WHY IS GOD GOING TO JUDGE THE STATUE OF LIBERTY?

The Illuminati produced Idol has successfully transformed the American Church to worship strange gods and doctrines and rejection of Jesus Christ.

As the obelisk was completed, a number of American clergymen were grieved that a "pagan goddess, Ashtoreth , the mother-goddess," was being placed at the gateway of American elevated to “high places” overlooking New York City. She was a great goddess of the Ancient Egyptians, and sister/consort of Osiris. 1 Kings 11:5 –“For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.” KJV

The Masonic Lodge, in the meantime, kept a low profile to avoid unnecessary controversy, just as they did when they planted the Washington monument, another Egyptian obelisk symbolizing the rays of the Egyptian god shining down and enlightening mankind.

SPIRITUAL ADULTARY ~ GOD’S JUDGMENT

The Illuminated Ones understand occult mysteries and satanic purposes, powers while blasphemously declares Jesus is not "God" filling America and the world with their grotesque statues and beast-like idols have been erected promoting their Luciferian secrets.

Some of the fiercest expressions of God’s anger are connected with Israelites who, rather than destroy the high places worshiped and served the demonic beings that occupied them.

The world at large is totally ignorant of the occult symbolism and paranormal power which lies behind the famed Statue of Liberty. This pagan deity sits astride the harbor of New York representing its true inner character and purpose of spiritual religious transformation of the nation.

The Hebrews called a pagan deity to whom child sacrifices were often made by the contemptuous title Molech. This name combines the Hebrew consonants for “king” with the

has become of him,” (Exodus 32:1).

These people had witnessed the greatest supernatural powers and acts of deliverance ever encountered by the hand of God, yet, they were quickly persuaded by the supernatural forces to backslide returning to their idolatry. They instantly desired to craft a symbol of their old god, Baal, with their melted golden earrings, toe rings, and adornments. Aaron collected gold melted it down, and constructed the image of a calf or young bull, a common symbol of the divine in ancient Near Eastern religions. Then Israelites acknowledged the calf as their god. Aaron announced a religious feast to take place the next day.<sup>2</sup>

Ba'al, more explicitly concerned with fertility, specifically cast in terms of human sexuality. Worship of Ba'al involved imitative magic, the performance of rituals, including sacred prostitution, which were understood to bring vitality to Ba'al. Basically, Ba'al was the storm god, the bringer of rain, and thus fertility, to the land. There was rivalry among the gods and a struggle erupted between Yamm, the sea, and Ba'al, the rain. With the help of his sister Anat, the goddess of war, and Astarte, the goddess of earth and fertility, Ba'al defeated Yamm, and his vowels from the word meaning shame.<sup>1</sup>

New York City has been a merchant capital from its inception, from the time it was first settled by Dutch traders and called "New Amsterdam." From the time it was first settled, it was a place of rampant enterprise and merchandising, and grew to symbolize the entrepreneurial spirit of America. God's judgment started in New York when the World Trade Center was destroyed.

MAKE US GODS WHO SHALL GO BEFORE US

Moses stayed on the mountain for 40 days and received from the Lord all the laws that were to govern the religious and secular life of the Israelites. The Israelites felt abandoned by Moses during his absence.

They went to Aaron and said to him, “up, make us gods, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what cohorts, Tannin, the dragon of the sea, and Loran (or Lothan, cf. Isa. 27:1), the serpent with seven heads.<sup>3</sup>

Acts 7:40-43 – “Saying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands. 42 Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness? 43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away hence with a whirlwind.” K.IV

The gods began to build a magnificent house for Ba'al so that he could be at rest and provide abundant rain for the earth. But Ba'al was challenged by Mot (or Mut), the god of death and the underworld. Mot temporarily triumphed and Ba'al disappeared into the underworld. Anat and Shapash, the sun god, found Ba'al, brought him back to life, and restored him to his house.<sup>4</sup>

Modern scholars have suggested that ancient people often used “idols” not as gods, but as “pedestals” on which they imagined an invisible god to be standing or riding; the Israelites who clamored for ‘gods’ may not have perceived any contradiction between creating images for such use and God’s prohibition against idolatry.

Moses’ “anger burned hot, and he threw the tables out of his hands and broke them at the foot of the mountain,” (Exodus 32:19). The people had violated their covenant with Yahweh. Moses “took the calf which they had made, and burnt it with fire, and ground it to powder, and scattered it upon the water, and made the people of Israel drink it,” (Vs.32: 20).

On Moses’ instructions, members of the tribe of Levi put to death 3,000 Israelites who had worshiped the Calf. The next morning Moses sought to restore the people in God’s good graces. He audaciously declared that if Israel was not forgiven, “blot me, I pray thee, out of the book which thou hast written” (Vs. 32:32).

Numbers 33-32, commands the children of Israel to “destroy all their engraved stones, destroy all their molded images, and demolish all their high places.” There is more to these stones and images and high places than just harmless native art; these had become the literal dwelling place of demonic spirits, later in the New Testament called powers and principalities.<sup>5</sup>

Worship of Baal. -- Jezebel Worshipped Baal that was a Phoenician god and she approached her religion with a fanatic’s zeal. She came to Israel with 450 priests of Baal and 400 “prophets” of

Spirit of Ashtoreth , the mother-goddess

Ashtoreth , the mother-goddess. This religious cadre was luxuriously housed by the state and dined at the palace. When Ahab built his “ivory house,” he constructed a temple of Baal with quarters for the priest next to the palace.

The greater part of this pagan structure was a court, enclosed with thick walls and open to the sky. Within the court was a small sacred chapel containing symbols of Baal and the mother-goddess, Asherah. The temple priest and their attendants kept an eternal flame burning in a large dish-shaped brazier on the chapel’s altar.

Since the Ba’alist was a nature cult, worshipers joined the priests and temple prostitutes in sacred orgies before the altar, especially at the new-year celebration. They acted out the reproductive theme so that the gods, who control earth and water, would follow their example and improve the fertility of agriculture, animals and man.

In time of crisis, such as famine or war, these cultists sacrificed firstborn children in the sacred fire to summon the help of their gods. When some Israelite prophets opposed Jezebels’ policies, she had several of them executed.<sup>6</sup>

Ahaz was one who “in every single city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked to anger the Lord God his fathers,” (2 Chronicles 28:23).

God had to execute judgment and punish Israel for what was frequently referred to by the prophets as spiritual adultery. The Babylonian captivity was one such judgment.

Why do most Christians express love for the world's largest colossal idol? The American Christian spiritual eye has not been trained to think about their faith in a supernatural manner; but see it from a traditional; intellectual; materialistic; denominationally but hardly ever from the standpoint that Jesus is truly alive and the devil is real.

On the other hand, the Illuminists know the powers of darkness and how they operate. They realize Satan gives them power. America as a Christian Nation is on the way out and Goddess, nature worship is in. Powerful men and women at the top of the world's structure are promoting this new pagan way.

9-11 accomplished the chaos and fear needed to change the minds of Americas. They were now willing to give up their freedoms, trusting the government to save them from terrorists. The Statue of Liberty's powers of darkness watched as the buildings were struck, burned and crashed to the ground; thus, opening the door to create order out of chaos. In these elite's psychopathic minds, a major victory had happened.

A great spiritual warfare is going on in the world. America and the world changed when President George W. Bush called forth the "Angel in the Whirlwind in his inaugural address."<sup>7</sup>

The Angel in the Whirlwind ~ The Spirit of the Antichrist will concern a new world empire will rise out of the ashes of the old world chaos. This will create a world government and new universal religion spiritual power that will come from the sea and out of the Earth. This new order will join the iniquity of the masses and idol worship into a world witchcraft driven religion."

Today there is a special attack of deceiving spirits and there is no doubt of the real existence of the spirit beings of evil; that there is an organized monarchy of supernatural powers, set up in opposition to Christ, and His kingdom, bent upon the eternal ruin of every member of the human race. knowledge of his character, and how spirits of evil are able to possess, and use the bodies of men. The Red Dragon known as Satan is setting the world's stage for his great magical deception for the spirit of the Antichrist to arise up out of the sea. Biblical scholars argue that a man that will be possessed by this demonic principality called the Angel in the Whirlwind that will arise from this same sea. The prophets, Daniel, Isaiah, Micah, etc. witnessed the future and saw the son of Satan. Apostle John stood on the sands of the sea and saw a vision of the spirit of Abaddon, the beast arises from the sea.

The Holy Spirit expressly made known to the Church of Jesus Christ, through the Apostle Paul, that a great deceptive onslaught would take place in the later times that although, the utterance of the prophecy, more than 2,000 years have passed by, those special manifestations of evil spirits of deception and seduction of believers unmistakably point to the fact that we are at the close of the age, (1 Jn. 4:3). In order to understand the working of the deceiver-prince of this power of the air, and become acute to discern his tactics, and his methods of deceiving men, such believers should search the Scriptures thoroughly, to obtain knowledge of his character, and how spirits of evil are able to possess, and use the bodies of men.

DEMON (Gk. daimon, and its derivative daimonion); Used once in the New Testament (Acts 17:18, NIV, "foreign gods"; NASB, "deities," see marg.) for deity, but usually referring to the ministers of the devil (Luke 4:35; 9:1,42; John 10:21; etc.); Inferior spirit beings, Satan's angels who "did not keep their own domain," Jude 6; Matthews 25:41; Revelation 12:7,9.

Satan is called the "ruler of the demons" (Matthews 9:34; 12:24; Mark 3:22; Luke 11:15; Gk. archonti ton daimonion).

Demons are said to enter into the body of a person to vex him with diseases (Matthews 9:33; 17:18; Luke 4:35,41; 8:30,32-33; etc.), and a person was believed to be possessed by a demon when he suffered by some exceptionally severe disease, 4:33; 8:27 or acted and spoke as though mad (Matthews 11:18; Luke 7:33; John 7:20; etc.).

According to a Jewish opinion that passed over to the Christians, demons are the gods of the Gentiles and the authors of idolatry. Paul, teaching that the gods of the Gentiles, 1 Corinthians 8:10-13, makes the beings answering to the heathen conceptions of the gods to be demons, to whom he says they really sacrifice, Vs. 10:20; in, 1 Timothy. 4:1 deceitful lies are attributed to demons. They are represented as "kept in eternal bonds under darkness for the judgment of the great day" Jude 6; cf., 2 Peter. 2:4. <sup>1</sup> (dem'-mon), (de-mo'-ni-ak), (de-mon-ol'-o-ji) (daimonion, earlier form daimon = pneuma akatharton, poneron, "demon," "unclean or evil spirit," rendered "devil" in the King James Version):

Mysterious supernatural world powers are breaking around the world leading many to believe that apocalyptic widespread destruction and devastation relating to the events in the Books of Revelation and Daniel of the Bible has arrived.

The adversaries with whom we wrestle are not flesh and blood, but they are the principalities, the powers, and the sovereigns of this present darkness, the spirits in the heavens.

The American church is mainly a spiritually sterilized and blinded concerning the reality of demonology and its effect upon the church and the nation. This seems unbelievable, especially in the light of the accounts in both the Old and New Testament.

Sadly, we are presently experiencing a revival in the pagan religions that are shown in the Bible. Our leaders from the highest levels of our land are involving themselves in pure witchcraft ideologies. The New Age religion has a stranglehold on our country.

Throughout the Old Testament, it is evident that the peoples of that day, regarded gods, deities, spirits or angelic powers of various kings as having territorial jurisdiction.

The Bible is alive with stories relating to territorial spirits, (principalities, powers, ruler and wicked spirits in high places). The following examples show from biblical testimony that God's people could positively discern the demonic powers and their effects upon their worshipers.

STRANGE GODS

The Apostle Paul soaked himself in the living waters of Jesus Christ and he never thirsted again.

Acts 17:16-17 – “Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.” 17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.” KJV

Paul saw the city completely ensnared by the spirit of idolatry. The spiritual atmosphere was charged with darkness and confusion. Paul's spirit was spiritually, emotionally moved and wanted to turn them from the idols, false gods and goddesses to the Light of Jesus. He spent his time, daily challenging them in the synagogue and the market place.

Apostle Paul [Disputed he in the synagogue with the JEWS] Proving that Jesus was the Messiah: and with the devout person, probably pagans, proselyted to the Jewish religion. And in the market: I suppose the agora here means some such place as our exchange, where people of business usually met, and where the philosophers conversed and reasoned. The agora was probably like the Roman forum, and like places of public resort in all countries, where people of leisure assembled to converse, hear the news, etc.<sup>8</sup> Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, what will this babbling say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

APOSTLE PAUL PREACHING ON THE RUINS

[Certain philosophers of the Epicureans] These were the followers of Epicurus, who acknowledged no gods except in name, and absolutely denied that they exercised any government over the world or its inhabitants; and that the chief good consisted in the gratification of the appetites of sense. These points the Epicureans certainly held; but it is not clear that Epicurus himself maintained such doctrines.<sup>9</sup>

[And of the Stoics] These did not deny the existence of the gods; but they held that all human affairs were governed by fate. They did not believe that any good was received from the hands of their gods; and considered, as Seneca asserts, that any good and wise man was equal to Jupiter himself. Both these sects agreed in denying the resurrection of the body; and the former did not believe in the immortality of the soul.

EPICURUS, the founder of the Epicurean sect, was born at Athens, about A.M. 3663, before Christ 341.

ZENO, the founder of the Stoic sect, was born in the isle of Cyprus, about thirty years before Christ. His disciples were called Stoics from the Stoa, a famous portico at Athens, where they studied. Besides these two sects there were two others which were famous at this time; namely, the Academics and the Peripatetics. The founder of the first was the celebrated PLATO; and the founder of the second, the no less famous ARISTOTLE. These sects professed a much purer doctrine than the Epicureans and Stoics; and it does not appear that they opposed the apostles, nor did they enter into public disputations with them. Against the doctrines taught by the Epicureans and Stoics, several parts of Paul's discourse, in the following verses, are directly pointed.

[What will this babbler say] The word spermologos, which we translate babbler, signifies literally, a collector of seeds, and is the name of a small bird that lives by picking up seeds on the road." The epithet became applied to persons who collected the sayings of others, without order or method, and detailed them among their companions in the same way. The application of the term to prating, empty, impertinent persons, was natural and easy, and hence, it was considered a term of reproach and contempt, and was sometimes used to signify the vilest sort of men.<sup>10</sup>

Acts 17:22-26 – “Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious. 23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN God. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you. 24 God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made

The Apostle John stood on the sands of the sea and saw a vision of the spirit of Abaddon, the Beast arise from the sea; he saw demonic beings rise OUT OF THE SEA. Many Christians refuse to try to understand the eternal struggle between cosmic good and evil, darkness and light that has progressed throughout the ages. The apocalyptic One World Government and New Universal Religion will soon step upon the world's stage revealing a despotic panorama of the future of a new world. People will be rigidly controlled by demonic power and big brother. This world monstrosity will appear to play out the final tragedies of Biblical prophecies concerning the extinction of personal and religious freedom.

Abbadon ....(aka....Abaddon, Apollyon) has been commonly referred to as the 'Angel of the Abyss' and appears briefly in the Book of Revelations.<sup>11</sup>

THIS IS A PASSAGE REFERRING TO HIM.

FIGHTS WITH APOLLYON

REVELATION 9:11 "They have as king over them, the angel of the Abyss; his name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in the Greek he has the name Apollyon."

Abaddon and Apollyon both mean "destroyer." Who is this ruling spirit called the "Destroyer," who is released from the Abyss during God's wrath on mankind in the last days of this age?

Abaddon in some texts is considered to be a fallen angel, and whom may or may not have regained God's favor.

There are many conflicting accounts of who and what Abaddon is. He is said to be in league with Lucifer, and a King in Hell in some references. In others, he wrestled with Satan during the the Apocalypse and cast him into the Abyss, where he was ultimately defeated and bound.

Was Abaddon imprisoned in the Abyss by Satan, and then turned on his jailer? Was he imprisoned by God for past sins, and was released to redeem himself?

"In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. 5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake," (2 Cor. 4:4-5).

The destruction of Leviathan by God, thought by some scholars to parallel the defeat of Yam or Lotan by Baal.

Yam or Yamm, from the ancient Semitic word meaning "sea," is the name of the Canaanite god of rivers and the sea. Yam was also the deity of the primordial chaos. He represented the power of the tempestuous sea untamed and raging. Also called Mahar ("river") he additionally ruled floods and related disasters. In West Semitic mythology, Yam was given kingship over the other gods by the chief god El. When Yam's rulership turned tyrannical and he possessed El's wife Asherah, the storm deity Baal \(Hadad\) challenged and defeated Yam in a titanic battle, ending with Yam cast down from the heavenly mountain Saphon.

The mythic sea dragon Lotan, whom Baal also defeated, was closely associated with Yam and possibly an aspect of him. A similar sea-demon appears in the mythology of many cultures. The biblical monster Leviathan is seen as related to Lotan, and his dwelling, the sea, is called yam in the Hebrew Bible. Yam's defeat by Baal parallels the Mesopotamian legend of the storm god Marduk's victory over the primordial sea goddess Tiamat. Numerous other parallel myths have been noted by mythologists and religion scholars, often interpreted as representing the triumph of heavenly order over primeval chaos.

Answer: The phrase "god of this world" (or "god of this age" indicates that Satan is the major influence on the mind-set expressed by the ideals, opinions, goals, hopes and views of the majority of people. His areas of influence also encompass the world's philosophies, education, and commerce. The thoughts, ideas, speculations and false religions of the world are under his control and have sprung from his lies and deceptions.<sup>12</sup> Similar titles are found elsewhere in Scripture concerning Satan. Satan is called the "prince of the power of the air". He is called the "ruler of this world". These titles, and many more attributed to Satan throughout Scripture, signify his capabilities. To say, for example, that Satan is the "prince of the power of the air" is to signify that in some way he rules over the world and the people in it.<sup>13</sup>

the supernatural organization of the world in these times. The description concludes with the word that over these creatures is the angel of the abyss, called in Hebrew, Abaddon, and in the Greek, Apollyon, and the latter meaning "destroyer." In the Septuagint the word carries this idea in (Job 26:2; 28:22; Prov. 15:11, etc.); another form is the word translated "destruction" in (Matt. 7:13), and "destroy" in (2 Thess. 2:8). 9

The Spirit of God revealed to John in a vision that in the last days, demon spirits would be released upon the earth which would go forth to deceive the world.

(Rev. 16:13-14), “And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet”.

This unholy diabolical trinity, the spiritual demons’ hierarchy of control of the world.

These three spirits that John saw represent lying, deceiving, seducing demon spirits that are going to be released by Satan, the Beast, and the False Prophet, (Rev. 16:14). “For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.”

This Scripture reveals the true source of the Powers of Darkness that will control those demons. On the other hand, the Illuminist are knowledgeable about the powers of darkness and how they operate; they believe THE LIE, Genesis 3:4-5, “And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: 5 For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.” They follow the god of this world; they realize Satan gives them power.

Hebrew, Abaddon, and in the Greek,
Apollyon, and the latter meaning
"destroyer."

America as a Christian Nation is on the way out and the gods and goddesses of nature worship is in. Powerful men and women at the top of the world's structure are promoting these new pagan ways; the New World Government and Religion is here. Modern change agents of mystical movements are convinced that if a One World Government and a One World Religion will see fruition; then the thoughts of people must be transformed. This "paradigm shift" is a change in consciousness, a change in the way man perceives and conceives values; it is a spiritual, cultural, global and personal change. Man's view of life, God, and himself, is modified and altered according to the new view of reality.

Rev 8:10-13 - “And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters; 11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter. 12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise. 13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!” KJV

The sculptor who made the great statue was Italian. His name was Auguste Bertholdi. His work was greatly influenced by the ancient sculptor Phidias who made gigantic statues of the ancient goddesses, particularly Athena, the "goddess of wisdom" and Nemesis (another name for Venus), a goddess who held a cup in her right hand. Before beginning the statue of liberty project, Bertholdi was seeking a commission to construct a giant statue of the goddess "Isis," the Egyptian Queen of Heaven, to overlook the Suez Canal. The statue of Isis was to be of "a robed woman holding aloft a torch" <sup>14</sup>

The Masonic Connection Bertholdi never made the statue of Isis for the Suez canal -- but it seems obvious that he made it after all, fulfilling his life's ambition, when he constructed the Statue of Liberty for the United States!

"Auguste Bertholdi was a member of the cultic Masonic Lodge in Paris, a . . . secret international brotherhood linked to the ancient builders of the pyramids and the cathedrals' [quoted from Statue of Liberty, by Weisberger]; and as a result, fellow members of the mysterious order of Masons ` . . . were frequently involved with the creation of the structure, and the various ceremonies that were dedicated to it' <sup>15</sup>

For example, the pedestal was built by another mason named Richard Hunt, and the design came from his study of ` . . . pyramids, ziggurats, and other . . . styles' [Statue of Liberty]. You'll recall The Tower of Babel was a ziggurat; and of course, the Statue of Liberty is actually a tower" <sup>16</sup>

I wondered why God revealed to A. A. Allen a moved Statue of Liberty to the Gulf of Mexico.

ASHTORETH, THE MOTHER-GODDESS," IDENTIFIED AND ARRESTED!

WHY?

The Statue was planted by the Illuminates at the gateway of the City of New York and America in Ellis Island, welcoming the immigrants from around the world. When Allen revealed his horrific vision, it didn't seem possible even make any sense to place the Statue of Liberty in the Gulf of Mexico.

The major finding to date related to the effect of systemically infused chemicals (PB, DFP) to modulate percutaneous absorption of topical chemical. The largest fraction of topically-dosed 14C-permethrin absorbed across the IPPSFs occurred when permethrin was co-exposed with arterially infused DFP and PB (8X increased absorption; 1.06% dose versus 0.14% dose in controls). PB significantly increased 14C-permethrin disposition into all skin tissues from aqueous mixtures, while DEET opposed these effects. Similar effects were seen in porcine skin diffusion cells. Interactions seen in silastic diffusion cells were inconsistent. JP-8 slightly increased 14C-permethrin absorption in IPPSFs although not to the extent seen with DFP and PB. In contrast, co-exposure to the vesicant CW agent HD slightly decreased absorption. Effects of these mixture exposures on absorption of DEET were less pronounced. The second major finding of this research is the ability of infused PB to decrease cytokine release from skin after topical chemical exposure. The presence of PB reduced cytokine release across most topical treatments both in IPPSFs (IL-8 and TNF $\alpha$ ) as well as normal human epidermal keratinocyte cell cultures (IL-8). These results suggest that systemically administered PB significantly modulates 14C-permethrin absorption through and penetration into skin, as well as reducing cytokine release from epidermal keratinocytes. These effects were seen across multiple model systems which supports their validity. The interactions underscore the complexity of toxicologic alterations possible after exposure to multiple chemicals.

THE JUDGMENT OF GOD

In April 20, 2010 an oil rig blew up in the Gulf of Mexico killing eleven men. It sunk, causing a 'volcano' of oil to gush uncontrollably out into the Gulf. They have not been able plug; or better yet, the illuminates' seemingly are not trying to cap the oil disaster. BP, an international oil company have been able to block the local state governors, working in agreement of our Dr. Doolittle President, Obama, who is subjected to the shadow government keeping the chaos flowing. It's reaching the shores of the pristine beaches. The chemicals they are spraying on the waters are more toxic than the oil which nature would take care of.

Is BP engaged in criminal negligence. It only pretends to clean-up its mess when government officials arrive for photo-ops. BP and its employees have given more than $3.5 million to federal candidates over the past 20 years, with the largest chunk of their money going to Obama.<sup>17</sup>

BP Chairman Carl-Henric Svanberg told reporters earlier this month: "I hear comments sometimes that large oil companies are greedy companies or don't care, but that is not the case with

BP. We care about the small people.”<sup>18</sup>

We can always depend that God will stand with the “small people” and so back in the fifties, God gave the vision concerning the Statue of Liberty to a Pentecostal preacher, A. A. Allen and placing His dealings with this Idol in the Gulf of Mexico.

Angel in the Whirlwind

Pat Holliday, Ph.D.

Today there is a special onslaught of (Chaotic) deceiving spirits upon the Church of Christ, the fulfillment of the prophecy which the Holy Spirit expressly made known to the Church through the Apostle Paul, that a great deceptive onslaught would take place in the Later Times. Since the utterance of the prophecy, more than eighteen hundred years have passed by, but the special manifestation of evil spirits in the deception of believers today, points unmistakably to the fact that we are at the close of the age. And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world. (1 Jn. 4:3).

This is a teaching deliverance manual concerning The Angel in the Whirlwind ~ The Spirit of the Antichrist. A new world empire will rise out of the ashes of the old world chaos. This New World Government and New Universal Religion's spiritual power will come from the Sea and out of the Earth. It will consist of Satan's anointing giving his authoritative power to his son, a man who is united with a group of secretive, depraved, cabalistic men. It will join the iniquity of the masses and idol worship into a world witchcraft driven religion. The Red Dragon is setting the world's stage for his great magical deception for the spirit of the Antichrist to arise up out of the Sea. Biblical scholars argue that a man that will be possessed by this demonic principality The Angel in the Whirlwind that will arise from this same sea. The prophets, Daniel, Isaiah, Micah, etc witnessed the future and saw the son of Satan. Apostle John stood on the sands of the sea and saw a vision of the spirit of Abbadon, the Beast arise from the Sea.
