Kim Clement Prophecies About the Pope

Kim Clement prophesied on the very day that Pope Paul II had passed away.

Kim Clement's Prophetic Word From 2003:

April 13, 2003 - Humble, TX

"Do I hear Catholics praying? There is a move of My Spirit moving among the Catholic people. They are dissatisfied. Their children have been abused . . . taken advantage of. They are praying for God to come into a system and shake it. Your prayers are being sent into the very highest powers of the Roman Catholic Church. For a Pope shall be laid to rest, and I will raise up an unusual man that will take that position. And even though some of you despise this, I will raise up an unusual man that will come in and bring the Spirit of God amongst the Roman Catholic people. [You] think it not possible, but it shall be so, says the Spirit of the Lord . . ." ¹

NEXT: From April 2, 2005

Note from Steve Shultz: (I was there when Kim Clement prophesied this in Portland, Oregon, about the next pope, having just learned of his passing that day exactly 21 days before the Pope's official installation.)

A number of days after this Pope passed, the next one was selected and, immediately, USA Catholics in large numbers were concerned because this Pope was so old, so conservative, and was also from Germany where he was believed to have served for a short time, against his will, (really?) in the Nazi army . . .

These things add credence to why this word turned out to be true.

A New Pope

April 2, 2005 - Portland, OR

In this day, where death took place from an office that was so high, a shaking shall begin through these summer months where great leaders of yesterday will lay down their sword and they shall meet their Maker. For the time of the death has come where I will remove some of the old, and then millions and millions shall come into the Kingdom at one moment.

For, in 21 days from now, a shaking will take place in the Roman Catholic Church. They will say, "No, it cannot be; why would they elect such a person?" And then they will say, "No, we cannot do it at this time." But it shall be done, and I will bring the Spirit into the Roman Catholic Church and the Vatican, and there will be an infilling of the spirit of the Cardinals and of the priests.

This day I have received a servant. This day you call him the Pope. This day I call him My son. This day you said a pope has died; this day I say a servant has won. I have raised up a new voice and a new Spirit that shall come into Italy, and I shall invade Europe in a way that I have planned thousands of years ago, where they shall say, "What is happening in these places?"

The Spirit of God shall fall in buildings of rock and stone. It shall fall in places where they least believed it. I will cause chaos, and I will say to them, "Now I will take people by the hundreds of millions and share My Spirit with them."

For I will raise up a man that shall continue, and they will say, in the beginning, that he won't be able to do it. But there shall be an experience after 33 days, and a raising up and a resurrection. And a Spirit-filled pope, that will raise up a voice, he shall speak the truth, and they will say, "We must get him out of the way." But, rejoice this day for there are deaths of many great leaders, because it is necessary so that I can raise up a new generation of men and women that will go into the marketplace and raise up the name of Yahweh.

Do we really believe, as Clément's "Prophecy proclaims that God raised up this senile Pope filled with the Antichrist spirit, "My Son?"

LIGHTENING STRIKES THE VATICAN TWICE

Pope Benedict's resignation linked to gay conclave: report

A 300-page dossier compiled by three cardinals investigating the theft of Vatican documents was reportedly given to the Pope the day he decided to resign. The investigation is said to have uncovered a number of factions within the Vatican of gay men who have engaged in sexual activity with male prostitutes and at organized sex romps.

And so, this is the man that Clement claims that God revealed as “His son and the hope of a new generation of men and women?”

Members of the gay lobby included high-ranking Catholic clergy who organized sex romps at a Rome sauna, a suburban Rome villa and a beauty parlor, according to the report. The group was also known to meet at a university residence used by an Italian archbishop.²

Quoting a high-placed Vatican source, La Repubblica revealed members of the gay faction were being subjected to “external influence” or blackmail, from laymen with whom they had relationships of a “worldly nature.”

Male prostitutes — who had pictures of the priests dressed in drag and others performing gay sex acts — were behind the extortion, The Daily Beast reported.³

“If there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and giveth thee a sign or a wonder, 2 And the sign or the wonder come to pass, whereof he spake unto thee, saying, Let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them; 3 Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the Lord your God proveth you, to know whether ye love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul.” (DeuT.13:1-3).

All prophecies are first to be judged, (I Cor. 14:29); (I Thess. 5:19-21); (I Jn. 4:1), for there are also false prophets (Jer. chapter 23); (Ezek. 13); (Matt. 24:24); (I Jn. 4:1); (II Pet. 2:1); (Acts 13:6); (Lk. 6:26); (Rev. 16:13; 19:20; 20:10, Etc.).

Pope Francis and the Emerging One World Religion

Is Pope Francis taking steps that are laying the groundwork for the emergence of a one world religion? If that question sounds quite bizarre to you, I urge you to read the rest of this article. We live at a time when globalization is advancing rapidly.

Image: Pope Francis (Wikimedia Commons).

The global economy is more integrated than it has ever been before, and with each passing year new economic treaties tie us even more closely together. And “global governance” (as the elite like to call it) is also steadily gaining ground. Through a whole host of global institutions such as the United Nations, the World Bank, the IMF and the Bank for International Settlements, global governments are working together to a degree that is unprecedented. Well, what about religion? Is there evidence that we are also witnessing the globalization of religion? Well, yes there is. In fact, it appears that Pope Francis intends to lead the way.⁴

Since he has been Pope, Francis has expressed a desire for unity with the Eastern Orthodox, the Anglicans, and many other major Protestant denominations. But more than a few eyebrows were raised when he recently sent a video message to Kenneth Copeland and his congregation. At the time that the video message was played to the congregation, one speaker declared that “Luther’s protest is over”...

“The Catholic and Charismatic Renewal is the hope of the Church,” exclaims Anglican Episcopal Bishop Tony Palmer, before a group of cheering followers at the Kenneth Copeland Ministries. Palmer said those words are from the Vatican. Before playing the video message from Pope Francis to Kenneth Copeland, Palmer told the crowd, “When my wife saw that she could be Catholic, and Charismatic, and Evangelical, and Pentecostal, and it was absolutely accepted in the Catholic Church, she said that she would like to reconnect her roots with the Catholic culture. So she did.”

The crowd cheered, as he continued, “Brothers and sisters, Luther’s protest is over. Is yours?”

Even Kenneth Copeland finds this development incredible: Said Copeland, “Heaven is thrilled over this...You know what is so thrilling to me? When we went into the ministry 47 years ago, this was impossible.”⁵

Shocking: Pope Francis orders all Catholics to worship Lucifer in daily mass

Pope Francis has said that song where Lucifer is worshiped must be signed by all Catholics daily.

See the Shocking video:

[\[link to www.youtube.com\]](http://www.youtube.com)

This song called Exulcet now will be part of the daily mass and is obligatory to sing for all Catholics.⁶

Well Charismatics, you can follow Kenneth Copeland and Kim Clement if you wish but as for me and my house we will follow Jesus!

CLEMENT IS NOT BORN AGAIN

Since Clement does not believe that you have to be Born Again, he cannot be a prophet of God.

“Jesus said, Ye must be born again!”

Kim Clement explains in his own words concerning the teachings of sin, grace and salvation. “I thought that Christianity was based on a relationship resulting from grace. My idea that each person is born with a treasure in their spirit is mocked, and I am accused of being a new age prophet because I will NOT focus on their sin but rather on their treasure” [emphasis his]..... “I know how a sinner feels because I have been one”.....I do not believe that you must be born again to obtain salvation.....you cannot and will not make a disciple out of a sinner who has been introduced to Jesus Christ on the basis of their sinful inheritance only.”⁷

Kim Clement: “I thought that Christianity was based on a relationship resulting from grace” (He then presents his idea of not needing to be born again.)

The Bible: Probably the most important and emphasized teaching in the entire Bible is God’s grace upon humanity. Christianity is about grace, but to receive God’s grace that is salvation one must agree with God in our wrong standing with Him. The book of Ephesians makes it clear that our relationship with God is a direct result of His grace upon us “In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace” (Eph. 1:7). But grace is never given to those who do not admit their sin. In verse 13 we read that, “In Him you also trusted after you heard the Word of Truth, the Gospel of your salvation, in whom also having believed you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise (vs. 14) who is the guarantee of our inheritance.”

Notice grace is given to those who admit they are sinners and believe what God has said about their condition. “But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love were with he loved us even when we were dead in sins, has quickened us together with Christ [by grace you are saved] and has raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus for by grace are you saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works lest any man should boast,” (Eph. 2:4-9). By eliminating being born again as the result of believing the gospel, we then default to gaining salvation by the treasure that is already in us; then it is of ourselves.

Clement says, “I do believe that every human being must repent in order to be right with God, but the method that Jesus used in reaching them is not being applied today. He touched the unseen part of man. The treasure that God placed there is accessible through obedience to the cross.”

Do you believe Clemens’s heresies? Did Jesus die on the cross so we can go within and discover a treasure that was already there? There are natural talents in us but it is the Holy Spirit is the one who gives spiritual gifts and talents. Is Clement assuming the Holy Spirit is already in man without being born again? This does not make any sense in the biblical model of sin being dealt with by His blood on the cross.⁸

“There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God,” (Jn. 3).

When you are saved, you receive Jesus through His forgiveness and your repentance. The Holy Spirit is received by Christians after salvation and Jesus is the One that baptizes them with Fire of the Holy Spirit. Therefore, since Clement does not believe Jesus’ Word in the Bible concerning the doctrine of salvation and he teaches the doctrines of devils, he is not saved and can’t be filled with the Holy Spirit.

This speaks of another experience when you ask your Father for the Holy Spirit. Remember. Repentance is an inward change of heart and attitude to God. The Baptism of the Holy Spirit is gift of power endued by God that is outward act by which the believer testifies to inward change wrought by God's grace in his heart.

“He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God,” (Rev. 2:7).

“He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death,” (Rev. 2:11).

Poor deceived people, you can clearly see by the above scriptures that Mr. Clement is not a called prophet of God!

CLEMENT BELIEVES YOU CAN GIVE FALSE PROPHECIES

Clement is not without his vocal critics and has had to answer allegations of being a false prophet. In an interview on TBN he responded, “You can be a wrong prophet and not be a false prophet, somebody can make a mistake with doctrine...how many Bible prophecy teachers told us things were going to happen, and took out the book of Revelation and they never came to pass and nobody said a word (ed. Note: this is not true many have). No books apologizing for this, a teacher can teach things and today I know teachers, great teachers who said I was wrong 30 years ago some mission doctrine, discipleship, today they say that was wrong. Now they were forgiven, but a prophet makes a mistake and he's a false prophet and we must stone the guy right away he's right out. Well this there's that aspect of it; I could have made a mistake, let me tell you something you can."⁹

“Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;” (I Tim. 4:1).

CLEMENT IS A CALLED THIRD WAVE “PROPHET”

In the year 1983 Kim Clement states that the “Prophet” Bill Hamon confirmed his call to be a Prophet of God. Bill Hamon has been a subscriber to the (HERETICAL) Latter Rain Movement from its inception in the late 40's which the majority of the Pentecostal church rejected as heretical at first. He promotes the Man-child Sons of God doctrine. Today Hamon describes himself as both an apostle and a prophet that is now affiliated with Peter Wagner's International Coalition of Apostles (ICA) known as the round table of apostles. Hamon states, “In 1977 God spoke to me says, “I want you to start raising up a company of prophets and start (menacing) the leadership.” Hamon wants to raise-up an army of prophets (which he has by laying hands on thousands throughout out the world); Clement is a part of this prophetic army. Hamon believes prophets can have a low percentage of accuracy not needing to be 100% correct. Clement has this same theological construct with a low success as a prophet, admitting he has missed it a number of times.¹⁰

“But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets,” (Acts 24 14).

THE BIBLICAL CALL OF GOD

My Bible says that prophets are called and gifted to do the work of the ministry by the Holy Spirit. I have never read Bill Harmon's name in the Word of God.

Isaiah 6 show the experience Isaiah had when he was initiated into the prophetic office. Jehovah's call- “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? God is looking for messengers to carry and proclaim His message... Response- “Here am I, send me.” Self-surrender to the Lord is essential in order to do service for the Lord. The call of God is always a direct supernatural experience between the Holy Spirit and the human person. God would never give His power to call and train people to prophesy to any man or woman. This gift is a direct anointing of the Holy Spirit upon His chosen vessel.

If someone want to teach to how to prophesy, flee from that person; he or she will certainly be a servant of the unholy spirit. This Third Wave Spirit is a spirit called Kundalina and it impersonates the Holy Spirit.

The message He is call upon to proclaim is not generally accepted, never accepted by all Especially not in these days, the days of foretold apostasy: “Forbidding to marry and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth. 4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving: 5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer. 6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained,” (I Tim 4: 3-6). “Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. 3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; 4 and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. 5 But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry,” (II Tim 4: 2-5).¹¹

“For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same spirit; to another faith by the same spirit; to another gifts of healing by the same spirit; to another working of miracles; to another prophecy . . . But all these worketh that one and the self- same spirit . . . ” (II Cor. 12:8-11).

Pursue love, and desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy. “For he who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God, for no one understands him; however, in the spirit he speaks mysteries. But he who prophesies speaks edification and exhortation and comfort to men. He who speaks in a tongue edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the church. I wish you all spoke with tongues, but even more that you prophesied; for he who prophesies is greater than he who speaks with tongues, unless indeed he interprets, that the church may receive edification,” (1 Cor. 14:1-5).

“If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things which I write to you are the commandments of the Lord. But if anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant. Therefore, brethren, desire earnestly to prophesy, and do not forbid to speak with tongues. Let all things be done decently and in order,” (1 Cor. 14:37-40).

The Prophetes, Greek Word for “prophecy” means one who speaks forth.

- A proclaimer of a divine message and means to speak for another
- Denoted among the Greeks an interpreter of the oracles of the gods
- A prophecy is a divinely inspired and anointed utterance.
- It is a manifestation of God speaking the future without using human knowledge.

A prophecy may be a message from God concerning present events or it may concern the future.

- Prophesy forth tells and foretells.
- Hebrew’s word for "to prophesy" means "to flow forth."

It also carries with it the thought "to gush forth like a fountain, to let drop, to lift up, to tumble forth, and to spring forth."

A HOLY message, whether present or future, which provides edification, exhortation, and comfort.

"But He that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification and exhortation and comfort," (II Cor. 14:3).

Many people take this to mean that God never issues a word of warning through a prophecy, only sweet things to the ear.

This is pure error.

"Edification" and "exhortation" may indeed be a word of warning for one's own good.

On many occasions God sent His prophets with stern messages to His own anointed.
Isaiah's trip to Hezekiah was such an occasion; (also Nathan to King David).

THE OCCULT IS RELIGIOUS

Since Mr. Clement does not biblically qualify to stand in the Call of God roll of a prophet as he admits that he is not born again, how can we classify his prophecies?

There is the Spirit of God and the Spirit of Satan. Satan calls prophets also. His prophets are prophets in the manner of the occult.

The occult is very religious and many seeking it hope is to find themselves, a reason for their being and to fill a void in their soul. Instead, they will enter a door that very few are returning back through. Once ensnared by the Devil, the person's mind, body and spirit is totally bound by the powers of darkness. The only way out is through the grace of God and the Blood of Jesus Christ!¹²

“Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who prophesy in My name, whom I did not send, and who say, 'Sword and famine shall not be in this land'--' By sword and famine those prophets shall be consumed!’” (Jer. 14:15).

CLEMENT CLEARLY CALLED BY MEN

Clement said of his Pastor, Fred Roberts he “released me to obey this call.” Clement and his wife subsequently moved to the U.S. In 1986 Clement met Pastor Mike Hayes and describes it as an immediate “divine connection.” He then joined his Church after selling his home in South Africa. In 1991 he settled down in Dallas and later moved to Detroit. Three years later Clement was involved in a serious accident that broke both of his arms. He was left with numerous scars which resulted from the surgery. It was at this time that Clement claims during his recovery that “the Lord visited me with visions and I received specific instructions regarding my ministry I saw beyond the year 2000 and what would happen in the kingdom I saw a vision of people that were wounded people whom I would later call wounded warriors these are people hurt by the religious system unable to get healed because of isolation. These people loved God, yet didn't want to attend traditional Church.” (Quotations unless noted are taken from Clements web site under “history”). After these visions, he founded a movement called ‘Warriors of the Millennium’ and the ‘Kick Devil Butt Generation.’¹³

Clement prophesies while singing. He is known as a singing prophet, and he rocks. His band is well trained to move with his speech and hits all the high and low notes as Clement winds the people through his passionate speeches of “abundance,” prophesying “victory,” “more,” “blessings” and “higher places,” in his gatherings. Clement can act very nervously, he often pulls his hair, fidgets, wipes his nose as he leads the service.¹⁴

CLEMENT IS A FALSE PROPHET

Just like Kenneth Copeland.

Kim Clement

As I stand at this cross, there is one that I have chosen who has kneeled at this cross many, many times. I speak of the one who calls himself after St. Francis of Assisi. The Spirit of the Lord spoke for him to come and stand at the head, but this man is not like any other, says the Lord. This man has been appointed to join the hearts of Protestant faith – Catholic – those who are Spirit-filled. And I will do something so unique and so different, says the Lord, because of his acknowledgement of My power. There is a renewal that will take place that will far surpass what took place in the 60's and in the 70's. My Spirit will not be confined; neither will it be arrested only for one or two groups of people. My eye is on the globe; My eye is on the earth. My eye, says the Lord, is upon planet Earth, to pour out of My Spirit. And I have chosen Pope Francis as one of the voices that will speak, and he will command and they will try and assassinate him three times. They will try within to damage him. God says, they will even try to poison him, but his voice will not be stopped, says the Lord. I will cause people to run to the cross, people to cling to the cross. Many souls shall come. And then, God says, there will be a change in the entire system. I will make a change, for what

Martin Luther did 500 years ago, and when he nailed a thesis to the door and said “this is it – we believe that by faith we are saved, which is a gift of God, saved unto works, not by works.” God’s Spirit says so it shall be that this man shall pronounce that as well and there shall be fire that shall ignite in the southern part of America, in the central part of America. There shall be criminals that shall be brought to justice. And God says this man shall change laws and there will be creeds that will come forth and the Catholic people shall rejoice and they shall smile again for I will fill them with light. I will light the candles of My incense in the buildings that were once built for My glory but were taken and used as stone, as a place of refuge, as a place of religion. I will take those same buildings throughout the earth and I will raise them up. And in Italy, I will do something that is so anointed and strange they shall have two earthquakes and then you will know that God has begun to do His work throughout the earth. This is My word, says the Lord. Pray for it shall come to pass, says the Lord.¹⁵

They will find in the treasuries, in the cryptos; material and scrolls. They were supposed to be hidden but will get into the hands of scientists and they shall say, “We must hide these.” But because of this pope, which was spoken years ago of, My Spirit will guide him and he shall present these things that are hidden in the caves. People shall be amazed at what has been hidden but the world shall understand there is a key. It is the key of David that shall unlock. And they will say, “we must argue that this is not authentic,” but they shall be proven wrong because of technology that shall emerge. I do this for My kingdom, which is coming, says the Lord, and for My King, who is coming, My Son. Before that great day, before that great hour, there shall be a discovery after discovery of the scrolls and the documents and truths shall emerge from caves, from tunnels, from the ground. And Christ shall be known throughout the earth and great celebration shall take place because of this, says the Lord. (Source)

In case you missed it, let me give a brief summary of what Kim Clement is saying in this prophecy – this is what I gather from what I’ve read:

- The pope is chosen by God (in a good way).
- God’s Holy Spirit called for him to come and stand at the head of the Church
- He has been “appointed” to unify the Protestant faith
- The pope is one of God’s chosen voices that will speak
- God going to change the entire system (in a good way).
- The pope is going to change laws (I couldn’t help but think of Daniel 7:25)
- God is going to use Italy (Rome – not Israel) as a sign for what He’s going to do
- The pope will be guided by God’s Spirit with the authority of the key of David and find materials and scrolls that are going to have an impact on the world.

People in the prophetic church ... PLEASE LISTEN TO ME!!! This “word” from Kim Clement is a bald-faced deception! But YOU WILL BE DECEIVED if you decide to listen to familiar spirits rather than the Word of the Living God. Turn from these deceivers ... I wish somehow that you can see my heart and KNOW that I’m not trying to tear you down or insult you. This deception was foretold from long ago!¹⁶

TRUE AND FALSE PROPHETS

There is no single word in the Hebrew language meaning “False Prophet” that would correspond to the Greek word in the New Testament, pseudo prophetes.

However, the idea is clearly expressed in phrases such as “lying spirit,” (I Kin. 22: 23), “Lying words,” (Jer. 7:4); “deceiving lies,” (Ezek. 22:28), “daubed”. White wash,” (Ezek. 22:28), “false vision, (Jer. 14:14), “prophets shall become wind,” (Jer. 5:13).

- Sincerity was not sufficient as a distinguishing mark of a true prophet.
- Many false prophets were sincere, though self-deceived.
- Not all the false prophets deliberately deluded the people, though, many did.
- Hananiah announced a message that was contrary to what Jeremiah had preached:
- He was convinced that he was speaking in the name of the Lord.
- Jeremiah did not immediately challenge Hananiah.
- He went away to receive assurance from the Lord. Only then did he return to denounce Hananiah for making the people trust in a lie, (Jer. 28:1-17).
- Calling a man a prophet did not necessarily mean he was one.

The Old Testament did not distinguish the false prophet from the true prophet by calling him by some title other than “prophet.”

“Prophet” is used to describe the 50 representatives of Baal and the 400 spokesmen of Asherah (I Kin. 18:1.9. Jer. 28:1), speaks of “Hananiah the prophet.”

-Saying “Thus says the Lord” was not sufficient.

-The false prophets introduced their messages with the same words, (Jer. 28); (Ezek. 13:2, 6-7).

-The ancient Near East Kings frequently sent messages or heralds to various parts of the kingdom to read royal decrees to their subjects.

-If the messenger announced to the assembled crowd that the decree was his own; he would have been ignored or dealt with more severely.

-When he announced, “Thus says the king of Assyria” or “thus says the Kings of Babylon” Compare (II Chron. 18:26; 32:10); (II Kin. 18:19).

-The people listened in respectful silence, for the phrase carried the authority of the king and his army behind it

-The subjects knew they had no choice but to obey.

New Testament seems to suggest that ecstatic frenzy is a sign of false or polluted prophecy (I Cor. 14:32). However, no such disqualification was present within the Old Testament.

Old Testament gives specific ground rules for spotting a false prophet.

-If a prophet invites you to go off and worship another god, whether creature or spirit; that prophet should be put to death, (Deut. 13:1-5).

-If the prophet speaks a word, claiming to be from the Lord, but later it is discovered that the word had its origin in something other than God.

-That prophet should be put to death, (Deut. 18:20).

-A false prophet will be spotted if what he speaks does not come true, (Deut. 18:22).

-What God says will always be fulfilled.

CRITERIA FOR IDENTIFYING A TRUE PROPHET

Ability as a speaker, sincerity title or claim of authority from God cannot be depended upon to distinguish a false prophet from a true one.

There were two clearly established Old Testament criteria for distinguishing true from false prophets.

When a prophet speaketh in the name of the Lord, if the thing follows not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the Lord hath not spoken, but the prophets' hath spoken it presumptuously; you shalt not be afraid of him.

If the words of the prophet came true, he was recognized as a true prophet.

After the warnings of the destruction of Jeremiah and Ezekiel came true, the people flocked around them to acknowledge that they were prophets of God because they had satisfied the Deuteronomy test of fulfillment (Jer. 42:1-6; (Ezek. 33:30-33).

There can be a long lapse of time between proclamation and fulfillment.

When fulfillment did occur, it was sometimes too late to benefit by knowing that the man truly was a prophet.

Jeremiah preached for forty years that Jerusalem was going to be destroyed.

After thirty-nine years of hearing such dire predictions, the people were convinced that Jeremiah was a false prophet because nothing he said had come true.

They ridiculed him publicly and privately.

When the fulfillment occurred, the destruction of Jerusalem, it was too late to profit from the knowledge that Jeremiah had been telling the truth.

Micah may have been branded a false prophet for a considerable time.

He correctly announced that: “Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest,” (Mic. 3:12).

His warnings were issued more than a century before they came true.

When Jeremiah voiced a similar warning against Jerusalem, the people were so angry that he would utter such blasphemous words that they were ready to mob him on the spot. Fortunately for Jeremiah, someone recalled that Micah had uttered similar words a hundred years earlier.

King Hezekiah believed him and did not put him to death, (Jer. 26:16-19).

Consequently, they decided not to kill Jeremiah.
Micah stepped out of the past to save Jeremiah's life.

(I Kin.13), tells of a nameless man of God from Judah who came to Jeroboam I at Bethel and foretold the destruction of an altar upon which Jeroboam was about to offer sacrifice. The altar was not actually destroyed until three hundred years later, (II Kin. 23: 15-16).

Joel predicted an outpouring of the stigma of "false prophets" in his lifetime if the fulfillment test had been applied to him. Joel predicted an outpouring of the Spirit of God accompanied by cosmic upheavals (Joel 2:28-32). It was hundreds of years later on the day of Pentecost that the apostle Peter announced that Joel's prophesy had been fulfilled. He interpreted the strange behavior that accompanied the filling of the believers with the Spirit of God as fulfillment of Joel's prophecy (Acts 2:14-21).

In the intervening centuries many probably concluded that Joel was a false prophet.

The conditional aspect of some prophecies could invalidate their fulfillment for example, (Jer. 18:7-10); (Deut. 28:1). When the prophecy begins with "if," it is relatively easy to identify it as a conditional prophecy.

What about those prophecies that contained implied conditions?

(Jn. 3- 4), there must have been an implied condition, or possibly stated but not recorded; the condition was if the Ninevites would repent, they would not be destroyed.

PROPHECY AND PROPHETS IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

Jeremiah forecast a day of a new covenant (Jer. 31:31-34). No longer would necessary for one person to tell another about the Lord, for all believers know Him personally

No longer a few chosen individuals who knew the mind and heart of God.
Puts His law into every believer's heart. From least to greatest.
Moses petition became a reality:

"Would that all the Lord's people were prophets that the Lord would put his spirit them!" (Num. 11:29).

Pentecost made the prophetic potential of every believer a reality (Acts 2:17:18). Paul encouraged the Corinthians to "earnestly exert" themselves to prophetic ministry (I Cor. 14:1). They are all allowed to prophecy as long as they do so in accordance with the orderly procedure the apostle lays out (I Cor.14: 26-33). Although not all are gifted as prophets, (I Cor. 12:29), each has an enablement by the Spirit to speak God's word.

New Testament recognized specific men and women to be prophets/prophetess. These individuals were usually itinerant and ministered alongside residential teachers and pastors, (Acts 13:1-3).

Agabus, were noted for their forecasting ability (Acts 11:27-30; 21: 10-14).

Judas and Silas, daughters of Philip, "encouraged and strengthened" the churches with lengthy messages. (Acts 15:32; 21:9).

They were residential prophets among the elders akin to those at Lystra who laid hands on Timothy and spoke God's appropriate word, (I Tim. 1:18; 4:14).

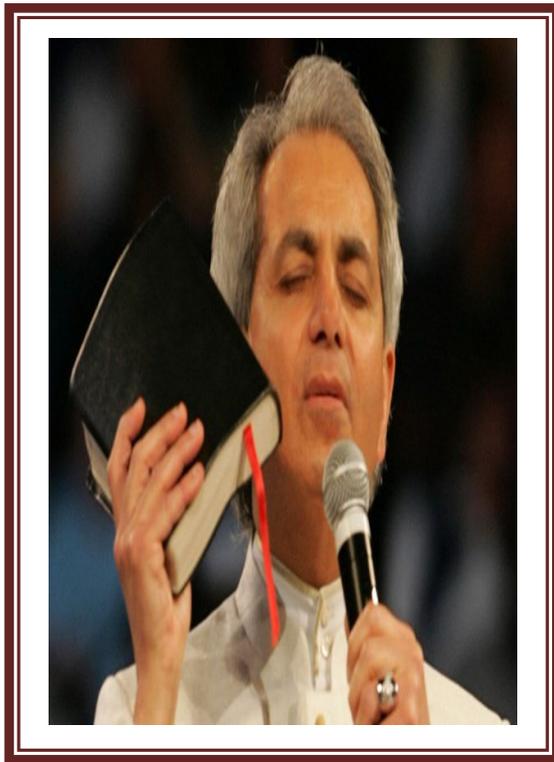

Techniques of revelation in New Testament

Similar to those in the Old Testament

The Spirit pressed a work or picture upon an individual until personal awareness of that word was received.

Dreams and visions preceded some of these words: (Mt. 1:20; 2:12); (Acts 2:17; 9:10-11; 10:3-4; 12:9-19; 16:9-10; 26:19); (II Cor. 12:1); (Rev. 9:17).

BENNY HINN, AIMEE S. MCPHERSON AND KATHERYN KUHLMAN

"Aimee S. Mcpherson and Kathryn Kuhlman's bodies are dead and buried but they have reserved power, at least according to Benny Hinn. He even frequents their graves. This is a Grave Deception.

He said, "One of the strangest experiences I had a few years ago [was] visiting Aimee's tomb in California... Friday I am gonna go and visit Kathryn Kuhlman's tomb. Its close by Aimee's ... I've been there once already and every so often I like to go and pay my respects 'cause this great woman of God has touched my life. And that grave, uh, where she's buried is closed, they built walls around it. You can't get in without a key and I'm one of the very few people who can get in. But I'll never forget when I saw Aimee's tomb. It's incredibly dramatic. She was such a lady that her tomb has seven-foot angels bowing on each side of her tomb ... I felt a terrific anointing when I was there. I actually, hear this,' I trembled when I visited Aimee's tomb. I was shaking all over. God's power came all over me. ... I believe the anointing has lingered over Aimee's body."¹⁷

<http://www.letusreason.org/Pent28.htm>

This is a practice known as "grave sucking." Apparently the people of BETHEL CHURCH even have started to do this recently. What on earth are these people thinking? What on earth is Benny Hinn thinking? Maybe there is "power" around her grave but I'll tell you what that power is, evil spirits. Why else would Aimee commit suicide? Evil spirits lead people to commit suicide.

HOW TO TEST THE SPIRITS

How are we to "Test the Spirits?"

"Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God; because many false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world," (I Jn. 4-1, 2).

It must not draw people away to another god. (See Deut. 12:1-5).

Every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God.

- This is the spirit of Antichrist.
- How can prophecy be judged?
- What prophecy is not
- Imagination of the mind
- Fortune telling
- Private interpretation
- Guiding others life
- Controlling people
- Leading groups outside of a pastor

Test the spirits. Make sure it is God's spirit and not an evil spirit that they, whoever is preaching, are talking about. Satan always masks his lies with some truth, sometimes with a lot of truth, in order to greatly deceive many. Be on your guard. Be cautious. Don't believe everyone to be Christian who says they are "Christian." Satan masquerades as an angel of light, something we always need to remember. And never forget that he is the father of lies, and he is an excellent liar. So good that people often, often, mistake his lies for the truth.

“For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. 14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. 15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works,” (II Cor. 11:13-15).

SOTERIOLOGY THE DOCTRINE OF SALVATION

“Take the helmet of salvation,” (Eph. 6: 17).
“Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is His good, pleasing and perfect will,” (Rom. 12: 2).

The fall of Adam caused sin to enter the earth. Sin separated mankind from a Holy, Just God. However, according to (Jn. 3: 16), “God so loved the world that He sent His Son Jesus to redeem it,” The only thing necessary for man to receive God’s grace is repentance and acceptance of Christ’s sacrifice believing that He died in our place. When this is done, we are “saved” from eternal hell. Jesus Christ is the only Savior of the world. All who call on His name shall be saved. The new birth is a spiritual regeneration, “Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust,” (II Pet. 1: 4).

“Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth forever,” (I Pet. 1: 23).

Through sin, man’s spirit came into a condition of spiritual death. In regeneration man is quickened out of his spiritual separation with God. Resurrection is the restoration to life of that which life has become extinct. The new birth is a spiritual translation,

“Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:” (Col. 1: 13).”

Regeneration is a transfer from one kingdom to another. It is the transfer from the kingdom of darkness into the Kingdom of God's Dear Son.

SPIRITUAL CREATION

It a spiritual creation:

"For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them," (Eph. 2: 10).

The new birth is necessary because of the inability of that which belongs to one kingdom or order to enter another kingdom by itself unaided.

"Jesus answered and said unto him, verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. 4 Nicodemus saith unto him, how can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? 5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. 6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. 7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again," (Jn. 3: 3-7).

This is a result of man's condition of spiritual death:

"And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins," (Eph. 2: 1).¹⁸

HOW TO BE BORN AGAIN

Accept Jesus' Christ blood sacrifice on the cross for your propitiation for your sins. Repent and ask him to forgive you.

WITNESS

Tell someone at every opportunity that you have accepted Jesus Christ as your personal Savior. This is very important. If you truly love Jesus, you will want to tell others about Him, and He will "manifest" Himself to you.

"That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved," (Rom.10:9-10).

SPIRITUAL DISCIPLINE

Read God's word every day. You are a new born babe in Christ, you need spiritual food and it comes from God's Word. Then pray every day and take time to praise His name. Talk to God out loud, just as you would to another person, and in the name of Jesus.

FELLOWSHIP

Pray about where to seek the fellowship of other born again Christians in a strong SPIRIT-FILLED Bible believing church. By studying and praying together, you will be drawn into Christian principles and receive the abundant life in Jesus Christ. Be very careful about your choice of friends. Ask the Lord to bring you true Christian Friends.

“And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers,” (Acts 2:42).

“Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? And what communion hath light with darkness?” (II Cor. 6:14).

“And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision,” (Gal. 2:9).

“And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ,” (Eph. 3:9).

“And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them,” (Eph. 5:11).
