JIMMY CARTER: False Teacher

PLAINS, Ga. — Former U.S. president Jimmy Carter spent Sunday morning doing something he has done 688 times before — teaching Sunday school.

Crowds formed outside the Maranatha Baptist Church before dawn, streaming into long lines hoping to get in to share worship services with Carter.

As they waited, people shared memories and views about America's 39th president and what he has meant to the state, the country and the world.

Inside his hometown church, with easygoing humor and his usual toothy smile, Carter gave two back-to-back Bible lessons to more than 700 people — some of whom had traveled hundreds of miles — just three days after undergoing radiation treatment for melanoma spots on his brain.

He spent less than five minutes recapping his illness before saying, “That’s enough of that subject” and beginning the lesson on faith, love and relationships.

Carter said he and his wife of 69 years, Rosalynn, resolved never go to sleep without settling their differences.

Battle for your Soul

Much of the spiritual activity of our age emanates from the bottomless pit. If Christians everywhere accurately understood what is happening spiritually, they would arm themselves for the final onslaught the enemy is preparing and thus escape the last great deception. It is time for more than isolated warriors to press the battle to the very gates and for a large body of believers to arise to meet the challenge of the deceiver openly. ¹

Jimmy Carter runs for President as a Christian

When Jimmy Carter ran for POTUS all the Christians ran out and voted for him because he claimed that he was born again.... I read his book "Why not the Best" of his so-called born again experience. I could not find a salvation experience of a commitment to Jesus Christ. I did find a commitment to God.

I tried to warn my Christian friends that according to Carter's testimony in his book, "Why not the Best," that he was not saved? The Christians did not want to hear it. They accused me of attacking a man of God, touching God's anointed and man shunned me at the request of their pastors.

Former President, Carter wrote in his book that his sister, [Ruth Carter Stapleton, Charismatic, New Age Evangelist] told him about Jesus." He had just lost the Governor's race in Georgia and was extremely depressed. He said, "I walked into the woods, looked up to the sky and said, God if you're real, I want to serve you." He said that a peace came over him and knew that everything would be alright.

Notice, Jesus and repentance are missing from Carter's religious conversion. This Christ less experience gives clues to his true religious philosophies; Jesus as his center of his new faith is missing!

Both Ruth Carter Stapleton and Jimmy Carter believe the New Age lie, "All pathways lead back to God." Carter always spoke of his faith and God but Jesus was always missing as an anchor to his Faith.

Jesus clearly said, John 14:6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

When the word repent is used of humans beings, it usually indicates a complete change of character, a forsaking of one's past existence and an acceptance of a whole new approach to life.

Without repentance, a person cannot be saved! The fundamental message of the Hebrew prophets was repentance, a call to forsake the worship of Baal or other sins which characterized the lives of their heresies and to return to faithful practice of the worship of the one true God of Israel. When John the Baptist came with the spirit of Elijah, he proclaimed repentance as the necessary condition for escape from the imminent judgment and entrance into the kingdom of God.

In Jesus' preaching, repentance was closely connected with belief in the gospel (Mk. 1:15). According to the Apostle Paul, it was the message in (Acts 20:21), "Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ." John the Baptist, (Matt. 3:2); Jesus Christ (Mk. 1:15; Lk.13:3-5); again proscribed by Paul, (Acts 17:30, 31). "Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ," (Acts 20:21).

[Repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ] As all had sinned against God, so all should humble themselves before him against whom they have sinned; but humiliation is no atonement for sin; therefore repentance is insufficient, unless faith in our Lord Jesus Christ accompany it.

Repentance disposes and prepares the soul for pardoning mercy; but can never be considered as making compensation for past acts of transgression. This repentance and faith were necessary to the salvation both of Jews and Gentiles; for all had sinned, and come short of God's glory. The Jews must repent, who had sinned so much, and so long, against light and knowledge.

The Gentiles must repent, whose scandalous lives were a reproach to man. Faith in Jesus Christ was also indispensably necessary; for a Jew might repent, be sorry for his sin, and suppose that, by a proper discharge of his religious duty, and bringing proper sacrifices, he could conciliate the favor of God: No, this will not do; nothing but faith in Jesus Christ, as the end of the law, and the great and only vicarious sacrifice, will do; hence, he testified to them the necessity of faith in this Messiah.

The Gentiles might repent of their profligate lives, turn to the true God, and renounce all idolatry: this is well, but it is not sufficient: they also have sinned, and their present amendment and faith can make no atonement for what is past; therefore, they also must believe on the Lord Jesus, who died for their sins, and rose again for their justification. 11

There are four elements to repentance:

Conviction, to realize you are a sinner.

Contrition, sorrow for sin.

Conversion receive Jesus Christ as Savior

Change from sin.

SALVATION

Salvation is not affected by human agency. Where there is no salvation, we see no works of righteousness, (Gen. 6:5; Gal. 5:19-21). Works of righteousness even where they exist possess no saving effect. The Bible disclaims the merit of human agency in salvation, (Isa. 64:6; Dan 9:7; Rom. 3:20-28; 11:5, 6; Gal. 2:21; Eph. 2:8, 9).

A person without Jesus Christ is spiritually dead to the things of God. According to the Word of God, there is no righteousness in that person. "But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. 10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness." (Rom. 8:9-10).

Then look at (Jn. 3:36), "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

Apart from Jesus a person has no peace, but blackness of despair forever," (Rom. 3:17). "And the way of peace have they not known."

No excuse. God's Word is too plain, "For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: 21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. 22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, 23 and changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things. 24 Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves: 25 who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen,” (Rom. 1:20-25).

No escape. Neglect of these things above will send a poor soul into Hell, “The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance,” (II Pet. 3-9).

Years later Neal Hosley, confirmed that Carter did not have a clear understanding of the scripture. On October 11, 2002 Hosley wrote, “JIMMY CARTER: False Teacher” <http://www.christiangallery.com/jimmycarter.htm> which verifies Carter’s Christian conversion was to “God” and not Jesus, which lead him into a false illusionary, his so-called Christian faith.²

Same Sex Marriage and Abortion

Former President Jimmy Carter has said in many interviews that date back to the seventies that he thinks Jesus would approve of gay marriage and abortion. In fact, his Administration funded the Women’s Liberation Movement to promote the ERA in the Seventies and they were promoting abortion on demand and the homosexual movement.

Well, Neal Hosley says, “Jimmy Carter needs to be muzzled because he's devouring people alive. Evidence for this is found in a recent Atlanta Urinal and Constipation editorial written by Carter.

Carter says, “As a conservative Baptist, I am deeply concerned about arguments that have driven wedges between people. I have in mind abortion and homosexuality.”

And why is Carter not concerned?

Hosley goes on to write, “Carter states his position clearly. “The leaders of the early church treated homosexual acts the same as fornication, prostitution, adultery” No argument there. Next, he quoted 1 Cor. 6:9,10, "Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolators, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God." Who can go wrong quoting the Word of God?

But then Jimmy Carter made an absolutely mind-boggling statement that proves Jimmy Carter is either in the last throes of senility or Jimmy Carter is nothing more than one of Satan’s most effective agents. He wrote, "Then he (the Apostle Paul) immediately goes on to say that all these acts listed in 1 Cor. 6 had been forgiven."

And that's it. Fini! Jimmy Carter said that the Apostle Paul said the “acts had been forgiven."

Do you see it? Carter says nothing about those acts being forgiven to those who had repented of those sins and accepted the sacrifice of Christ Jesus on Calvary as atonement for those sins. His words, in context, can only be interpreted to mean that Jimmy Carter accused the Apostle Paul of saying the list of sinful acts described in I Cor. 6:9, 10 had been forgiven... Period.

“I think Jesus would encourage any love affair if it was honest and sincere and was not damaging to anyone else, and I don't see that gay marriage damages anyone else," Carter said in a HuffPost Live interview with Marc Lamont Hill published Tuesday.

"I believe Jesus would approve gay marriage," he said. "That's just my own personal opinion."

Don't pray for Jimmy Carter's healing dear Christian Brothers and Sisters; Pray for God's mercy to draw him to humble repentance and forgiveness of his sins and a true conversion to Jesus Christ.

Apart from Jesus- No possible Salvation

Famous Bible Commentator, Adam Clark first heard a Methodist sermon when he was in his late teens. Once again, he came under great conviction of his sin and separation from God. He went into an open field and prayed earnestly for God to save him. Nothing happened. He had no peace. Adam started to leave in despair when he heard a voice say, "Try Jesus." He went back to his place of prayer and called to Jesus. At once he was flooded with peace and joy.

He began telling everyone about Jesus, walking from village to village, asking neighbor after neighbor if he might read the Bible and pray with them. He trained at a Methodist school--where he was humiliated and forced to live in a closet by school masters who didn't accept him. That changed when John Wesley visited the school, examined him, and took his side. It is well he did, for Adam became the most notable Methodist in the generation after Wesley, leading England's Methodists.

Dear President Jimmie Carter:

The most important questions of life concerns your wellbeing or your sorrow throughout eternity depends upon your answer to the questions: Are you saved? Are you sure you will go to heaven when you die? This matter has nothing to do with how good you are, but are you saved?

No one can enjoy the blessings of God or go to Heaven without being saved. Jesus said, to Nicodemus in (Jn. 3:7). Ye must be born again." God gives us in His Word the only plan for Salvation! You can be saved today.

First, you must realize that you are a sinner. "There is none righteous no not one: for there is no difference; for all have sinned and come short of the glory of God," (Rom. 3:10:22, 23). There is no chance to be saved unless you come to realize that you are a sinner. Pray for God is eager to save you.

✓ "Sin bringeth forth death," (Jam. 1:15).

This is spiritual death, separation from God forever and spending your eternal life in Hell. How terrible! Yes, my friend, but it is true. However, God loved you so much that he gave his only begotten Son, Jesus Christ, as your substitute, who bore your sins and died in your place. "He hath made Him (Jesus) to be sin for us who knew sin that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him," (II Cor. 5:21).

Jesus said, "For whosoever that includes you, shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved (shall be, not might or can but shall be saved," (Rom. 10:12).

Jesus Christ died for you!

“Who His own self bore our sins in His own body on the tree that we being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness by whose stripes ye were healed,” (I Pet. 2:24).

Prayer of Agreement for Jimmie Carter

Heavenly Father:

We are praying on behalf of the Former President Jimmie Carter. No can see the heart of a person but You. We are not judging the former President’s soul as Jesus Christ is his judge. However, we can judge a Christian teacher by his actions and doctrines that he purports to be biblically in accordance with Your Word.

The spiritual; that is, the mature Christian understands that it is Satan and his wicked spirits who move powerfully behind the events of our time. What happens to a man who is born again? Do the Scriptures teach that the new birth includes automatic expulsion of demons? Ephesians 2:1 clearly teaches that all human beings are under the influence of the evil one and that his influence over mankind is exercised by evil spirits. "We all" were in this condition. But in the new birth, the infant believer has his sins forgiven. His spirit—formerly dead in trespasses and sins—is made alive by the Spirit of God and he receives power to become a son of God. He now begins to have the power to overcome the very things which enslaved him before. What a marvelous change from victim of sin to victor, join victor with Christ! But nowhere does the Scripture or experience teach that the new birth automatically eliminates demon influence or bondage, or for that matter, all of the carryovers of the old man such as tempers, moods, lusts, envyings, selfishness, prejudice, to name a few. The born again believer must learn to take up his cross, deny himself and die daily; he must walk in the Spirit lest he fulfil the lusts of his flesh. Hopefully, he will also press on to find his rightful place in the plan of God and effectual functioning in the Body of Christ. The process of growing up in Christ is usually painful, though the result is glorious. The most painful part is the discovery of certain areas in which the believer has been deceived.³

The former President has a vast following of people that believe that he knows the truth of Your word. If Carter is born again and just deceived, then he should be corrected. If he has not born again, and never received Jesus Christ as his personal Savior, then he must be born again in order to go to heaven.

All authority the universe is vested in Jesus Christ, yet He has given His authority to us to overcome all the power of the enemy. Spiritual knowledge is power! Knowing your spiritual authority enables one to enter into spiritual warfare with faith to overcome. We as true believers in the Lord Jesus Christ can bind and cast out demons. “I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you.” (Luke 10:19).

Father, we agree according to Matthew 18: 18, 19, join spiritual warfare according to (Matt. 12:29), “Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? And then he will spoil his house” . We bind all the powers of darkness over the life of former President Jimmy Carter in Jesus’ Name. We ask You Father that You will send the Holy Spirit and a worker to minister the truth of Word of God and save His Soul.

We bind the strongman, Satan, over his spirit and mind of President Carter according to (Matt. 16:19) "And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven," in the name of Jesus.

And we release spiritual healing according to (Matt. 18:18), "Verily I say unto you, whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven," in the name of Jesus.

We agree that all witchcraft power that has been sent to steal his soul and every demon bound and we uproot them breaking every cord, chain and command them to go into the cage. Father, we ask that you will send your strong Angels to war all trespassing devils to war for President Carter's soul.

You said in Your Word, "All authority is vested in Jesus Christ, yet He has given His authority to us to overcome all the power of the enemy." We as true believers in the Lord Jesus Christ can bind and cast out demons. "I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you." (Lk. 10:19). We pray that You will release Your Warring Angels to fight for the Soul of Jimmy Carter.

We rejoice and praise You for the answer to this prayer in Jesus' name. "That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ," (I Pet. 1:7).

Matt 18:19, "Again I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven. 20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

Father, we also pray for people who under this great deception that You approve of homosexual marriage and abortion as proposed by Former President Jimmie Carter. We pray that you will open their eyes to see that You are a holy God. And they need to ask You for forgiveness for following a man instead of Your Son Jesus Christ. "Believe, repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost," (Acts 2: 38).

Be sure you are saved. You need salvation above everything else in your life. If you lose your soul you miss Heaven and lose all. "If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved," (Rom. 10:9).

Scriptures show the divinity of Jesus Christ. "Who is the image of the invisible God, the first born of every creature: For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him. And he is before all things and by him all things consists," (Col. 1:15-17).

Dear Father, I'm a lost sinner. I repent. Please forgive me and come into my heart and save me. Thank you for saving my soul in Jesus' name, and baptize me with the Holy Spirit, Amen. If you are backslidden say the same prayer, the Lord loves you and will forgive you.

We thank You Lord for hearing our prayer for former Jimmy Carter and his followers in Jesus' name, Amen.
