INVALIDATING THE CROSS

The Chronicles of Narnia are the most powerful soul scalping tools of Satan using C. S. Lewis' fantasy books ever produced; most horrible, these books are geared toward young Christian children. It is a serious offence to demote Christ, to reject His true nature as He has revealed Himself in scripture. Let's begin by looking at (Ps. 2:11, 12), "Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling. Kiss the Son, lest He be angry, and you perish in the way, when His wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all those who put their trust in Him."

Despite this warning, many false teachers such as C. S. Lewis who portray themselves as Christians proudly demote Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. This in itself is bad enough, but as we will see in Lewis' demonic, fantasy books, he goes deeper into the wormhole of darkness than most people fear to tread. He belittles and invalidates the cross that it is people one way of redemption. John 3:36

"He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

The Bible has this to say about the cross in (1 Cor. 1: 18), "For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God," the Bible also says that the cross reveals the power of God.

CHRISTIAN LEADERS HELP DISNEY MAKE A LOT OF MONEY!

JESUS IS THE DELIVERER

With today's DVD release of the blockbuster film The Chronicles of Narnia: The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe, which grossed over $600 million at the box office, writer C. S. Lewis is thrust back into the limelight piquing an interest among audiences worldwide. Christian ministries are offering this demonic DVD as a gift for donations for their ministries which is a blending of good and evil are turning Christians into absolute darkness.

WHO IS THIS MAN THAT POWERFUL CHRISTIAN LEADERS CHOOSE TO FOLLOW?
The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the LORD shall be safe. "To profess salvation in order to improve relations with one's friends smacks more of the fear of man than the fear of God," (Prov. 29:25).

1. He was considered a medieval literature scholar and was fascinated with mythology and fantasy from an early age, which perhaps explains his tendency toward the occult in his fantasy writings. He was a Fellow of English Language and Literature at Magdalen College, Oxford, until 1954. In 1955 he was elected Professor of Medieval and Renaissance Literature at Magdalen College, Cambridge.

While many of us have been deceived by this man's apparent spiritual insight, he actually believed many doctrines of devils and by the end of his life was rapidly embracing Roman Catholicism and Taoism, (Buddhism and Confucianism). Indeed, he may have been a Catholic for some time before his death. He believed in purgatory and prayed for the dead. He went to a priest regularly for confession (C.S. Lewis: A Biography, p. 198). He received the sacrament of extreme unction on July, 16th, 1963 (p. 301), a sacrament that was officially ministered only to Roman Catholics at that time. It is enough to cause one to wonder if whether he was a "plant" for the Catholic Church all along, or merely a mixed up man groping for some hope of salvation at the end of his life.

He was allegedly a bachelor for most of his life, though there are more or less substantiated stories of a sexual relationship with Janie Moore who lived with him for years. However, he married Joy Davidman Gresham at age 58. She was supposedly converted partly due to Lewis' books. After meeting him in England, she returned to the U.S. where she was divorced from her husband. According to two of his friends, Gresham's husband divorced her on the grounds of desertion. (1) She returned to England and made herself available to Lewis, who married her shortly thereafter. [Ask any soap opera junky what the previous scenario means. They will tell you.] So, even in his marriage he was in disobedience to the word of God. (Matt. 5:32) "...and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery."

"Lewis was anything but a classic evangelical, socially or theologically," wrote Bob Smietana in a Christianity Today article titled"

1. C. S. Lewis Superstar." He continued with these thought-provoking statements:

"Though he shared basic Christian beliefs with evangelicals, he didn't subscribe to biblical inerrancy or penal substitution. He believed in purgatory and baptismal regeneration. How did someone with such a checkered pedigree come to be a theological Elvis Presley, adored by evangelicals? ... Part of Lewis's current appeal . . . is a postmodern interest in 'thin places'—places where the physical world and the spiritual world meet—and for myth that makes sense of life in a way that rational thinking can't. For their dose of myth, postmodernist turn to The Matrix, The Lord of the Rings, Star Wars, Harry Potter, and, of course, Narnia.

"Fantasy allows you to explain and grasp and integrate into your life things that are not logical or as a product of dreams or the imagination to say that we can tell each other truth in story." Of course, the targeted people being young children can no longer discern the truth of their foundational faith based on the Bible and the real Jesus; fantasy becomes their god and sinks deep into their subconscious minds and blinds their minds from truth.

THE CHRONICLES OF NARNIA — BLATANTLY EVIL WITCHCRAFT

2 Chronicles 33:6 "And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger."

Galatians 5:20 "Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies..."

Born Again, former Wizard, David Meyers asks the urgent question, how can Christians embrace something that is as blatantly evil as The Chronicles of Narnia? The story clearly and descriptively involves creatures that are half human and half animal. The Bible forbids the mixing of humans and animals as bestiality!

The Bible says, “And they said, There is no hope: but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart,” (Jer. 18:12).

Pastor Meyers goes to question, “Why did the December 18th, 2005, issue of the Pentecostal Evangel, the official organ of the Assemblies of God Church, dedicate their entire front cover to Aslan, the Narnia lion, and feature the “Christian Guide to C. S. Lewis’ Narnia?”

Here let it be noted that Lewis himself said that before writing The Chronicles of Narnia, he was “haunted with images” of mythological creatures.”

“The Voyage of the Dawn Treader” is the third book in the Narnia series. It directly promotes spells and magic.<sup>1</sup>

Narnia books presented as an allegory, with Aslan representing Jesus and the children in place of Christians. If you do this with “The Voyage of the Dawn Treader,” then you portray Jesus as being pleased when Christians do magic and work spells. And you support the idea that there are “good” spells and “good” magic. That belief is the basis for modern “white” witchcraft. However, the Bible clearly forbids any form of witchcraft:

“There shall not be found among you anyone who... practices witchcraft, or a soothsayer, or one who interprets omens, or a sorcerer, or one who conjures spells, or a medium, or a spiritist, or one who calls up the dead. For all who do these things are an abomination to the LORD.”
(Deuteronomy 18:10-12)

In the book, the Dufflepuds are ruled by a wizard. He uses magic to rule the Dufflepuds because they aren’t yet mature enough to be ruled directly by Aslan. So there is good magic and a good wizard. This magic prepares people for relationship with Aslan. Again, if Aslan is taken as a symbol for Jesus, then magic prepares people to become Christians. In our modern culture, that would mean that Wicca is a way to get to know Jesus and become His follower.

.Chapter 10 (“The Magician’s Book”) features a book of spells that is on an island inhabited by invisible creatures called Dufflepuds. (Dufflepud (also known as Duffer or Monopod) is the general name used to refer to the servants of the magician Coriakin. The duffers live together in a community on an island, serving Coriakin and working under command of the Chief Duffer. They believed Coriakin to be a tyrant, when in fact he tried to educate the Dufflepuds, and helped them survive.<sup>2</sup>

History

The duffers worked for Coriakin for many generations; how many is not known. Their constant foolishness led them to rebel against him for trying to help them. As punishment, they were made into monopods. Later, however, they grew to hate their new appearance so deeply it is beautiful and fascinating. Then she finds the right spell and says the words and follows the instructions. And then the Dufflepuds (and Aslan) become visible. Her spell made Aslan visible, and he is pleased with what she did.

The book of spells is luring and fascinating. One spell is illustrated with pictures of bees that look as if they are really flying. In the world of C.S. Lewis' day, this would not have caused practical problems. However, these days, kids can go to regular bookstores and buy spell books written by modern witches.<sup>3</sup>

TEACHING CHILDREN A NEW AGE RELIGION

C. S. Lewis's love affair with Greek paganism is clearly seen in the selection of characters for his masterfully written and much-beloved series, The Chronicles of Narnia. The mysterious and wonderful world of Narnia is home not only to the imitating lion figure of the (so-called) Christ-like Aslan, but is teeming with the icons of ancient pantheistic and idolatrous religions. Pagan gods, demigods, and Aslan all dwell together in harmony. Jesus said, “A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil : for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh,” (Lk. 6:45).

Humanoids were beings that were human-shaped in the world of Narnia. List of humanoid creatures: Giants, Dwarves, Dryads, Naiads, Gnomes, Star People, Maenads, Hags, Jinns, Ogres, Cyclopes, Marsh-wiggles, Ettins, Centaurs, Fauns, Minotaurs, Satyrs, Minoboars, Monopods, Duffers

Nahum 3:4 “Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the well favoured harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.”

1 Samuel 15:23 “For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath also rejected thee from being king.”

that they used Coriakin's magic to make themselves invisible. In 2303 NY, they kidnapped a party of Narnian visitors, and forced Queen Lucy of Narnia to undo the invisibility spell, which they had come to dislike. At that time it was declared by Aslan that they were not yet ready to see him. It is possible that they eventually were ready and were able to meet with him.

Lucy works a spell to make the Dufflepuds visible. She goes through a spell book, and

PAGAN GODS AND GODDESSES

The name 'Pan' means 'ALL'. He is the ruling demon over all pagan gods. In biblical terms he would be described as a 'principality' Pan and Bacchus: lust, fear and intoxication

Tumnus is a weird creature who is half goat, half human. He is portrayed as a friend of the children, who welcomes them in Narnia. What most people don't know is that Tumnus represents the Greek idol 'PAN' (the Romans called him 'Faunus').

You clearly see it is the same creature:

- goat paws
- stripped to the waist
- pointed beard
- curly goat hair
- pointed ears
- horns

These characters include The Roman God Bacchus: Worshiped by millions of pagans from the ancient world as the god of wine, Bacchus is associated with drunkenness, revelry, and immorality. In The Chronicles of Narnia, Bacchus makes occasional visits to Narnia. He is mentioned in The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe and makes an appearance in Prince Caspian, as does Silenus, a figure from Greek mythology who was the teacher of Bacchus. In Greek mythology, Bacchus goes by the name Dionysus.

Maenads: The ancient Greeks and Romans knew the maenads as the special attendants to Bacchus (which is why they also went by the names Bacchae and Bacchantes). The word maenad literally means "raving ones." They were believed to have occult powers. In Narnia, they are "madcap" (daredevil) girls that still attend to Bacchus. Of Maenads, Wikipedia has this interesting explanation: "They were known as wild, insane women who could not be reasoned with. The mysteries of Dionysus inspired the women to ecstatic frenzy; they indulged in copious amounts of violence, bloodletting, sex, and self-intoxication and mutilation. They were usually pictured as crowned with leaves, clothed in fawn skins and carrying the Thyrus and dancing with the wild abandonment of complete union with primeval nature."

Fauns: Half humans and half goats, fauns find their origin in Roman mythology as followers of the gods Pan (god of the field) and Bacchus (god of wine). They are generally portrayed in myth as troublemakers. Fauns play a central role in The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe and can be found throughout The Chronicles of Narnia, but unlike their Roman counterparts, Lewis's fauns are kind, beloved creatures.

Centaurs: In religious worship and mythology, centaurs are half human, half horse — wicked demi-gods given to violence and sexual excess. (Exception: The centaur Chiron (trainer of Achilles) was depicted as just.) Centaurs are important figures in the Narnian landscape. Lewis portrays them as generally loyal to Aslan, and as star-gazers that tell the future by the stars (astrologers).

Dryad and Naiads: Pantheism (the worship of God in nature) is a critical element of ancient paganism. Dryads are yet another mythological manifestation of this anti-Christian idolatry. A dryad is a tree spirit linked to an individual tree. In Lewis's Narnia, Dryads are mysterious, tree/spirit beings who are faithful to Aslan and Narnia itself. In ancient mythology, naiads were water nymphs. (They appear less frequently than Dryads in the Chronicles).

"But even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing, whose minds the god of this age has blinded, who do not believe, lest the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine on them" (2 Cor. 4:3-4).

CHRISTIANS BELIEVE A LIE

Christians have been sold a lie and the pastors are going to get the worst of it on Judgment Day! 'The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe' is a lie! Signs of apostasy are everywhere and people are not seeing them. May God help all who name the name of Christ to come fully awake quickly!

'The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe' . . . is worthy of support from anyone, whether conservative or liberal, who believes in classic, humanistic storytelling . . . Aslan, it has been debated, is intended by . . . C. S. Lewis to be a symbol for Christ . . . but of course the lion is also a royal and divine symbol throughout world religion there are numerous lion-like divine figures in ancient Egyptian, Babylonian, Greek, Hindu and Buddhist religious symbolism .

Lewis did not like denominational boundaries, and so he made great strides in describing Christianity outside of them, calling it "mere Christianity," which became the title of one of his most famous and destructive books.

"For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you," (1 Cor. 11:19).

of time?"

The children step through a demonic portal into an illusionary land full of deceptions. The Lion Aslan is actually a symbol of a solar deity Apollo the sun god, and certainly does not represent the Jesus Christ of the Bible. "...the children discover a charming, peaceful land inhabited by talking beasts, dwarfs, fauns, centaurs and giants that has become a world cursed to eternal winter by the evil White Witch, Jadis. Under the guidance of a noble and mystical ruler, the lion Aslan, the children fight to overcome the White Witch's powerful hold over Narnia in a spectacular, climactic battle that will free Narnia from Jadis' icy spell forever."

"There is a prophecy that two sons of Adam and daughters of Eve will appear and defeat the white witch and put an end to this 100 year winter." This thing is so religious that by simply throwing in some vague biblical terminology such as Adam and Eve and the word prophecy, Christians are so blinded that they buy it as being "Christian."

Douglas Gresham, Lewis' stepson, said recently: "Churches in Britain and America are promoting the film as a Christian film, but it's not... and the Narnia books aren't Christian novels."

Evangelicals disagree. "We believe that God will speak the gospel of Jesus Christ through this film," said Lon Allison, director of Illinois' Billy Graham Center.

TEACHING A PHONEY SALVATION & RESURRECTION

What are these blinded Christians supporting?

1. Selective substitutionary sacrifice on the "one for one" basis - Aslan for Edmund [TLTWTW]. It's applied through a ritual slaying performed much like a witchcraft sacrifice where a more powerful magic outwits the lesser one, as opposed to the Biblical sacrifice of Christ for the sins of the world made through capital punishment. (1Jn. 2:2), "And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world."

"The White Witch herself seems to be a throwback to various witches and goddesses of Celtic and Greek mythology. Her hair is dressed in the snake-like coils of a Medusa.... Is it perhaps that like a shamanism, the White Witch dons the lion's garb in order to assume his magical powers, or to signify some deeper connection with the figure of Aslan - a connection that surmounts the duality of good and evil? Why would the White Witch be garbed in leonine costume at the end, except perhaps as a sign that she and Aslan are two halves of one whole, and that they are playing out in ritual fashion an eternal cosmic struggle, where good and evil, light and dark, summer and winter alternate in ascendancy throughout the round of time?"

The children step through a demonic portal into an illusionary land full of deceptions. The Lion Aslan is actually a symbol of a solar deity Apollo the sun god, and certainly does not represent the Jesus Christ of the Bible. ## GREEN GODDESS QUEEN UNDER WORLD

2. Personal realization through calamity and "freeing" from outer layers by an external source - Eustace with the bracelet that turns him into a dragon, which he can only be freed from by Aslan "peeling away the layers" [TVTD]. This is one of those "life changing/transforming" experiences which have no relationship to Biblical salvation.

(Acts 16:31), “And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.” When you start "pealing layers" to get "saved" you usually find out you're an onion anyway. (2Cor. 5:17), “Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; [Not peeled away] behold, all things are become new. 18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation.”

3. Rescue by other (more or less human) sources. This is probably portrayed several different ways in the Chronicles. Prince Rilian is delivered from the Lady of the Green Kirtle, the queen of the under world, through the efforts of others [TSC]. As mentioned before, this harks back to the religious legends of the sun being held prisoner in the underworld by the evil "goddess" through the winter months. He is released at the winter equinox when the days start to lengthen. (Remember in TSC they arrive back at the surface during the "the Great Snow Dance", which is remarkably pagan and witchy in it's description.) Anyway, this also would bear some resemblance to Rome's purgatory from which people are said to be delivered by the efforts of others, and also the baptism for the dead as practiced by the Mormon Church (Latter Day Saints, or Church of Jesus Christ as they call themselves in some countries). This is also contrary to Biblical salvation. (Rom. 10:9), “That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.” (“Thou” is representing the singular "you" in the KJV.)

4. Sincere belief in something, even if it's the wrong thing - the Calormene who sincerely worshiped Tash (Satan) ended up in the "heaven", or nirvana, of Narnia at the end because he was sincere and all sincere worship was ultimately to Aslan. This, of course, is gross and blatant blasphemy. (1Cor. 10:20), “But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.” (Based on this verse, I could be so bold as to suggest that Lewis is identifying Aslan as the devil he really is through this little incident, whether he intended it that way or not.)

5. Esoteric resurrection? This one I find hard to define - In "Aslan's land" Eustace is commanded to drive a long thorn into Aslan's paw thus producing a drop of blood which raises King Caspian from the dead out of a flowing stream [TSC]. The exact significance of this in mythological or Luciferian lore has eluded me, but the fact that Aslan is portrayed as making a second sacrifice to save Caspian is curious. There is some reminder of the Catholic Mass which offers "Christ" continually. As before - the sacrifice at the stone table was not sufficient for all. This is again unbiblical. (Hebr. 10:10), "By which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once *for all."

6. Conversion through physical suffering and a change of mind. In THAHB Aravis atones for her sin through physical suffering. She is wounded by Aslan "tear for tear, throb for throb, blood for blood" (p. 194) according as her maid was beaten after Aravis ran away. She also changed her mind. It is Jesus that bore the chastisement for us. (Jn. 1:29), "The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." (Isa. 53:5), "But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed."

This is what some of the most famous Christian ministries living today are supporting! Your children will be carried away by the spiritual stupidity of these modern leaders. Christ will hold them accountable but He will hold you accountable too. They are your children and you are responsible for them. Run, and turn from this evil indoctrinating tool of witchcraft for children!

WHITE WITCH

The White Witch, Jadis -- the self-professed Queen of Narnia -- emerged from that pagan world view, not from a Biblical frame of reference. Her ritual sacrifice of Aslan has more in common with the ancient Winter Solstice rituals and blood sacrifices to cultural gods (whether Hindu, Mayan, Inca or Babylonian) than with the crucifixion of our Lord. Small wonder the movie director chose a sacrificial setting for Aslan that looks strangely like the ancient ritual stones and pillars at Stonehenge, now a gathering place for the world's fast-growing networks of neo pagans.

"Earlier in his life, Lewis visited the ruins at Stonehenge, a mysterious circle of giant prehistoric stones in Southern England. In her book, Journey into Narnia, Kathryn Linskoog notes, 'The stone that is lowest at Stonehenge is called the stone of sacrifice because people suspect that humans were bound and stabbed there in evil ceremonies thousands of years ago.... It's almost certain that Stonehenge gave Lewis the idea of the Stone Table."

Unlike Jesus, our Lord, Aslan negotiates the terms of the "ancient magic" with the white witch. And unlike God, Aslan attributes the ultimate victory to the humans, not to his own plan and power.

Christians, it is absolutely blasphemy to compare our Holy Jesus to this pagan figure, the solar god-like lion, Aslan. The Church of Jesus Christ as certainly has been dumb-down religious state to run after such nonsense ... may God have mercy?

2 Corinthians 11:4    "For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him."

WHO IS LILITH?

Let us take a look at what this "great spiritual Icon brilliant so-called Christian writer" disseminated among innocent children. He is the great Philosopher of Religious Mixture.

First we noted his pagan gods and goddesses. Second, we showed you his mythological half beast and half animals. Third, his alcoholic demons that celebrates the summer solstice. Now look at his "Jewish Magic" demonology of Lilith. He is feeding this harmful demonology from the pit of hell to Christian children. It is inspired by Satan, himself! Lewis must have belly-laughed at the aphasic Christian church all the way to hell.

It shocking and horrifying that these bacchanalian so-called Christian ministers that are filling buses and theaters to take your children to sit under this absolute barrage of demonology. It is appalling to see greedy Christian ministries promoting these heathenish idols for Disney that Christian children will take these demonic images into their homes. Now, let us look at Lewis' twisted, demented mind by his releasing the horrendous female demon Lilith into his "fantasy books' Narnia." for the ingestion of your Christian Children. For example, what truth or deception does the following conversation from the book transmit to a child?

Peter asks, [Peter] "Isn't the witch herself human?"

[Mr. Beaver] "She'd like just to believe it, and it's on that she bases her claim to be Queen. But she's no Daughter of Eve. She comes of your father Adam's . . . first wife, her they called Lilith. And she was one of the Jinn "(demons).

Lilith, Queen of the demons

So here we have another Lewis absolute attack on the Scriptures. Here, Lewis takes you into "Jewish Magic." Lilith is associated with SUCCBUS DEMONS. These are demons that visit at night time and they have sex with their victims. The respected Jewish scholar, Gershon Scholem, provides this education on demons according to the Talmud and the transition of Talmudic demonology to the Zohar: "According to Talmudic tradition, demons are spirits made in the Friday evening twilight, who, because the Sabbath has intervened, have received no bodies. From this later authorities drew the inference (which is perhaps implicit in the Talmudic sources) that the demons have been looking for bodies ever since, and that this is why they attach themselves to men. This entered into a combination with another idea. After the murder of Abel by his brother, Adam decided to have no further dealings with his wife. Thereupon female demons, succubi, came to him and conceived by him; from this union, in which Adam's generative power was misused and misdirected, stem a variety of demons, who are called nig'e bn Adam, 'Spirits of harm that come from man.' . . .practices are systematized in the Zohar, which develops the myth that Lilith, Queen of the demons, or the demons of her retinue, (entourage) do their best to provoke men to sexual acts without benefit of woman, their aim being to make themselves bodies from the lost seed."

In his article on M. Gaster states:

"...These ideas [Talmud demonology] received a fresh impetus from the publication of the Zohar, which, a Jewish writer tells us, " from the 14th century held almost unbroken sway over the minds of the majority of the Jews. In it the Talmudic legends concerning the existence and activity of the shedhim (demons) are repeated and amplified, and a hierarchy of demons was established corresponding to the heavenly hierarchy... Manasseh [ben Israel]'s Nishmat Hayim is full of information concerning belief in demons ..."

Further reference to the Zohar teachings reveals that men and women have sex with demons during their sleep.

"See the Zohar, treatise Bereschith, folio.54b, where it is said that all men are visited in their sleep "by female devils." These demons never appear under any other form but that of human beings, but they have no hair on their heads...In the same way as to men, male devils appear in dreams to women, with whom they have intercourse."

We find further correspondences between Talmudic and Kabbalistic sources concerning demons and the succubi mentioned above. These unholy unions are found in historical accounts of witches' confessions, i.e., The Witch Cult in Western Europe, Historie de la Magie en France and in, Hastings' Encyclopedia of Religion and Ethics, article on Jewish Magic by M. Gaster.

"...the vile confessions made nocturnal visits paid them by male devils by both Scottish and French peasant women accused of witchcraft concerning the 2. find an exact counterpart in passages of the Cabala, where it is said that, "the demons are both male and female, and they both endeavor to consort with human beings- a conception from which arises the belief in incubi and succube."

Biblically, we know that to embrace sorcery or witchcraft and such, is an abomination before God. Despite Old Testaments warnings, the Talmud provides 'solutions' for protecting oneself from the onslaught of demonic attack and disease, as seen for example, in treatise Berakhoth, folio 6:

" ... The Talmud also gives directions on the manner of guarding against occult powers and the onslaught of disease. The tract Pesachim declares that he who stands naked before a candle is liable to be seized with epilepsy. The same tract also states that "a man should not go out alone on the night following the fourth day or on the night following the Sabbath, because an evil spirit, called Agrath, the daughter of Ma'hlath, together with one hundred and eighty thousand other evil spirits, go forth into the world and have the right to injure anyone they would chance to meet."

My Lord, our Christian brethren western churches are supporting the deep things of Satan when they endorse C. S. Lewis' and Disney's The Chronicles of Narnia: The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe." We are calling every intercessor to pray for the Church of Jesus Christ, the leaders and children. Think about it. The ministers' are blinded but they are busily ensnaring the children for the powers of darkness. Jesus said, "Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch," (Matt 15:14).

DENIAL OF GOD

How has it happened that the greatest country in the history of the world is teetering on the brink of total collapse and spiritual destruction? How is it that the Greatest Christian Movement that the world has ever seen, appears to dying before our eyes? "Therefore my people have gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge; their honorable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst," (Isa. 5:13).

No nation which denies God or departs from the Lord God has, or ever will, endure. So as America changes her God, we can anticipate far reaching global repercussions, not only economically and politically, but more so spiritually. In a world of spiritual darkness, man will attempt to guide himself by the satanic constellations of secular humanism, New Age religions, atheism, eastern mysticism, and occultism, America stands as the last bastion of true Biblical Christianity, a spiritual lighthouse in a global storm of confusion. There is an answer, however, for the world, both individually and collectively, which is a spiritual rebirth through the person and work of the Lord Jesus Christ.

ROME BURNS

"Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? But my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit. Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the Lord. For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water. . . Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts." (Jer. 2:11-13, 19).

DISCERNING THE TRUTH

Two thousand years ago the apostle Paul was greatly concerned about Christian discernment, he wrote: "And this I pray, that your love may abound still more and more in real knowledge and all discernment, so that you may approve the things that are excellent, in order to be sincere and blameless until the day of Christ; having been filled with the fruit of righteousness which comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God," (Phi 1:9-11). Paul shows in this Scripture the need for the Saints to have the mental facility to perceive the true spiritual state of affairs which exists. In these latter days, it is imperative that they have the power to make wise alternatives among all the correct Biblical options. Christian discernment means the ability to "approve the things that are excellent," or, more literally, to "distinguish between the things that differs."

The enticing pagan worlds nurtured by C.S. Lewis and his myth-making friends were not inspired by God's Word or Spirit. These books came from his demoniacal imagination. (Jer. 23:17), "They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you."

Those stories grew out of a lifelong immersion in the beliefs, values, rituals, languages and lifestyles of former pagan cultures. C. S. Lewis himself -- even years after professing faith in Christ -- remained obsessed with those old myths. As in his famous 1931 "conversion" encounter with his Catholic friend, Tolkien, he continued to suggest that Christianity and paganism were, in some ways, mutually supportive. Ponder his description of a 1960 visit to Greece three years before his death:

"I had some ado to prevent Joy and myself from relapsing into Paganism in Attica! At Daphni it was hard not to pray to Appolo the Healer. But somehow one didn't feel it would have been very wrong — would have only been addressing Christ sub specie Apollinius. We witnessed a beautiful Christian village ceremony in Rhodes and hardly felt a discrepancy.

The same book quotes Lewis' earlier statement of regret that he hadn't been taught the supposed link between Christianity and paganism during his school years: "No one ever attempted to show in what sense

Christianity fulfilled paganism or paganism prefigured Christianity."

FALSE PROPHETS

There are also many false prophets whose main desire is to gather a following to lead them into the Big Lie. (Matt 7:15-16), "Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. 16 Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?"

It is very important for every Christian to be able to discern between the things that differ. The Apostle Paul went on to write, "And this I pray, that your love may abound still more and more in real knowledge and all discernment, so that you may approve the things that are excellent, in order to be sincere and blameless until the day of Christ; having been filled with the fruit of righteousness which comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God," (Rom. 6:20). He presents in these scriptures the need for all Christians to have the spiritual quickness to perceive the true spiritual situation which exists. In these latter days, it is imperative that Christians have the ability to make wise choices between the correct Biblical options.

Christian discernment means the power to "approve the things that are excellent," or, more literally, to "distinguish between the things that disagree with the Word of God." There are many voices crying, "Follow me, I have the way to truth." Among these voices are the true ministers of God who have been anointed by the Holy Spirit to lead His people into all truth. Seek them out Ask the Holy Spirit to lead you to a real Bible believing- Bible knowledgeable Christian teacher. Stay close to Jesus because we are living dangerous, perilous times. Jesus is coming back soon.

However, there are many that are false ministers described in Jude "But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves. 11 Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core. 12 These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever,” (Jude 10-13). Yes, it is very important for every Christian to be able to distinguish between the things that differ concerning the truth.

We must become educated in the true spiritual history of our nation and our Church, we must pray and take the time to investigate and examine our great Christian heritage before the freedom is gone, we must pass that rich heritage onto our children so that his once great and God-fearing nation would return to her roots so that we can enjoy our freedoms once again.

Dr. C. M. Pierce, Harvard University said in a speech to teachers: "Every child in America entering school at the age of five is INSANE because he comes to school with certain allegiances toward our founding fathers, toward our elected officials, toward his parents, toward a belief in a supernatural being, toward the sovereignty of this nation as a separate entity. It's up to you as teachers to make these entire SICK children well, by creating the international children of the future."

It becomes clearer when you read what Paul Blanchard, noted Humanist author and educator, said: "Our schools may not teach Johnny to read properly, but the very fact that John is in school until he is 16 tends to lead toward the elimination of religious superstition."

BABYLONIAN IDOLATRY

Idolatry in Old Babylon was the open worship of gods and goddesses: in reality, it was the worship of demons. Sexual perversions were brought into pagan worship with such practices as temple prostitutes. People depended on these spirit-beings (demons) to supply them with power, wisdom and resources. To gain favor with the gods, worship was accompanied by offerings and sacrifices. The sacrifices today are our children.

The Scripture tells us, "Blow the trumpet in Zion and sound an alarm in My holy mountain: Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the Lord cometh, for it is nigh at hand," (Joel 2:11). "O Zion, Holy People of God, awake to the sound of the trumpet, for the day of the Lord is near."

Will the masses of distracted and undiscerning “Christians” of the last days be so spiritually blind and oblivious that Satan will get away with achieving his greatest project? Will he accomplish the task of blending and melding “Christianity” with witchcraft? Sadly, it is happening before our very eyes! By means of a crafty plan of gradualism, churches are being transformed into de facto covens of occultism and witchcraft. It is not a direct attack that is causing this. So-called “Christians” are being taught, induced, and indoctrinated to think like witches while maintaining Christian terminology. Mainstream “Christianity” is rapidly becoming nothing more than witchcraft with a cross on the top. Witchcraft is not just spells, incantations, magic, and rituals. It is, first of all, a way of looking at things: a thought pattern and process, and the rest of the involvement come later.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

God’s spiritual authority is the most astonishing power in the universe. The reign of Jesus Christ on earth with His saints is as sure as His birth, life, death, resurrection, ascension and High Priestly intercession. He has always wanted His disciples to participate with Him in spiritual warfare as is shown in (Matt. 26: 40-45), “And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour? 41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. 42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done. 43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy. 44 and he left them, and went away again, and prayer the third time, saying the same words. 45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.”

The powers of darkness were waging warfare against the flesh of the Lord’s disciples. Satan and every devil’s assignment were to defeat Jesus Christ’s purpose for His life. If they had only known that the killing of Jesus would turn into His victory and our redemption, they would have never crucified the Lord.

Jesus was able to win the greatest spiritual battle of

His life against the powers of darkness without the assistance of His followers. He was victorious through His prayer life to defeat the principalities and powers of Satan, but seemed to be heartbroken that these men were overcome by their corporeal weakness of the flesh and could not participate with his victory. Remember, this battle was occurring before they received their power to overcome by the power of the Holy Ghost as is shown in (Acts 1:8).

Jesus established His Church upon the rock of His blood sacrifice and the anointing and powers of the Holy Ghost. He believed that His Church should be able to wage a militant successful war against the powers of the Devil. His church was given the absolute ability to conquer the powers of darkness and win the souls that He had died for. He left His power for His people to be victorious because we have the same anointing through the Holy Ghost as Jesus did. Will you sleep during the greatest battle of the end time Church while millions are in the valley of decision?

New Christians are like babies that have to learn to live in a new supernatural environment. They have to establish a different connection with the powers of darkness after salvation. They are now the sworn opponents of the legions of Hell. Whoever they were before they became Christians; adulterers, idolaters, horoscope readers, witches, warlocks, fornicators, they must not have any delusions about the devils' reality or their hostility. They must not fear them or believe that the devils' have any power over them. The Lord Jesus inside of the Christian terrifies the devils. The devils cannot touch them but they will try to seduce them. If they become a serious Christian, the devils will target them. The Christian at times will experience great opposition. The Christian should call upon the name of Jesus and asks the Lord to send warring angels to protect them. They must read the Bible and lean upon the Lord.

The Bible shows the devil at a great disadvantage concerning his power over Christians. He is shown as an inferior antagonist in light of what Jesus Christ gave to His church. Satan can only take the place that he is given. The Word of God says in (Jam. 4:7), "Submit yourselves to God, resist the devil and he will flee from you."

The Scripture makes it clear that the battle is not our personal battle. We are part of the war but the battle is the Lord's. We are led by the unconquerable One. The battle rests upon His ability and He has already won the war! (Read Jn. 14: 15-27).

Jesus Christ is the only mediator between God and man, (I Tim. 2:5). His mission was fully accomplished. He is in full control and is exalted to the Father's right hand. He is the Master with almighty power. Jesus came to defy the power of Satan, (Acts 26:18). He challenged the rule of Satan, (Col. 2:10); conquered the right to dominion, (Col 2:14, 15). He set us free from the cause of sin, (I Pet. 3:18). He can set us free from the curse of sin, (I Pet. 5:10:11).

If you have gone to see these demonic movies and took your children, you need to repent and ask Jesus to deliver you from the powers of darkness. Do not be deceived. This is a great line of division between the truth and the Lie. He is waiting for you. Return to the Lord God your Savior. Jesus died on the cross for your sins. He was not sacrificed on a stone altar by the Devil.

You should help alert your pastor, friends by giving them these articles. Also you must pray for the leadership of the church of Jesus. Please don't forget to pray for the Children. By the way, we need prayer also.
