OBAMA MASONIC RESURRECTED OSIRIS

OCCULT MESSIAH APPEARS PSYCHIC GOD CHILD

PAT HOLLIDAY, PH.D.

HAS SATAN PRODUCED A MAN envisaged by Masons, occultist, psychics, and New Agers? “Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time,” (1 John 2:18). KJV

DID SHE SEE THE BIRTH, RISE & MOUNTING POPULARITY OF THE ANTICHRIST? OR THE FALSE PROPHET?

Jeanne L. Dixon (January 5, 1904 – January 25, 1997^[1]) was one of the best-known American astrologers and psychics of the 20th century, due to her syndicated newspaper astrology column, some well-publicized predictions and a best-selling biography.^[2]¹

The late American mystic and prophetess Jeanne Dixon foresaw Rameses and Nefertiti, and she was holding a baby. As she gazed outside she saw the bare-limbed trees and city street below; but a bright blue sky above a barren desert. Just above the horizon was the brightest sun that she had ever seen, glowing like a golden ball. Splashing from the orb in every direction were brilliant rays which seemed to be drawing the earth toward it like a magnet. Stepping out of the brightness of the sun's rays, hand in hand, were a Pharaoh and Queen Nefertiti. Cradled in the Queen's other arm was a baby, his ragged, soled clothing in startling contrast to the gorgeously

Arrayed royal couple. "The eyes of this child were all-knowing," Jeanne say softly. "They were full of wisdom and knowledge."²

A little to one side of Queen Nefertiti, Jeanne could glimpse a pyramid. While she watched entranced, the couple advanced toward her and thrust forth the baby, as if offering it to the entire world. Within the ball of the sun, Jeanne saw Joseph guiding the tableau like a puppeteer pulling strings. Now rays of light burst forth from the baby, blending with those of the sun and obliterating the Pharaoh from her sight. Off to the left, she observed that Queen Nefertiti was walking away, "thousands of miles into the past." The Queen paused beside a large brown water jug, and as she stooped and cupped her hands to drink she was stabbed in the back by a dagger. Jeanne says that she "distinctly heard her death scream as she vanished."³

Also mentioned in "A Gift of Prophecy" her vision on July 14, 1952, Jeanne saw a vision of a large snake that was a very wise snake; its eyes were looking toward the East, with great wisdom. She felt that this snake knew all things. The snake told her that she too must look to the East for wisdom. And she felt that this snake was a bringer of peace on Earth and good will and great knowledge.⁴

Ms. Dixon describes her interpretation of the vision. "A child, born somewhere in the Middle east shortly after 7 a.m. (EST) on February 5, 1962, will revolutionize the world. Before the close of the century he will bring together all mankind in one all-embracing faith. This will be the foundation of a new Christianity, with every sect and creed united through this man who will walk among the people to spread the wisdom of the Almighty Power."⁵

"This person, though born of humble peasant origin, is a descendant of Queen Nefertiti and her Pharaoh husband; of this I am sure. There was nothing kingly about his coming...no kings or shepherds to do homage to this newborn baby...but he is the answer to the prayers of a troubled world. Mankind will begin to feel the great force of this man in the early 1980's and during the subsequent ten years the world as we know it will be reshaped and revamped into one without wars or suffering. His power will grow greatly until 1999, at which time the people of this earth will probably discover the full meaning of the vision." ⁶

Ruth Montgomery, asked these questions. As a reporter, I felt there were questions that must be asked. How could she be sure that the queen in her vision was Nefertiti? Who was the Pharaoh who disappeared back into the sun? Why was Joseph in the vision? Jeanne could answer only in part. She said that she recognized Nefertiti from a small bust of the famed Egyptian Queen, which a friend once brought to her from Cairo. She "knew" that the Pharaoh was married to Nefertiti but had no idea of his name or identity. Joseph seemed to be controlling the couple and inducing them to present the child to the world.

The author's answer is: Joseph was the earthly father of Jesus, the Son of the Living God. However, Joseph of the vision was dead and standing in the sun. Could Satan be revealing that this new promised son of the sun would be produced from the past eons from the DNA from his forefather of antiquity?

Ruth Montgomery says, "The Encyclopedia Britannica and learned that Nefertiti was the wife of Pharaoh Amenhotep IV who, after abandoning the worship of Amon, "devoted himself to that of the Aton (the solar disk)." He thereafter changed his name to Ikhnaton and built a new capital dedicated to worship of the sun on the banks of the Nile above Cairo. Archaeological evidence suggested that Nefertiti was also an "ardent supporter of the Aton (sun worship) religion." They had seven daughters but no sons. Suddenly I realized how strange it was that Jeanne Dixon, who was totally unaware that Nefertiti and her husband had worshiped the sun, nevertheless "saw" them stepping forth from the solar disk in a vision."⁷

- Barack Obama: The Best TIME Photographs

Ms. Dixon saw the mystical baby grow into a man who would transform the world by year 2000, creating a unifying world religion, and bringing world peace; she saw a cross growing above this man, until it covered the whole earth which brings to light his creation of a worldwide religion that will replace Christianity.

Dixon saw that the child was a descendant of the very beautiful Egyptian Queen Nefertiti and her Pharaoh husband Amenhotep IV, or Akhenaton, an "enlightened" pharaoh, who created a monotheistic sun-worship religion which was quite a change from Egypt's polytheistic religion before his time. The king's new sun religion was a predecessor to the later monotheistic religions that we have today. This monotheistic sun-worship religion was discarded after this Pharaoh's death.

However, to understand this Jeanne Dixon vision, consider the Christian disclosure of the Antichrist and his ally the False Prophet who will have power over the world for seven years bringing a false world peace through terror. Their demonic control ends at the Battle of Armageddon when supernaturally, Jesus Christ unexpectedly returns to defeat their armies. This glorious event begins a thousand year Millennium period of peace and prosperity on earth. So, who is this child Jeanne Dixon saw in her vision? She saw a young man arising out of Egypt to rule the world in a vision she had February 5, 1962.

"A child born somewhere in the Middle East shortly before 7:00 A.M. (EST) on February 5, 1962 who will revolutionize the world. Before the close of this century, he will bring together all mankind in one all embracing faith. This will be the foundation of a new Christianity, with every sect and creed united through this man who will walk among the people to spread the wisdom of the almighty powers."

She thought that this was his day of birth, as it was a very significant date--the 66th day of the year--also marked by many mystics and astrologers as having great import for the world. She saw him plotting with his followers as early as the age of 19, and something important happening to him around 1973. Jeanne saw his impact felt by the world at the age of 29 or 30 around 1992. Even though he obviously was not revealed yet.

(Barack Obama claims he was born on August 4, 1961. As of August 4, 2009, he is 48 years old).

Ms. Dixon said, "Although she supposed him to be of actual ancient Egyptian lineage of the Pharaohs, he was really living in another part of the Arab world. She also saw in this young man, who becomes leader of Egypt, the figure of the Pharaoh Amenhotep with his Queen Nefertiti. Amenhotep was the heretic that eventually turned the world from its former gods to worship himself! Dixon saw that ancient prototype pair presenting this modern son and descendent as a fit and final heir to their rebel throne as the final Antichrist world ruler so often predicted in the Bible. Not only this, but she also sees him with such infinite and Satanic wisdom, knowledge and hypnotic personality, that "all the world will wonder after him", as predicted in Revelation 13. Particularly... the YOUTH of the world will idolize him and flock after him.⁸

At the end, she sees him leading them up a road to a point of decision and division where they can either follow him to the left or take the straight and narrow to the right, away from him. She sees him wearing a flowing robe, leading them into darkness and destruction in the end. But then she notices some small groups of faithful young pilgrims leaving him, and climbing over difficult obstacles along the narrow path that led to the right... to their Heavenly home with Christ!⁹

VALLEY OF THE KINGS

WHERE PHARAOHS MET THEIR GODS

The city of Thebes was the site of mighty temples built on the east bank of the Nile to honor the gods of New Kingdom ancient Egypt. On the opposite west bank was a magnificent burial ground for the pharaohs - the Valley of the Kings. This was the kingdom of Osiris, god of the underworld. From their grand tombs filled with treasures and decorated with magnificent art, the Egyptian pharaohs believed they would embark on a journey in which they would meet the gods in the afterlife and achieve immortality.

It has been years since these people have had a pharaoh with such a vast army as America's, and I can only imagine what sort of demonic plotting and prayers to false gods they will be doing behind closed door meetings.

Obama is tapping into some dark arts and it's no coincidence that these Egyptians are so excited about his visit, where he plans to announce that his principality of Iran will receive American nuclear technology.

The coffin in which Tutankhamun was entombed was made from 110 kilograms of gold. The image of the pharaoh holds a crook and flail that symbolized royal power in ancient Egypt. The treasures of Tutankhamun are now in the Egyptian Museum, Cairo.

Osama's dark agenda to turn the entire world Muslim has been unveiled.

for Strategic Communications Denis McDonough said "the President himself experienced Islam on three continents before he was able to -- or before he's been able to visit, really, the heart of the Islamic world -- you know, growing up in Indonesia, having a Muslim father -- obviously Muslim Americans (are) a key part of Illinois and Chicago."

In his April 6 address to the Turkish Parliament, President Obama referenced how many "Americans have Muslims in their families or have lived in a Muslim majority country. I know, because I am one of them."

Archaeologists took the mummy from its stone sarcophagus and placed it in a climate-controlled case inside his tomb in Luxor's Valley of the Kings.¹⁰

The event comes 85 years to the day after the pharaoh's tomb was discovered by British explorer Howard Carter.

Until now, only about 50 living people have seen the face of the boy king, who died more than 3,000 years ago.

As experts lifted Tutankhamon from his coffin they briefly set aside the white linen covering his remains, revealing a shriveled black face and body.¹¹

"The golden boy has magic and mystery and therefore every person all over the world will see what Egypt is doing to preserve the golden boy, and all of them I am sure will come to see the golden boy," Egypt's antiquities chief Zahi Hawass told reporters before the body was moved.

Tutankhamon ruled Egypt from 1333-1324 BC and is believed to have ascended to the throne aged about nine.

Although in life he was of only moderate historical significance, in death Tutankhamon achieved worldwide fame thanks to the virtually intact state of his tomb when it was opened by Carter in 1922.

The tomb was packed with a fabulous trove of gold and ebony treasures of such luxury that when Carter first looked inside the tomb and was asked if he saw anything, his famous reply was: "Yes, wonderful things."

Cause of death

The centerpiece of the tomb was the pharaoh's mummified body, covered in amulets and jewels and wearing a solid gold burial mask.

In an effort to extricate the treasures, Carter and his team cut the body into pieces, chopping off the limbs and head, and using hot knives and wires to remove the gold mask which was fused to Tutankhamon's face by the embalming process.

John the Revelator says in Rev. 9:11 that the 5th angels had the keys to the bottomless pit and he opened it up and smoke came out along with locusts that had a king called Abbadon (Hebrew) Apollyon (Greek). A lot of biblical scholars have connected also the name Apollyon to Apollo a pagan God who symbol was the locust which plagues came out of. Apollyon is opposite of savior, being a destroyer. Apollo was the also called the son of Zeus, the solar king, the Lord of Death in the underworld and night who could shapeshift into a serpent.

The Greek word for the pit (hell) is also Abaton = Abbadon. Abaton is said to be by new agers to be the real pit along with a pagan temple which priests and novices would sleep in overnight to be magically healed by mother earth in a cycle of death, burial, and rebirth.

THE GOD'S OF THE LODGE

Masons love to depict the Lodge as a charitable organization seeking only to promote brotherhood and good works. But Reginald "Bubba" Haupt, Jr., a Savannah, Georgia attorney, explodes this seductive, carefully crafted fairy tale.

In The God's of the Lodge, Haupt uses the Masonic Lodge's own documents to prove that it is none other than Lucifer himself, the Father of Lies, who is worshipped and adored by millions of Masons. THE MYSTERY OF OSIRIS

Osiris plays a key role and is a central figure in the ancient Egyptian mysteries and in the Order Of the Morning Star. It was Osiris who was the beloved pharaoh of Egypt. It was Osiris who taught the people of the land of Egypt about farming. Osiris was and is one of the first "Green Men", in that he was also the god of vegetation. When Osiris became ruler over the land of Egypt, the people were engaged in the practice of cannibalism. Osiris helped them to evolve beyond cannibalism and to learn farming skills.

The famous myth of Osiris is narrated in details in the Pyramids Texts. It tells that Osiris was assassinated by his brother Seth who was jealous of him because of his great power that enables him to serve the mortal humans and grow the grains. Seth put the body of Osiris in a coffin and sent it away. After a long journey of suffer, Isis managed to find the body of her husband and the father of her son Horus but Seth cut the body into pieces and thrown each one in an area of the earth. Isis looked for the pieces of Osiris's body and gathered them and by the help of Thuth and Anubis she wrapped him in the Mummy's clothes. When Horus grew up he took his revenge and put an end for his uncle's viciousness.

LOOKING FOR THE ANTICHRIST

¹² Reginald "Bubba" Haupt, Jr., a Savannah, Georgia attorney, The God's of the Lodge

The Bible predicts that a world government will be established on earth just before Jesus Christ returns to establish his 1000 year reign of peace. We have heard a lot about New World Order over the last few years, but very few people understand what is meant by the term. The fact is New World Order is world government!

IS BARACK OBAMA THE ONE? Barak—Hebrew for “wolf lightning.”

Tom Horn’s informative upcoming new book: APOLLYON RISING 2012: The Final Mystery of the Great Seal Revealed, shares important Masonic prophecies that Christians should know, now.

Tom Horn shows the Masons looking for a prophecy of the Return of Osiris to be fulfilled. “The Greek Historian Herodotus also connected Apollo with Horus, the god whose all-seeing eye stands atop the unfinished pyramid on the Great Seal. This is telling given that the Great Seal’s mottoes and symbolism relate to both Osiris and Apollo specifically, yet as one. Osiris is the dominant theme of the Egyptian symbols, his resurrection and return, while the mottoes of the seal point directly to Apollo, and the Eagle, a pagan emblem of Jupiter, to Apollo’s father. Both gods were known to various ancient societies by other names as well. When this is understood, new light is cast on the Great Seal’s semiosis beginning with the phrase, E Pluribus Unum, Latin for “out of many, one.”

When Obama spoke to the Muslim world in Cairo Egypt, he said some phrases in perfect Arabic and ending with a Latin Phrase, “Out of Many, One.” You will see the various YouTubes of President Obama visiting the Pyramids in Egypt. There is a paranormal force that has chosen this mysterious man to fulfill the Masonic prophecies of the Resurrection of the god, Osiris.

We see the possibility that he could be the New Age prophesized “The Christ.”

Rev. Horn explains, “Whenever the United States assumed its position as the new Capital of the World, Wallace believed, the Grand Architect would return and metaphorically the all-seeing eye would be fitted atop the Great Seal Pyramid as the finished ‘apex stone.’ Wallace may even have imagined himself as the mysterious global leader who would fulfill this oracular scheme. In Henry Wallace the Man and the Myth, Dwight MacDonald pointed out: “Just as Wallace thinks of America as the nation destined by God to lead the world, so Wallace thinks of himself as a Messiah, an instrument through whom God will guide America onward and upward.” [2] Wallace himself seemed to allude to this belief in 1934 when he wrote:¹³

It will take a more definite recognition of the Grand Architect of the Universe before the apex stone [capstone of the pyramid] is finally fitted into place and this nation in the full strength of its power is in position to assume leadership among the nations in inaugurating ‘the New Order of the Ages’. [3]

¹³ <http://www.raidersnewsnetwork.com/> Tom Horn

Both men were fascinated with the concept of a new breed of people—new Atlantians for the New Atlantis similar to Hitler’s contemporaneous exploration for the Aryan supermen—led by an earthly Messiah. Incredibly, if this supernatural leader was to be a magical reincarnation or resurrection of deity, the body or DNA of this savior may have been kept in or represented by a coffin (echoing the coffin symbol on Masonic aprons) cryptically mentioned in correspondence between Wallace and Nicholas Roerich. On March 12, 1933, Wallace wrote Roerich:

Dear Guru, I have been thinking of you holding the casket—the sacred most precious casket. And I have thought of the New Country going forward to meet the seven stars under the sign of the three stars. [4]

Investigative mythologist William Henry says this letter from Wallace made it clear that Roosevelt, Nicholas Roerich and Henry Wallace "were in search of this Divine Child... [and that] they waited... in the 'New Country' [America as the New Atlantis]." [5]

Filmmaker Christian J. Pinto’s "Eye Of The Phoenix: Secrets Of The Dollar Bill," discloses intriguing information about Wallace’s relationship with Roerich and the "sacred most precious casket." When I asked Mr. Pinto what he thought was meant by the phrase "going forward to meet the seven stars under the sign of the three stars," and what this had to do with the casket, he emailed me to say:¹⁴

Tom. The "seven stars" would most likely be at least a partial reference to their Christ figure (Maitreya) as the one world leader, since in Revelation 1:16, it is Christ who holds "seven stars" in his right hand. Remember that Roerich was searching for signs of "the Christ" and the theme of a "universal Messiah" consumed their ideas.¹⁵ versions, and indeed all the critics, are puzzled with the phrase sons of God; b-neey haa-°Elohiym, literally, sons of the God, or sons of the gods. The Vulgate has simply fili dei, sons of God. The Septuagint, hoi angeloi tou Theou, the angels of God. The Chaldee, kittey malachaiya, troops of angels. The Syriac retains the Hebrew words and letters, only leaving out the demonstrative he (<START HEBREW>h<END HEBREW> h) in the word haa-°Elohiym, thus, b-neey °Elohiym

The Arabic nearly copies the Hebrew also, banoa Iloheem; to which, if we give not the literal translation of the Hebrew, we may give what translation we please. Revelation 13:15

[And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast that the image of the beast should both speak, (description of a manipulated puppet) and (the puppet will) because that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.] I would just observe that the Brahmins, by repeating incantations, profess to give eyes and a soul to an image recently made, before it is worshipped; afterward, being supposed to be the residence of the god or goddess it represents, it has a legal right to worship. On this verse the learned professor observes: "The influence of the two-horned beast, or corrupted clergy, is further seen in persuading and inducing mankind to make an image to the beast which had the wound by a sword, and did live."^v

The word golem comes from the Hebrew word gelem, meaning raw material. The golem is outwardly a real person, yet he lacks the human dimension of personality and intellect. Life is interjected into him through a mystical process using God's special name. He is created from the ground, as was the first man. When his mission is over, the name of God is removed from him and he returns to the ground.¹⁶

04. Israel's Golem Run Amok:

Texe Marrs interviews noted author Michael Collins Piper, discussing his blockbuster new book, The Golem: A World Held Hostage—Israel's Nuclear Hell Bomb and the Road to Global Armageddon. The Golem, in Jewish lore and legend, is a monster, a beastly Frankenstein conjured up by the black magic of sorcerous, Talmudic rabbis. Once formed, he goes forth to kill and destroy all perceived enemies of Israel. Piper says that today, Israel's huge and growing arsenal of nuclear bombs and other weapons of mass destruction are, in truth, The Golem. Israel's Zionist leaders, insane with hatred for Gentiles—and especially for Arabs and Moslems—fully intend to unleash The Golem on Iran, Syria, and any other nation that opposes the Zionist Master Plan for a Talmudic World Kingdom. Even the capitals of Europe are threatened. Horribly, The Golem of Israel may end up hurdling the United States into a catastrophic World War III and threatens to destroy the earth itself.¹⁷

Rev 13:4-8, “And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him? 5 And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months. 6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven. 7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. 8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.” KJV

Origins of the Word

The word golem is used in the Bible to refer to an embryonic or incomplete substance: Psalm 139:16 uses the word גִּמְלוֹג, meaning my unshaped form. Psalms 139:16, [Thine eyes did see my substance] Gaal-miy, my embryo state-my yet indistinct mass, when all was wrapped up together, before it was gradually unfolded into the lineaments of man.^{vi}

¹⁷ <http://www.remnanatradio.org> Texe Marrs Archive

(The Mishnah uses the term for an uncultivated person ("Seven characteristics are in an uncultivated person, and seven in a learned one", Pirkei Avot 5:9). Similarly, golems are often used today in metaphor either as brainless lunks or as entities serving man under controlled conditions but hostile to him in others. Similarly, it is a Yiddish slang insult for someone who is clumsy or slow.^{vii}

The earliest stories of golems date to early Judaism. Adam is described in the Talmud (Tractate Sanhedrin 38b) as initially created as a golem when his dust was "kneaded into a shapeless hunk". Like Adam, all golems are created from clay. They were a creation of those who were very holy and close to God. A very holy person was one who strove to approach God, and in that pursuit would gain some of God's wisdom and power. One of these powers was the creation of life. No matter how holy a person became, however, a being created by that person would be but a shadow of one created by God.^{viii}

Early on, the notion developed that the main disability of the golem was its inability to speak. In Sanhedrin 65b, is the description of Rava creating a man (gavra). He sent him to Rav Zeira; Rav Zeira spoke to him, but he did not answer. Said Rav Zeira, "You were created by the magicians; return to your dust."^{ix}

In an introduction to Gustav Meyrink's novel, The Golem, Robert Irwin describes a golem as "hyle or matter which had not been shaped in form. More curiously Hassidic mystics in twelfth-thirteenth century Germany are known to have practiced an obscure ritual which aimed to use the Cabalistic power of the Hebrew alphabet and manipulate the material form of the universe to create a 'golem'."^x Meyrink himself has the character Zwakh the Puppeteer shrugging his shoulders and saying, "The origin of the story is supposed to go back to the sixteenth century. A rabbi, following instructions in a lost book of the Cabbala, is said to have created an artificial man, the so-called Golem, as a servant to help him ring the synagogue bells and do other menial tasks."^{xi}

Then later, Zwakh the Puppeteer theorizes, "Just as on sultry days the static electricity builds up to unbearable tension until it discharges itself in lightning, could it not be that the steady build-up of those never-changing thoughts that poison the air in the Ghetto lead to a sudden, spasmodic discharge?" And then would appear, "a phantom that in expression, gait and behavior, in every last detail, would reveal the symbol of the soul of the masses, if only we were able to interpret the secret language of forms?"^{xii}

Owning and Activating Golems

Having a golem servant was seen as the ultimate symbol of wisdom and holiness, and there are many tales of golems connected to prominent rabbis throughout the Middle Ages.

NOT BORN OF A VIRGIN

Other attributes of the golem were gradually added over time. In many tales the Golem is inscribed with magic or religious words that keep it animated. Writing one of the names of God on its forehead, a slip of paper in its mouth or inscribed on its body, or writing the word Emet (אמת, "truth" in the Hebrew language) on its forehead are examples of such words. By erasing the first letter aleph in Emet to form Met (מת, "dead" in Hebrew, when the aleph letter א is cancelled) the golem could be deactivated. Another way is by writing a specific incantation in the owner's blood on calfskin parchment, and placing it in the mouth. Removing the parchment will deactivate the golem. It is likely that this is the same incantation that the Rabbi recites in the classic narrative.^{xiii}

Rabbi Loew and Golem.

The most famous golem narrative involves Judah Loew ben Bezalel the late 16th century chief rabbi of Prague known as the Maharal, who reportedly created a golem to defend the Prague ghetto from anti-Semitic attacks. This story of the Golem first appeared in print in 1847 in Galerie der Sippurim, a collection of Jewish tales published by Wolf Pascheles of Prague. In 1911 an account in Hebrew and Yiddish was published by Yudl Rosenberg in Lwow, supposedly based on the found diary of Rabbi Loew's son-in-law, who had helped create the golem; but the authenticity of this manuscript is in dispute.[citation needed],^{xiv}

Depending on the version of the legend, under Rudolf II, the Holy Roman Emperor, the Jews in Prague were to be either expelled or killed. To protect the Jewish community the rabbi constructed the Golem out of clay from the banks of the Vltava river and brought it to life through rituals and Hebrew incantations. As this golem grew it became increasingly violent, killing gentiles and spreading fear. A different story tells of the Golem falling in love, and when rejected, he became the violent monster as seen in most accounts. Some versions have the Golem eventually turning on its creator and perhaps even attacking other Jews.^{xv}

The Emperor begged Rabbi Loew to destroy the Golem, promising to stop the persecution of the Jews. To deactivate the Golem, the rabbi rubbed out the first letter of the word "emet" (truth or reality) from the creature's forehead leaving the Hebrew word "met", meaning death. The Emperor understood that the Golem's body, stored in the attic genizah of the Old New Synagogue, would be restored to life again if needed. Accordingly, the body of Rabbi Loew's golem still lies in the synagogue's attic, although some versions of the tale have the golem stolen from the genizah and entombed in a graveyard in Prague's Žižkov district where now the great Žižkovská tower stands.

The existence of a golem is sometimes a mixed blessing. Golems are not intelligent — if commanded to perform a task, they will take the instructions perfectly literally.

In some incarnations of the legend, the Maharal's Golem had superhuman powers to aid it in its tasks. These include invisibility, a heated touch, and the ability to use the Maharal's walking stick to summon spirits from the dead. This last power was often crucial, as the Golem could summon dead witnesses to testify in Prague courts.^{xvi}

The hubris Theme

In many depictions golems are inherently perfectly obedient. However, in its earliest known modern form the story has Rabbi Eliyahu of Chelm creating a golem that became enormous and uncooperative. In one version of this the rabbi had to resort to trickery to deactivate it, whereupon it crumbled upon its creator and crushed him. There is a similar hubris theme in Frankenstein, The Sorcerer's Apprentice and some golem-derived stories in popular culture. The theme also manifests itself in R.U.R. (Rossum's Universal Robots), Karel Čapek's 1921 play which coined the term robot; the novel was written in Prague and while Capek denied that he modeled the robot after the golem, there are many similarities in the plot.[1]^{xvii}

Clay Prague Golem

In the late 19th century the golem was adopted by mainstream European society. Most notably Gustav Meyrink's 1915 novel Der Golem based on the tales of the golem created by Judah Loew ben Bezalel. This book inspired a classic set of expressionistic silent movies, Paul Wegener's Golem series, of which The Golem: How He Came Into the World (also released as The Golem, 1920, USA 1921--the only surviving film of the trilogy) is especially famous. Another famous treatment from the same era is H. Leivick's 1921 Yiddish-language "dramatic poem in eight sections" The Golem. Also notable is Julien Duvivier's "Le Golem" (1936), a sequel to the Wegener film. Nobel prize winner Isaac Bashevis Singer also wrote a version of the legend.

05. Israel's Golem Monster Proven to be Satan's Baphomet—Jewish Messiah Worshipped in Secret is Freemasonry's Dark "Goat of Mendes":

The Jewish Talmud, the rabbis' most holy law book, boasts of a magical beast and monster, the Golem, that is called forth and created by supernatural alchemy and cabalism. The monster ruthlessly slays the enemies of the Jews and defends the Jewish people. Texe Marrs proves that the Golem is none other than the Baphomet of Freemasonry's ancient Knights Templar cult. The Baphomet idol, a half-human, half-goat god, continues to be worshipped at the highest levels of the occult secret societies. Baphomet's adoption by satanic Jewish rabbis in the form of the "Golem" has tremendous ramifications for today. This poisonous dogma reinforces the Holy Bible's prophecies (see Revelation 13 & 17) of the bloody Beast,

666, that will rise up in the last days and wreak havoc and destruction on mankind.¹⁸

CLONING

Artificial mummification was practised in Egypt from ~2600 BC until the fourth century AD. Because of the dry Egyptian climate, however, there are also many natural mummies preserved from earlier as well as later times. To elucidate whether this unique source of ancient human remains can be used for molecular genetic analyses, 23 mummies were investigated for DNA content. One 2,400-yr-old mummy of a child was found to contain DNA that could be molecularly cloned in a plasmid vector. I report here that one such clone contains two members of the Alu family of human repetitive DNA sequences, as detected by DNA hybridizations and nucleotide sequencing. These analyses show that substantial pieces of mummy DNA (3.4 kilobases) can be cloned and that the DNA fragments seem to contain little or no modifications introduced postmortem.¹⁹

“We will develop strict guidelines (for stem cell research), which we will rigorously enforce, because we cannot ever tolerate misuse or abuse,” Mr. Obama said. “And we will ensure that our government never opens the door to the use of cloning for human reproduction. It is dangerous, profoundly wrong, and has no place in our society, or any society.”

Are the First Family clones?

"Human genetic material, largely undamaged after 2,400 years, has been extracted from an Egyptian mummy and has been grown in the laboratory. One 2,400-yr-old mummy of a child was found to contain DNA that could be molecularly cloned in a plasmid vector. These analyses show that substantial pieces of mummy DNA can be cloned and that the DNA fragments seem to contain little or no modifications introduced postmortem."²⁰

THE GOD OF THE FORCES ~ IS BARACK OBAMA THE ONE?

Barak—Hebrew for “wolf lightning.”

No one knows for sure anything about who he is; where he came from; and his entire background is sealed. He is a man cloaked in strange mysteries. First thing Obama did as president was to issue EXECUTIVE ORDER 13489 banning the release of his record without his permission which also revokes section 6 of Executive Order 13233 which bans congress and courts from interceding. But, regarding Barack HUSSEIN ObaMao's action, we do know that he is a trained socialist- globalist and his goal to transform America and the world into tyrannical world system for the elitist and enslavement of the populace During his campaign, Barack HUSSEIN Obama was portrayed by his handlers as a pharaoh style godly character; a divine person that was going to save the world and ordained with godly mystical powers. However, he is destroying America's sovereignty and financial structure and will imprison the world for his greedy Corporate Fascism style NWO sponsors. This is unconscionable.

LOOKING FOR THE ANTICHRIST

Daniel 11:21-45

<http://www.patholliday.com>

He will impiously dishonor the God of Israel, the only living and true God, called here the God of gods. He will, in defiance of him and his authority, do according to his will against his people and his holy religion; he shall exalt himself above him, as Sennacherib did, and shall speak marvelous things against him and against his laws and institutions. He will forbid sacrifices to be offered in God's temple, and order the Sabbaths to be profaned, the sanctuary and the holy people to be polluted, and to the end that they might forget the law and change all the ordinances, and this upon pain of death.^{xviii}

The Christ will not regard the god of his fathers; he made laws to abolish the religion of his country, and to bring in the idols of the Greeks. And though his predecessors had honored the God of Israel and given great gifts to the temple at Jerusalem, he offered the greatest indignities to God and his temple. His not regarding the desire of women may denote his barbarous cruelty (he shall spare no age or sex, no, not the tender ones) or his unnatural lusts, or, in general, his contempt of everything which men of honor have a concern for, or it might be accomplished in something we meet not with in history.

He shall set up an unknown god, a new god, v. 38. In his estate, in the room of the god of his father's (Apollo and Diana, deities of pleasure), he shall honor the god of forces, a supposed deity of power, a god whom his father's knew not, nor worshipped; because he will be thought in wisdom and strength to excel his fathers, he shall honor this god with gold, and silver, and precious stones, thinking nothing too good for the god he has taken a fancy to. This seems to be Jupiter Olympius, known among the Phoenicians by the name of Baal-Semen, the lord of heaven.^{xix}

Dan 11:38-39, "But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things. 39 Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain."
KJV

We also know that a false messiah will appear on the world scene before Jesus Christ returns and will deceive many; his name will be Antichrist. The first person claiming to be Jesus Christ will be Antichrist. In other words, the false Messiah must come before the True Messiah. The first person claiming to be Messiah will be the false one; in fact, when Jesus Christ returns, He will make no claim to being Messiah other than His annihilation of the armies of Antichrist encircling Jerusalem, His seizure of Antichrist and the False Prophet, and His Omnipotent Power amply displayed.^{xx}

Satan is the great master deceiver, seducer, traducer, familiar spirits and he is an expert at his fallen, carnal nature, beastly, earthly, worldly field. Satan is the prince of this world. All who serve Satan and stay under the law of sin and death, dabble in witchcraft, conspire with evil spirits, and do the works of the flesh for all unrighteousness. The bible scholars can divide the word and make all kinds of strange, seducing doctrines, but those true born again Christians who are filled with the earnest measure of God's Holy Spirit deposit are empowered to put off the deeds of the flesh, and serve the living God....in spirit and in truth.^{xxi}
