Prayer is certainly the highway to Christian victory and is God's way of developing a loving relationship with His people. However, prayer is also the chosen vehicle to change the plans of Satan for your life, family, community, church, city and country. Isaiah shows there must be a time of waiting before God in prayer, [...]

CHRISTIAN POWER AND AUTHORITY

The Scripture reveals Him in 'power and authority,' "And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to usward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, which he wrought in Christ when he raised him from the dead and set him at His own right hand in the heavenly places," (Eph. 1:10).

How wonderful! He gives the Believer us His Heavenly power!

The warfare of the saints is not after the flesh, (2 Cor. 10:3).

WARFARE

JESUS IS OUR WEAPON AGAINST SATAN

Isaiah says, "No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper, and every tongue that shall rise in judgment against thee thou shalt condemn" (Isaiah 54:17). Its defense, Isaiah says, shall be immaterial. "We have a strong city; salvation shall God appoint for walls and bulwarks" (Isaiah 26:1); "thou shalt call thy walls salvation and thy gates praise" (Isaiah 60:18). By a different figure it is said, "I will encamp about mine house because of the army" (Zechariah 9:8). As Isaiah says, "The Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory" (Isaiah 60:19); and of Christ, "In that day shall the Branch of the Lord be Beauty and Glory-to the escaped of Israel" (Isa. 4:2).

Matthew 4:1-11

Although Jesus was both the Son of God and the Son of man, Satan's notion that he could reach his humanity, he dealt with Him as a human made of flesh and bone, but not as God in the flesh (Col 2:9). However the Holy Ghost came at His baptism to supernaturally empower Him for His life's work. Also Jesus was without doubt "The Word . . . made flesh" (John 1:14) that He did not hesitate to have an encounter with Satan.

We as believers, however, are not so led by the Spirit to be tempted by Satan. Rather, Satan is an adversary whom Peter compares to "a roaring lion, [who] walketh about, seeking whom he may devour" (1 Peter 5:8). Therefore, Jesus teaches us to pray, "And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil" (Matthew 6:13).

Satan's pride was the basic cause of his downfall from heaven (Luke 10:18). He was not created as a devil but as an angel. He then rebelled against the supremacy of God (Isa 14:12-15; Ezek 28:13-17; 1 Tim 3:6).

Satan's activity in the world as "the prince of the power of the air" (Ephesians 2:2) is restricted (Job 1:12; Revelation 12:7-12). In each conflict with Jesus he was defeated (Matthew 4:1-11; Luke 11:14-22). Twice Satan said to Jesus, "If thou be the Son of God" (Matthews 4:3, 6); knowing Jesus was the Son of God because he saw Jesus in heaven before his fall.

Satan endeavored to tempt Jesus through His human nature, Perhaps he could reach Him through his flesh, physical comforts or desires. Then convince Christ to use His Godly supernatural power to change stones into bread after his forty-day fast.

Jesus came to show us how to live and survive the attacks of Satan. Isaiah 58:6, “Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?”KJV

However, Jesus would not prove His Godhood. He came to save “That which is lost” human beings — not Satan. Satan's second temptation also involved a miraculous flaunting of supernatural power.

Lastly, Satan offered Him instantaneous rule over all the kingdoms of the world. Satan does have power over the kingdoms of the world given to him by evil men. He even tried to convince Jesus to avoid the cross as the means of our salvation (Matt 16:21-23). Jesus called Peter “Satan” when he suggested such a thing, knowing that “without shedding of blood there is no forgiveness” (Heb 9:22). We likewise must reject Satan's wiles and receive Jesus as our Lord, Savior and Protector.

SIN UNSPEAKABLE DARKNESS IN THE CHURCH

The Bible speaks clearly, “Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In All thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths,” (Prov. 3:5).

Recognizing the truth about oneself paves the way for freedom. Every Christian has a fleshly body and God is specific about how He feels about the behavior of the flesh in such scriptures as: (Gal. 5:17; Rom. 8:7, 8; and Jude 23), which says: “... hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.”

Our own understanding is corrupt, selfish, self-centered and it doesn't matter that we've been born again and Christ's blood applied to our heart.

- Our reasoning remains untrustworthy!
- Our human understanding is suspicious, fearful.
- Our understanding rises with anger, bitterness, fighting, abuse of family members, etc.
- All impure thoughts, vile affections and desires which do not become overt actions are real acts of the inner man.

(Phil. 2:12), “Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.”

David was a man of God who hated sin with everything in him.

- “ . . . I hate every false way,” (Psa. 119:104).
- “Ye that love the Lord hate evil . . . .” (Psa. 97:10).

Yet he committed adultery with Bathsheba and sent her husband to his death to battle! Bathsheba “. . . mourned for her husband,” (2 Sam. 11:26). David’s sin had “displeased the Lord,” (verse 27).

He seduced Bathsheba, planned her husband’s death, and deceived her by acting as if he was doing the right thing (marrying her after he’d impregnated her).

- Ten months after the affair, God sent Nathan the prophet to deal with David’s sin, (2 Sam. 12).

When God convicts you of hidden sin you had better repent; hidden sin in a person has a tendency to hate other’s sins while being blind to his own.

Nathan told David about the rich man who stole his neighbor’s pet lamb, killed it feeding it to his friend; he was enraged. “So help me, that man is dead; he’s going to die”; he’s going to restore the lamb fourfold!” David was en raged against this awful sin.

Hidden sin produced an unrighteous, unholy indignation against sin in other and begets a “religious spirit” and a judging spirit.

Preachers today are building big mega churches are told “do not talk about sin, Jesus, the Cross and take all religious symbols out of the sanctuaries; turning congregations from the Christian faith to trusting in wealth and entertainment. These leaders are now circus ring masters presiding over a three ring circus, entertainment, materialistic messages and lost souls on their way to hell.

True ministers must cry out against sin and compromise and have a pure hatred for sin must come out of a heart that has been probed searched and judged itself.

David cried out against sin and compromise: “Do I not hate them, O Lord that hate thee? And am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee? I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies,” (Psa. 139: 21- 22). This bold statement came out of a repentant broken spirit. he examined his own heart!

He says, “Search me, O God and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts and see if there is any wicked way in me . . . .” (Verse 23-24).

God does not want judgment for you hidden sins, repent and receive mercy.

Preaching Jesus Christ Crucified

The Apostle Paul tells us in 1 Corinthians 1:23, 23 to seek God. “We preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumbling block and unto the Greeks foolishness; but unto them which are called, but Jews and Geeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.”

Jesus came down to earth; lived among men, suffered, was crucified and the He died on the Cross for us. You can find Him when seek for Him with all your heart.

Many no longer preach about the cross of Jesus or the importance of His sacrifice. Jesus said, if I be lifted up, I will draw all men unto me. The problem we faced today is, millions have been drawn away to receive another spirit other than the Spirit they had previously received (11: 4). Paul reproved these Corinthian Christians for receiving another Spirit.

The Corinthians had cheerfully accepted a man that came preaching a different Jesus than the Jesus that Paul preached and they turned from the good news to a different one they had originally accepted. Paul asked in amazement, “Who had bewitched the believers to draw them away from the truth.”

The consequence upon them were not just the influence of receiving wrong mental impressions conveyed by counterfeit, deceptive teachers but transformations of their faith caused by evil spirits imposing false doctrines through false teachers, (Galatians 3:1).

Biblical references do not suggest that believers enjoy an easy exemption from the crafty activities of devils but are particularly targeted by them. In 1 Tim 4:1-2, -- “Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; 2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;” reveals how wicked spirits attack spiritual believer by deception and beguile them away from the faith through the use of false prophets. Unfortunately, most believers have adopted the fallacious idea that if they ignore Satan, he will ignore them. Spiritually speaking, such a position is indefensible. See (1Pet. 5:8, 8, Jam. 4:7; II Cor. 2:11).

Christian Church Leaders must return to the basics of the Bible. We must repent from our wayward ways and ask God to clean us; lead back to the highway of faith. We must turn to Jesus the Savior of our souls and reach out to evangelize the lost to our Lord.

Preacher, stop preaching every wind and doctrine; there is only one doctrine to consider, Jesus Christ is Lord and Him crucified; our Redeemer, Lord God.

THE BEST WORD IN THE BIBLE IS REPENT

Rev. 2:5 "Remember therefore from where you have fallen; repent and do the first works, or else I will come to you quickly and remove your lampstand from its place-unless you repent."

Rev. 2:16 "Repent, or else I will come to you quickly and will fight against them with the sword of My mouth."

Rev. 2:21 "And I gave her time to repent of her sexual immorality, and she did not repent. 2:22 "Indeed I will cast her into a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of their deeds."

Rev. 3:3 "Remember therefore how you have received and heard; hold fast and repent. Therefore if you will not watch, I will come upon you as a thief, and you will not know what hour I will come upon you.

Rev. 3:19 "As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Therefore be zealous and repent."

HOW TO BE BORN AGAIN

"Ye must be born again." (Jn. 3:7).

There were several centuries between the Old and New Testament and the Jews had not seen a prophet in the style of Elijah with the supernatural anointing to preach the Word of God to recover the people from their sins while displaying signs and wonders of God. Jesus came to save that which was lost.

Luke 4:18 -- "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised."

John 3:1 – "There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews . . ." He was a member of the grand Sanhedrin and rich. Pharisees believed in a living God; His divine inspiration; the existence life after death; the existence of angels; spirits; and the resurrection of the dead. However, he did not know how to receive the supernatural gift of salvation. They were rigid religionists who had a form of godliness but void of the power of God.

The other Jewish sect, the Sadducees were worldly and materialistic and denied all supernatural beliefs and were Deists of the nation following the mixtures of Babylonian and Rabbi Writings. They believed in this life but not the hereafter.

Nicodemus sought after Jesus recognizing that He was Godly, spiritually gifted and knowledgeable concerning the Kingdom God.

John 3:2 – “The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.” KJV

Jesus came into a wicked world that was filled with religious people who were eternally damned. Jesus saw Nicodemus’ eternal soul and its future destination, hell and was not impressed with his position and wealth. Nicodemus instantly spoke on the subject that was most important. The Lord recognized the object of his visit was to inquire about Messiah’s kingdom and how to enter it. Therefore Jesus got immediately to the point. “Except a man be born again. . .”

Unless you are born again, you have no hope of enjoying the glories of heaven or escaping the terrors of Hell. John 3:3 – “Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.” KJV

Jesus was talking about Nicodemus’ spirit which was dead to God.

John 3:7-8 – “Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. 8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.” KJV

Jesus spoke of the wind blowing and one being able to hear it. Wind is a word that symbolically represents the Holy Spirit. He is the One the draws and reveals Jesus as Savior and Jesus said YOU WOULD HEAR HIM. Obey His calling and act on His Word, repent, and receive Jesus and you will be born again.

When a person receives His sacrifice for their sins, they will spiritually be born again. Other Words, their spirit will be alive with God and live for eternally with Him.

Salvation is a free gift of God granted to lost and undeserving men who trust in the righteousness of Christ and humble themselves in submission to his will.

Repair Your Altar to God

Israel had abundance with prosperity and wealth before Jezebel brought the pantheon of pagan gods and goddesses to rule over the land. Elijah was chosen by God to call the people to repentance to return to the Lord. First the restoration had to come by restoring the Altar of Jehovah in that place called, even among the pagans, the altar of Carmel. In 1 Kings 18:30 And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down. He restored they symbol of worship of God, replacing the high places dedicated to the pagan gods of Jezebel and Ahab.

The altars in our churches have been destroyed and many are preaching another gospel, another Jesus by another spirit. The altars must be repaired by men and women calling our nation to repentance and dedication to Jesus. The altars must be restored and rebuilt on the foundation that Jesus Christ is Lord.

The gods of Ahab and his wife Jezebel had put the people of God under a spell and appealed to their earthly and fleshly desire. They invited the people to seek after new gods and goddesses that invited the constraints of their old religion that that demanded holiness and the fear of the Lord to become outmoded and old fashioned. King Ahab had led the Israelites on a path that led father away from the established worships of God and brought to a new lifestyle of seeking prosperity and decadence. He established new altars and new deities and the people followed him.

God is calling a new Elijah movement to rebuild the broken down altars of many of the churches in the world. Preacher, is God calling you as He did Elijah who stood as the one, lone voice who cried for a return to righteousness? Do you need to break fellowship with the new worldly spirit of the gospel of greed and sin? The Gospel that we hear is far different than the Gospel that our grandparents stood for and we no longer linger at the altars of our churches seeking God for our inheritances of lost souls. We do not listen to passionate pleas of revivalists calling for repentance and holiness for the salvation and regeneration of our souls. We have traded the souls of our children for a kinder, gentler approach which promises love and peace and prosperity.

Truly the God of love that our modern prophets have promised us is but a worldly shadow of what can be ours if we repent, rebuild the altars of Jesus in our churches, offer ourselves upon His altar of righteousness in fear of the Lord.

God is calling you today; are you listening?

Have you been born again according to John 3:7?

Be sure that the name of a Christian is not just the nature of a Christian or being born into a Christian land or having Christian parents has become just traditional of knowing Jesus as a historical figure. Be sure that you have come to the Altar of Jesus in repentance, seeking His forgiveness and Spirit to renew your soul through His supernatural regeneration.

Truly, “Ye must be born again,” John 2:7.

Just ask, repent and receive and He will meet you at His altar.

O Lord Jesus, I am sorry for my sins and ask You to forgive me. Wash me clean with Your blood and come into my heart and be My personal Savior. I must be born again.

Outlines

It is a good warfare (1 Tim. 1:18-19).

- 1 Tim 1:18-20, --*“This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare; 19 Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck: 20 Of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.”*KJV
- The apostle Paul called it a good fight of faith. (1 Tim. 6:12).
- “Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.” KJV

It is against Satan, (2 Cor. 2:11).

- 2 Cor. 2:11- “Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices. 12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord,” KJV

It is to be carried on under Jesus Christ, our commander.

- (Heb. 2:10), --“ For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.” KJV

Under the Lord's banner, (Psa. 60:4), in faith, (1 Cor. 16:13).

There are pit falls to avoid in strategic spiritual warfare warriors. 1 Cor. 9:7

- “Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? Or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?” KJV

Warriors must be properly trained.

- Untrained warriors have no idea of the power of God nor the powers of the enemy. 2 Cor. 10:4-5
- “ (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;)<sup>5</sup> Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ.” KJV

Trained warriors know the cost and they are not ignorant of the wiles of Satan. 1 Tim. 1:18-19

- “This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare; 19 Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck:” KJV
- Fear. 2 Tim 1:7 “For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.” KJV
  - Satan knows how to use the spirit of fear to drive a novice into doubt.
  - Fear is the opposite of faith and devils enter through that open door.
  - Satan can and will bring problems upon the weak.

Spiritual understanding will set a warrior free. John 14:6

- “Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.” KJV

A true picture of the balance of power shows the scales are leaning overwhelmingly in the direction of the believer.

- People, who do not know their God from the Scripture, will not make strong warriors. We must see Satan as defeated foe. Col. 1:13-20
- “Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: 14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins: 15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: 16 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: 17 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist. 18 And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. 19 For it pleased the Father that in him should all fullness dwell; 20 And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.” KJV

Jesus, asking the Father to send warring angels, knowledge of the Bible acted upon, tip the scales to the Christian’s victory.

- Jesus Christ has already defeated Satan.
- Spiritual arrogance is dangerous.

Sometimes people forget Who (Jesus) is causing the victories and take over as a personal adversary of the Devil.

- Humility and dependence upon the Lord are necessary for complete success.
- Lack of commitment to personal prayer can cause disaster.
  - Empty Rhetoric.
  - Spiritual warfare is taught from a scriptural basis.
  - It can never be ritualistic.
  - It must come from a true relationship with God.
  - It must also come from a proper commitment to His cause.
  - It must come from compassion for the state of people's soul.
  - It must come from a desire to change the picture to that of God's will upon this earth.

God desires every warrior to have a spiritual pastor.

- There are no lone rangers in the Body of Christ. Jesus established His Church to change the world.
  - God has appointed a Pastor over you for your personal welfare.
  - Submit your desire to him/her concerning your desire to join God's army of prayer warriors.
  - Study to make thyself approved of God.
  - The Word of God brings the power to every battle.
  - Do not underestimate the enemy.
  - Do not be ignorant of his devices.
  - Keep yourself close to God and your army of prayer believers.

Jude 1

21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. 22 And of some have compassion, making a difference: 23 And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh. 24 Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,

These spiritual warfare prayers are to teach you how to prepare for the war and win.

GOD RESIDES IN PRAYERS OF HIS SAINTS

Heavenly Father, the disciples did not ask Jesus to give them power or teach them how to do miracles but desired to learn to pray and unique kinship because of Whom You Are and Your glory and holiness. They saw His relationship with His Father.

We stand in our priesthood positions praying for those who are unable to come before your throne through the blood of Jesus Christ. Your Word tells us (Matt. 28:18) that “all power is given unto Me in heaven . . . earth.” In (Matt. 8:24-27), the disciples made note of the fact that, “even the winds and the sea obey Him,” (Hebr. 1: 3). “Upholding all things by the Word of His power.” Jesus Christ is unequalled in power, (Psa. 69:6). “He has a name above every name,” (Phil. 2:9-11). In (Hebr. 2:17, 3:2), He “is a Faithful High Priest that never fails. Since He is unchangeable,” (Hebr. 2:22, 23), (Hebr. 13:8), “Jesus Christ, the same yesterday . . . today, forever,” we depend upon His love and mercy.”

We long for Your presence and direction in our lives and yearn for Your will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Let Your anointing will come upon us and open our spiritual hearts, eyes and ears to understand Your mind and Will in our prayer life and You will emblazon the information into our spiritual minds.

We are joined to the Great Intercessor, our Lord and Savior, Jesus and are sitting in heavenly places with Him, joined in agreement with Him, Your Will and Your Word. It is awesome to be a child of God. Lord teach us how to pray with power and dominion because Satan is a defeated foe by Jesus Christ Who has extended to us His authority and power to cause all the powers of darkness to be bound so that Your holy will is done in our lives. We believe that we can stand before Your throne of grace as intercessors changing the will of Satan because the Word of God tells us in (1 Pet. 2:9), ‘But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.’

We have every confidence in the authority of our Lord and the total defeat of Satan. The rebellion against God is great as people are filled with all unrighteousness. Spiritual death is stalking the world. It is certain the unbelievers will fall into the hands of the Living God and we know that is a fearful thing, Hebrews 10:31. We have dedicated ourselves to stand in the gap for our families, churches, cities, states and country.

“And Asa cried unto the Lord his God, and said, Lord, it is nothing with thee to help, whether with many or with them that have no power: help us, O Lord our God; for we rest on thee, and in thy name we go against this multitude. O Lord, thou art our God; let not man prevail against thee.” – 2 Chron. 14:11. KJV

Father. We praise and thank You for the opportunity to learn to pray. The disciples did not ask Jesus to give them power or teach them how to do miracles. They saw Jesus’ relationship with You and they desired to learn to pray. They wanted that unique kinship because of Who You are and Your glory and holiness.

We long for Your presence and direction in our lives and the affairs of men. We yearn for Your will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. We believe today, that Your anointing will come upon us as we study this prayer manual. Open our spiritual hearts, eyes and ears to understand Your mind in our prayer life. We know that You will emblazon the information into our spirits.

As we learn to pray, we are aware that we are joined to the Great Intercessor, Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We are sitting in heavenly places with Him, joined in agreement with Him, Your Will and Your Word. It is awesome to be a child of God. We pray that You will teach us, not only how to pray, but also how to pray with power and authority. We know that Satan has already been defeated by Jesus Christ. He has extended to us His authority and power to cause the powers of darkness to be bound that we can be over comers in You. We have faith that we can stand before Your throne of grace as intercessors changing things because the Word of God tells us in (1 Pet. 2:9), ‘But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.’

We want to learn to stand in our priesthood positions, praying for those who are unable to come before your throne through the blood of Jesus Christ. Your Word tells us (Matt. 28:18) that “all power is given unto Me in heaven . . . earth.” In (Matt. 8:24-27), the disciples made note of the fact that, “even the winds and the sea obey Him,” and in (Hebr. 1: 3).“Upholding all things by the Word of His power.” Jesus Christ is unequaled in power, (Psa. 69:6). “He has a name above every name,” as is shown in (Phil. 2:9-11). In (Hebr. 2:17, 3:2), He “is a Faithful High Priest,” that never fails. Since He is unchangeable, (Hebr. 2:22, 23), and (Hebr. 13:8), “Jesus Christ, the same yesterday . . . today, forever,” we can depend upon His love and mercy.

We have every confidence in the authority of our Lord and the total defeat of Satan. The rebellion against God is great as people are filled with all unrighteousness. Spiritual death is stalking the world. It is certain the unbelievers will fall into the hands of the Living God and we know that is a fearful thing, Hebrews 10:31. We have dedicated ourselves to stand in the gap for our families, churches, cities, states and country and nations.

Because Jesus and His great power to save unto the uttermost, we stand on the foundations of His life and Word to pray. We trust You Lord, for a revival in our land. Let your fire fall as you did for Elijah in (I Kin. 18:38). We need the fire of God today to burn out the sins of our hearts and to set us afire to win souls for Christ. As You gave victory unto Your prophet Elijah over these evil forces of his day, You will give us victory.

We praise You Lord God that You will each us to reclaim our country; our lost relatives and our cold modern churches to return to You. We give you glory, Lord that you will teach us how to tear down the false religious system of the New Age and the spirit of Baal. Help us O Lord to pray for the rebuilding of the altar of God. Send us powerful living stones that are needed for this dark hour of time.

Lord we thank you today for sending a great number of laborers to enter the harvest fields of lost souls, Matt...9: 38 says that “God’s ministers might have boldness in preaching the Word of God,” (Eph. 6:19,20), that “God’s people might become doers of the Word and not just hearers only,” (Jam. 1:22); that “God’s people will make known his deeds,” (I Chron. 16:8); that they “make known God’s deeds of mercy that recorded in His Word and experienced in their lives,” (Jn. 4:23-30 & Tit. 3:5). Also that they “make known God’s deliverance from Satan and the penalty and power of sin,” (Jn. 8:36; Rom. 6:14-18); that they make known God’s provision for us.” as shown in (Jam. 1:17).

As believers, we contend that the Bible is the inspired Word of God, and we contend aright, (II Tim. 3:16). We know that no revival can come until we live what we claim. Move upon your people Lord and give them a hunger for Your Word, a desire to be doers of the Word, washed by the blood, by the Holy Spirit and by the Word. Cleanse Your church Lord and take not Your Holy Spirit from us.

Thank You Father for regeneration and sanctification, help us to rededicate our lives to You, Your Church and our families. We adore and worship You Father for the innumerable blessing in Christ that we are chosen in Him, (Eph. 1-4); thank You for our inheritances and the sealing that took place when we were saved and indwelt by the Holy Spirit, (I Cor. 6:19). Father we stand before Your throne, through the blood of Jesus, as we are His inheritance, we are asking You to train and teach us to become great and mighty prayer warriors, in Jesus’ Name, Amen.
