherds to dominate, enslave, and rob Christians of the truth, freedom and money. They come out of the "submission and shepherding" movement of the 1970s which robbed Christians of freedom to choose what they did with their bank accounts, cheque books, who they married, if they married, where they lived, which other Christians they could talk to, what books they could read, when and if they could go on holiday, where their children went to school, what clothes they could buy, whether they could drink Coca Cola, Pepsi Cola, tea, coffee, or have sugar and salt. They were truly evil and preyed on sincere trusting Christians.

Catholic Mystics were very different.

The acknowledged leading one is Anthony of Padua (or if you are a Catholic, St Anthony).

He took vows of poverty and chastity as he acknowledged he was to serve and not be served by the sheep in The Body of Christ. He turned down great wealth daily. He refused to use his power from God to get sex or money.

Moreover, he was also the greatest opponent of heresy. He said out loud The Nicene Creed in EVERY service he took. This emphasizes The Trinity, Jesus is Divine, Jesus created The World, Jesus was God and Man born of a Virgin for our salvation from sin, Jesus was tortured and crucified and rose from the dead, Jesus will come again to judge the living and the dead, The Holy Spirit is a Person not a force, The Scriptures are true and trustworthy, The Church must be Holy, baptism is necessary for the forgiveness of sin.

Anthony of Padua was much better known for his teaching of the above than for the thousands of miracles and healings God did through him. He set the record for miracles but this was dwarfed by the hours he spent calling people to sound doctrine, to sincere repentance, to prayer etc

He spent hours each day in prayer and fasted completely every second day.

He was not interested in wealth, power, fame but in people finding Jesus Christ as Lord and sticking to sound doctrine.

This mystic denounced those who claimed their new mystical revelation or visits from Angels added anything to what The Apostles appointed by Jesus Christ taught in The Scriptures (although he held to 2 Thessalonians 2 v 15 which says we must hold on to their written and oral teachings).

Anthony of Padua would have declared Peter Wagner, Rick Joyner, Bob Jones, Patricia King, Che Ahn, William Branham, Todd Bentley, and Gerald Coates as heretics and Nicolaitians.

His was a Gospel of repentance and seeking God's Mercy for sin.

St Francis of Assisi also turned down wealth, power and sex to follow Jesus Christ. He was born into wealth but gave it up to preach to the poor, vulnerable, powerless, weak, etc

He preached giving to the poor not the poor giving to rich multi-millionaire evangelists and False Apostle-Prophets.

His Mystical experiences made him much more orthodox as regards The Trinity, Divinity of Jesus Christ, Second Coming, Cross of Jesus Christ, Virgin Birth etc.

He denounced false Mystics whose meetings with Angels took them away from these truths.

Patrick, better known as St Patrick in Ireland, was even more orthodox as a result of his miracles and mystical experiences. He denounced the false mystics who departed from True Teaching on The Trinity of which he was the greatest defender.

More recently Padre Pio was ultra orthodox about The Trinity, Divinity of Jesus Christ, and Cross of Jesus Christ etc

The Catholic Church has a policy based on wisdom to mistrust and test Mystics and side with caution.

If and only if they prove they are beyond doubt Trinitarian, hold to The Nicene Creed, do not teach New Revelation over-ruling The Bible and teaching of the original Apostles of The Bible, only then do they embrace them.

The Catholic Church happily suspended Padre Pio from public teaching while he was carefully investigated. If he had failed the testing, he would have been kicked out. He accepted the wisdom of the policy and did not accuse people of being heresy hunters.

The Catholic Church suspended a Cardinal from Zambia about ten years ago. He was doing more miracles than anyone in the world. He was setting people free from demons. But they suspended and tested him. He ran off and joined The Moonies!

Do not despise the wisdom The Catholic Church has shown concerning Todd Bentley types. Beware the heretics and Nicolaitans. True Mystics are humble and happily submit to investigation, challenge, scrutiny AND correction!

The Peter Wagner and Todd Bentley gang are false mystics and The Catholic Church would not let any of them become priests.

Sincerely,

Jonathan

Can you spot the 'golden calf' in this video? This is NOT Christian Worship. This is pagan. Notice that Ben Dunn, of Tokin the Ghost fame is leading this pagan revelry.

Watch and weep for the children.

Leviticus 10:

[1] And Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took either of them his censer, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered strange fire before the LORD, which he commanded them not.

[2] And there went out fire from the LORD, and devoured them, and they died before the LORD.
