DEMONIC SPIRITS BLOCK OUR MINDS

Nahum 3:4, “Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the well-favored harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts that selleth nations through her whoredoms and families through her witchcrafts.”

Witches and wizards use magic spells, magic potions, magic charms and magic power which probably work by the victim’s belief. There are people who believe that the spell cannot work if you do not have the confidence in it and if you do not believe in its power. However, if a person comes to you in your dreams and feeds you; it may be a witch or wizard feeding you a potion. They will put demons in you. You’ll need deliverance.

"That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive. (Eph. 4:14).

Demonic spirits want to block our minds, our will and our emotions. They want to keep us stuck right where we are. If you are determined to get un-stuck, then move forward and renounce the things that hold you back. This is a small list of things that could be blocking you, but I believe it will really help you hear the truth about yourself, about God, and how much He really loves you. Most of these things are lies that you have believed your whole life. But the truth is the Lord Jesus has already redeemed you from these curses. Your mind has to believe it and be taken into your heart to receive the truth and then cast out the lie.

The late, Deliverance Minister, Bill Banks writes, “Powerful help for those who have been unable to lose weight. Learn about unnatural weight gain, and common spiritual roots.

Most people really have no idea as to why they overeat, and often live in continual condemnation for not having sufficient will-power to stop. Many have experienced rejection or feel that they are unattractive. There is a solution to obesity, and it is as old as the Ministry of Jesus Christ.

This book reveals dozens of spiritual reasons for unnatural weight gain, as well as eating disorders like Bulimia, Anorexia, Obesity and more. Included are fifteen Testimonies of people who found freedom from the bondage of excess weight! And find prayers for deliverance from fat.”<sup>i</sup>

CHRISTIAN TESTIMONIES OF HUGH SPIRITUAL WEIGHT LOSES

Judge Paula, former host on my blogtalkradio program came to Jacksonville, Florida with her entire family. Her testimony, she had lost thirty pounds after listening and participating in my sermon on weight loss on the program. She later agreed to become my co-host. She is a wonderful Christian and loves Jesus.

Another Christian came to our Church for ministry. She asked for prayer for her weight. After I prayed for her, she went into the restroom. She came out holding her pants up with two hands. She had lost fifty pounds. This miracle happened about seven years ago. She still drives up to visit our church and the weight never returned.

SPIRIT SPELLS AND MAGIC

The invisible things are more important than the visible.

Invisible things are constructed in the spiritual realms before they appear in the visible. Col. 1:15- (Jesus) Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: 16 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: 17 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.” It is very important for you to in touch with Jesus and His power than the invisible demons and their powers. Your eternal life is dependent upon what you receive and believe.

Problems caused by Demons

Satan and his demons can cause weight problems. Witches and wizards use evil powers of destruction of humans in their businesses. (More later).Anything Satan, demons or humans do against a Believer, Jesus always has more power. Problems caused by Demons

Remedy and Method

Bind and cast out demons in Jesus' name and the Believer is delivered from the power of Satan, his demons and the powers of witches and wizards.

"Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins: Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: And he is before all things, and by him all things consist. And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence," (Col. 1:12, 13).

Paul says that Christians exercise self-control like the Greek athletes, only our goal is eternal, not temporal. "Every athlete [agonizomenos] exercises self-control in all things. They do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we imperishable" (1 Cor. 9: 25). So, he says, "I discipline my body and keep it under control" (1 Cor. 9:27. Self-control is saying no to sinful desires, even when it hurts ...

Superior Pleasure Devils

But the Christian way of self-control is not "Just say no!" The problem is with the word "just." You don't just say no. You say no in a certain way: You say no by faith in the superior power and pleasure of Christ. It is just as ruthless. And may be just as painful. But the difference between worldly self-control and godly self-control is crucial. Who will get the glory for victory? That's the issue. Will we get the glory? Or will Christ get the glory? If we exercise self-control by faith in Christ's superior power and pleasure, Christ will get the glory.

"Godly self-control says no by faith in the superior power and pleasure of Christ."<sup>ii</sup> Fundamental to the Christian view of self-control is that it is a gift. It is the fruit of the Holy Spirit: "The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace . . . self-control" (Gal. 5:22-23. How do we "strive" against our fatal desires? Paul answers: "For this I toil, struggling [agonizomenos] with all his energy that he powerfully works within me" (Col. 1:29). He "agonizes" by the power of Christ, not his own. Similarly, he tells us, "If by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live" (Rom. 8:13). "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, says the Lord of hosts" (Zech. 4:6). We must be fierce! Yes. But not by our might. "<sup>28</sup>A false witness shall perish: but the man that heareth speaketh constantly. <sup>29</sup>A wicked man hardeneth his face: but as for the upright, he directeth his way. <sup>30</sup>There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the LORD. <sup>31</sup>The horse is prepared against the day of battle: but safety is of the LORD," (Prov. 21:31).

And how does the Spirit produce this fruit of self-control in us? By instructing us in the superior preciousness of grace and enabling us to see and savor (that is, “trust”) all that God is for us in Jesus. “The grace of God has appeared . . . training us to renounce . . . worldly passions . . . in the present age” (Titus 2:11-12). When we really see and believe what God is for us by grace through Jesus Christ, the power of wrong desires is broken. Therefore, the fight for self-control is a fight of faith. “Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called” (1 Tim. 6:12).<sup>iii</sup>

Galatians 5:16-26

- 19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, 20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, 21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

WITCHES AND WIZARDS GREATER MAGIC WEAPON

A typical advertisement: “Powerful help for those who have been unable to lose weight. Learn about unnatural weight gain, and Weight Loss Spells are nearly as popular as love spells. These spells are great, and can be quite powerful ... Do you struggle with your weight? Have you tried every possible diet and still can’t meet your target weight? Do you want to fit into your favorite jeans again? Weight Loss / Gain spell. This spell will help you lose or gain weight. I’ve done this spell many times and it always works, and of course if you see no difference cast Greater Magic Weapon.”

Witchcraft materials explain, “Overeating and the resultant overweight condition can lead to back, neck and knee problems, high blood pressure, stress disorder, diabetes 11 and asthma. Ask yourself 3 questions. "Have I found it impossible to stay on a diet and exercise program until I reached my proper weight?" "Have I found it impossible to quit dieting and exercise even though I reached my proper weight?" "Have I used laxatives or vomiting as a form of weight control?" If you answered "yes" to any of these questions, you should investigate the possibility of an eating disorder?"<sup>iv</sup>

“This spell can actually be used for either good or bad. If you want to ruin your enemy's appearance and make them buy a new wardrobe of clothes, this spell is perfect. Or if you or someone you know wants to gain weight, it can be used for that as well. If the person leads an active lifestyle, this spell will only set them back.”<sup>v</sup>

LOSE WEIGHT FAST FROM A SPIRIT OF HEAVINESS

Elephant in Foyer Little Fawn, an Indian Medicine woman was being used to infiltrate Christian Churches and then burn them down for the Devil. She got a copy of my book, the Walking Dead<sup>vi</sup> and wanted to blow it up and hang it over her Satanic Altar. Long story short, she came to Jacksonville and got saved. She told me that the reason I was overweight was because I had an Elephant figure in the foyer of my house. She said that every witch in the area were using it as a focal point and sending fat demons to me. This happened many years ago. I destroyed the Elephant idol, given to me because I was an elected State Committeewoman for the Republican Party. I was about fifty pounds over weight and unable to lose it. We are not to any Idolatry and the weight was the price I paid for sin.

Woman "A daughter of Abraham"

Father of the faithful was bound with a spirit of infirmity for eighteen years. (Lk. 13:11-16), “And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself. And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity. And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God. And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the Sabbath day, and said unto the people, there are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day. The Lord then answered him, and said, thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the Sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering? And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day,” (Lk. 13:11-16)?

Dream Spells

Witches and Wizards claim they can cast a spell and place dreams and nightmares into one's mind. A person can also go to these people of darkness to make you dream about certain things. These spells can control your dreams and the demons that carry the power can turn your nights into a living hell. Satan always draws with promises but his powers always lead to destruction. At first, it's seems the person is in charge but think about it, the worker of darkness always has to do some ritual to attract the powers of Darkness to come. The witch or wizard has perfect understanding that they have a partnership with the demon's kingdom. However, the person that seeks for help are led into spiritual blindness that few people ever escape.

The night visits work over the mind, spirit and flesh of the person:

Perverted Sex

Potions

Torment of the mind

DEMONS DREAMS ATTACKS

Demons, devils, black figures, monsters, evil Spirits are real invisible paranormal beings that are very active in the world. However, in the American Church it has been a taboo topic and especially in our churches. At the same time, many people have immigrated to our country bringing their pagan religions. American Christian pastors have not been trained in demonology and spiritual warfare. They do not follow Jesus' examples of casting out evil spirits and either ignores the problems or sends their congregations to doctors or psychologically trained Christian counselors.

The truth is that we are hearing from people of all cultures reporting experiences and frightening encounters with the invisible demons and now they are appearing in various demonic forms to the people. These encounters reveal people being tormented in their dreams, minds and bodies. Many have been sent to mental wards due to demonic possession. Scores of people have been placed on powerful psychic tropic drugs and they become chemically bound zombies.

Christian believers that are bold enough to believe the Bible and the ministry of Jesus and set captives free by casting out devils, church leaders will judge and reject us calling us crazy.<sup>viii</sup>

Warring Night Sexual Spirits

Asmodeus and Osmoses are also mythical spirits with characteristic such as overpowering tendencies to rage, impetuosity, lust, impurity and psychic.

Activities Asmodeus

Asmodeus & Osmoses Demons are ruling spirits that are warring against all marriages and sexual activities. These spirits also are keeping many from getting married. They are responsible for Spiritual Husbands and Spiritual Wives.

Sexual spirits or demons thought in medieval times to lie on sleeping persons, especially women, with whom it sought sexual intercourse. Demonic sexual attacks on females; possibly caused by sexual sins, witchcraft spells, curses of lust, inherited curses, also can attack men and children.

In his book The Terror that comes in the Night, folklorist David J. Hufford estimates that about 15 percent of people experience being assaulted in their sleep by an unknown entity at some point in their lives.

These attacks -- sometimes scary, sometimes sexy, but always realistic to the person experiencing them -- are the result of normal brain misperceptions and illusions. Last year a British grandmother complained of being sexually assaulted by a ghost while in bed. She felt "a creepy pair of hands" groping her as she tried to sleep, though no one else was around.

Fantasy or Imagination

We can forget medieval times and folklore. Mythical demons are for real and active! Americans tend to think that these kinds of devils are just fantasy or imagination. I'm telling you that they are for real! They are supernatural evil spirits that are being invited into our homes because many open a sexual perversion door through television, movies and evil magazine. When they are invited in, they are very hard to deliver because they are "pleasure devils" that give joy to the flesh of their victims.

Demons, Witches, and Witches Feed You Potions at Night You must remember, these are "feel good" devils and just as some get hooked on drugs and cigarettes and you can't get free, so it will be with these devils. In the beginning they may give you pleasure, they will kill you! Try to find help before it is too late! These demons have sex with both men, women and children as the person sleeps, AND SOME OF YOU KNOW IT. It's not a dream and it is not your imagination, its evil supernatural experience!

Sleep is a war front of demonic manipulation and attacks: There are three categories of people: possessed, oppressed or ignorant of the witchcraft attacks.

Attacks in dreams include witchcraft initiation curses, spells, arrows and fiery darts. Interpretation of dreams comes from research, experience and testimonies. Demonic prosecution may involve death or financial adversity.

If you feel that you have been demonically attacked in dreams, enter into prayer and counter attack. GOD may wake you up to pray against incoming attacks of the enemy. Work out your salvation with fear and trembling.

"And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of Heaven suffered violence, and the violent take it by force," (Matt. 11: 12). ix

Overeating: Gluttony or Being Seduced?

We have found is that gluttony is not always the common culprit. It seems that what is lurking behind overeating can be the provoking spirit of seduction!

Seductive spirits set up lustful desire in order to cause an action that will feed their agenda of defeat. "Phyllis, It's comfort food time again!" It sounded inviting so I clicked the link and there it was, a bubbling pot of creamy soup described as, "The Rich, Robust, flavors of fall!" The accompanying picture had captions of; "Cheesy, creamy, and surprisingly delicious."<sup>x</sup>

During a prayer session for a client struggling with weigh issues one of my intercessors saw a clock. She said it has something to do with time. Then we discerned that time to be at 3 or 4 o'clock. Not having the full understanding of what this meant, we asked our client. She told us that at 3 or 4 pm everyday she was attacked by thoughts of cookies and cakes and bread products that caused her to start snacking and gaining weight. She said the pictures in her mind were seducing her daily to the kitchen.

The Provoking Spirit of Seduction!

If you have not been able to get the victory over poor eating habits that have been sabotaging your day, it's time for that spirit of seduction to be exposed and expelled. Don't allow it rope in failure, depression, and hopelessness, self-rejection. It's your time to be free! <sup>xi</sup>

ANOREXIA BULIMIA

Anorexia is characterized by low weight, fear of weight gain, self-esteem overly defined by body image, and denial of the significance of the problem. Anorexia includes two subtypes: restricting type and binge-eating/purging type. Most people may mistake binge-eating/purging type of anorexia as bulimia, but the difference ... <sup>xii</sup>

Anorexia is characterized by low weight, fear of weight gain, low self-esteem overly defined by body image, and denial of the significance of the problem. Anorexia includes two subtypes: restricting type and binge-eating/purging type. Most people may mistake binge-eating/purging type of anorexia as bulimia, but the difference is that those who struggle with bulimia maintain a normal weight.

Bulimia includes patterns of consuming large amounts of food at once (binge-eating), followed by behaviors to prevent weight gain (purging), such as self-induced vomiting or excessive exercise to "burn-off" all calories consumed. While binge-eating, the person feels out of control. Bulimia is also characterized by a self-esteem overly influenced by body image. A listing of the warning signs of both anorexia and bulimia can be found on the National Eating Disorder Association's website, www.NationalEatingDisorders.org. <sup>xiii</sup>

Eating disorders cannot be simplified to one underlying issue as a cause. Their development is influenced by multiple factors. Many people mistakenly believe that eating disorders are predominately a problem with food or weight because so many symptoms revolve around food and weight. However, these are only the tip of the iceberg. Food and weight issues are evident on the surface, but an intricate web of other issues can make up the bulk of a person's struggle. He or she then uses the eating disorder to cope with what lies under the surface.

Underlying issues can include psychological, relational, cultural, and biological contributing factors. Psychological issues include low self-worth or a struggle with another emotional disorder, such as depression or anxiety. Relational factors include trouble communicating and relating to others and possible bullying or abuse. Cultural factors can include the size discrimination portrayed by culture through the media or society at large. Eating disorders also have a genetic link showing they more commonly run in families, but further research is needed to explore this area. One common phrasing of the interaction of genetic factors and other underlying issues is that genetics load the gun, but environment pulls the trigger. Underlying issues are further explored below as they relate to prayer ministry. <sup>xiv</sup>

How to Overcome Gluttony and Stop Comfort Eating

Is Gluttony a Sin?

In the turn of the century, early 1900's you hardly heard of heart attacks, cancer, and other types of diseases like today. The bible does talk about drunkenness and gluttony. Did you know drunkenness and gluttony is a spirit? Do you feel good about yourself? It is an unloving spirit working on you to overeat. Is Gluttony a sin!

Sin of gluttony in America is a problem. In the turn of the century we eating 4 pounds of sugar a year. Today, we are consuming 130 pounds per person per year. Not only that most of your prepared food and even spices have sugars added to them. In the early 1900's diabetes was very few and now over 10 million.

On saturated fats is much higher in our foods. Also, in the turn of the century, heart attacks were unheard of. The death rate annually from hardening of arteries and degenerative heart disease in the United States is the highest in the world compared to everywhere else. Life Insurance Companies has shown that a man 45-years-of-age, who increases his weight by 25 pounds over standard weight, reduces his life expectancy 25%.

The reason is the types of fat we eat. People are misled by the polyunsaturated in margarines and oils. They don't look for hydrogenated on the labels. The hydrogenated in your oil or butter is plastic.

How to Overcome Gluttony?

We are overweight and eating all the wrong things. So, what does a person need to eat? I say the caveman diet. What is the caveman diet – eliminating processed foods. You want to lose weight? Then Eat as natural as you can such as:

Fruits and vegetables, including leafy greens

Eat meat 3 times a week

Eat less and more often.

Don't eat junk food

Eat less sweets

Stay away from boxed dinners
Less carbohydrates and starches from bread

Include exercise such as a rebound trampoline in your house to jump while watching TV to overcome overeating. If you cannot control your food intake and overeat for comfort, you may have a spirit of gluttony. You may need deliverance from sin of Gluttony then you are able to overcome gluttony.

Other reasons of a spirit of gluttony is because of how we handle our emotions. When you feel rejected do you eat for comfort? Need for love? Do you, when you feel lonely reach for cookies? When you feel stressed, need to drink some type of alcohol to deal with your stress or some type of food? That is a false pathway to peace called comfort food or drink. That is when you use something else besides God to take care of your need.

THE DEVIL IS A POWERFUL FORCE

There are only two sources of spiritual power: God and Satan. Satan has only the power that God allows him to have, but it is considerable (Job 1:12; 2 Corinthians 4:4; Revelation 20:2). Also, he only has the supernatural power that you give to him.

To seek spirituality, knowledge, or power apart from God is idolatry, closely related to witchcraft. First Samuel 15:23 says, "For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry." Witchcraft is Satan's realm, and he excels in counterfeiting what God does. When Moses performed miracles before Pharaoh, the magicians did the same things through demonic power (Exodus 8:7). At the heart of witchcraft is the desire to know the future and control events that are not ours to control. Those abilities belong only to the Lord. This desire has its roots in Satan's first temptation to Eve: "You can be like God" (Genesis 3:5).

John heard words that describe our time: "Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea. For the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time," (Rev. 12:12). We can now see his workers very busy in the world filling it with rebellion, terror and fear. Irene A. Park, a former witch and Satan worshiper, tells us: "Make no mistake to think that witchcraft and its current expressions in our society are not the result of some innocent fad."

Nearly all the spreading of occult practice in America is being done by people firmly in the hands of the Devil, who in exchange for power and wealth, have fully yielded their souls to his work.

THERE IS A DEFINITE POWER STRUCTURE SATAN

To be able to work up the ladder of Satan's domain, a person must consecrate his entire being to doing and becoming evil. To perform the supernatural power of darkness, one must devote time to study and meditation.

Everything that Satan offers is a counterfeit of the real thing but if one will devote himself to the Devil, he promises to give that person power, wealth and authority - not the real thing, but power based on fear instead of love; wealth in money, but not wealth of the soul; and authority based on deceit rather than truth.

In many ways, witches; covens and Satanic cults are not much different from most mystical orders and brotherhoods, secretive sisterhoods, fraternities and sororities, all of whom are based on secret covenants. With Satanists, however, there is no such thing as a “good” or “white witch” (this is another demonic deception).

A witch must submit not only his soul, body and spirit to the Devil, but also his family (if married) to also be used as tools and vessels of Satan at his discretion. based on the creeds and vows made during the secret initiation ceremonies in most Satanic orders, the Devil has every legal right to use (or dispose of) the person or any member of his family for his purposes. It is much like playing Russian roulette with your soul (and your family's lives).

This really gives insight into the power and control that Satan has over his followers. Most people are not afraid of witchcraft because they don't know the reality of its powers and the spiritual implications of it. It has been on the rise in our country since the 60's and now it's more than fortune telling or mind reading. People are now becoming spiritual and psychic captives . . . hurt by crippling forces - with very little chance of escape.<sup>xv</sup>

John Todd

When God sent people into the Christian church in the seventies, the pastors remained spiritually blinded concerning Satan’s dark powers and the witchcraft revolution in the world. John Todd former Illuminati family member, claimed that these powers make up the categories within each principality. Mr. Todd, professed to be a former witch once on the Council of Druid of Thirteen in America. He says this council is connected to an organization called the Illuminati which has been in existence since 1776.

The author wrote in the eighties, “He alleges these people are running everything in the world, including American Presidents and they are the force behind the strong witchcraft and satanic movements in the world. The Illuminati, he states, furnishes all the money for these movements. He further claims that witches like Sybil Leek, Lady Sheba, Lorca (and Todd, himself) are, or he claims, have been on this council.

“He laid out a plan of world domination by the Illuminati. Many have written that Todd is just a strange man, with an immense imagination, seeking attention. However, witchcraft is on the rise in our country. There are thirteen members in a coven: six men and six women, and a high priest. They meet once a month on a night with a full moon. This monthly meeting is called a seat (beast). In addition. there are eight Sabbaths. Typical dates include the two traditional Druid festivals - the eve of May Day (April 30 and All Hallows Eve October 31, and seasonal festivals of winter (February 2), spring (June 23), summer (August 1, and fall (December 21). The bible of the Old Religion, the book of the Shadows, describes their rites, cures, charms, and spells, and is read at every meeting.”<sup>xvi</sup>

Deliverance from Gluttony

Read this prayer of deliverance from a Spirit of Gluttony out loud to overcome gluttony

Father God I forgive those who rejected me and hurt me. I let go of any bitterness I have towards anyone. Amen. Father God, forgive me for eating food as a false pathway to peace. Instead of going to you because I feel lonely or rejected or stressed, forgive me for not going to you.

Forgive me father for drunkenness and gluttony and any other addictions such as to sugar, coffee, etc. or to any drugs or medicines. Father God, I come against these spirits of gluttony, addictions, false pathways to peace, loneliness, rejection, etc. I repent, renounce and I cast these spirits out of me and send them to dry places now in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth.

Father God, I know addictions to food comes from not loving myself and when I feel depressed, I go to food for comfort. I repent and renounce for not loving myself and having a spirit of self-hatred. I also forgive myself for all my past sins and regrets. I let myself go free and choose to see me as a child of the highest God who is the king of the universe. I also see me as God's perfect handiwork. Amen.

I also address these other spirits by repenting and renouncing these spirits related to gluttony:

A Spirit-filled Christian who is also a skillful DELIVERANCE worker was constantly concerned about being overweight (from 20-40 pounds) for a number of years. No visible physical harm was produced by the condition but the nagging thoughts about it were always present and at times very annoying and depressing. She was usually in a state of much concern about her diet including daily intake of calories and yet desirous of eating well balanced meals. She experienced great difficulty in losing weight without taking extreme and possible harmful measures. She never fell prey to appetite suppressant medications. If she ate an ice cream cone or a piece of dessert, there was always an undercurrent of guilt and condemnation. Many years earlier when this lady was 18 years of age, she entered into a short crash diet to lose 10 pounds in order that she could participate in a beauty contest. At that time, she was not overweight but wanted to be slenderer, thinking it would make her more attractive. Almost 30 years later while meditating one day, the thought occurred to her that there were three curses over her: 1) a curse of mental suggestion for overweight, 2) one of crash diets, and 3) one to lose weight to be beautiful. The curses were broken individually and demons behind each one was commanded to leave. There were manifestations of evil spirits being expelled.

The CURSE OF MENTAL SUGGESTION involved constant thoughts about being overweight especially just prior to or at mealtimes. This curse was associated with anxiety, over-concern and worry about everything she ate and the possibility that food she consumed would cause her to gain more weight. As a result of this abnormal sensitivity, guilt and condemnation overeating were always present. Spirits of guilt and condemnation associated with overweight were commanded to leave. Again, there were manifestations.

The CURSE OF CRASH DIETS may have come upon her when she participated in that ungodly diet at the age of 18. This curse was broken and spirits commanded to leave.

The CURSE TO LOSE WEIGHT TO BECOME BEAUTIFUL apparently was associated with the crash diet. The curse was broken and evil spirits behind it were cast out. A strong, primary desire to become more pleasing and acceptable to others may be demonic and cause a curse to come upon a person. There are many more valid reasons why an overweight individual should gradually lose excess pounds and maintain a desirable weight. The motives must be Godly and the mechanism to achieve the proper weight should be acceptable to the Lord. One should seek God about the most desirable weight and ask His help in achieving it. Don't become persuaded by the current fads, which open doors for curses and demons to constantly torment and make life miserable, possibly for a lifetime.

TESTIMONY TEENAGER DEALING WITH A WITCH'S CURSE

Many modern witches claim to be heirs to an unbroken religious tradition stretching back into primeval history. They worship the Great Mother, Gaia, the earth mother, the symbol of fertility and the oldest and most elemental of the ancient gods. White witchcraft insists that it is a religion and not an evil cult. <sup>xx</sup>

White witches believe there is a distinction between white magic and black magic. But the source of power for white witchcraft, white magic is the same as that of black witchcraft and black magic. It is all from the same Devil. Remember any supernatural power that is not association with Jesus Christ and His Word is of Satan. Della, the white witch, had affected the entire Lamb family. Her indelible mark of madness had caused this family pain.

Jessica Lamb, Rita Lamb's daughter moved to the platform to speak to the Christian women about her part of the Lamb testimony. Looking thin and fragile, dressed in a wool skirt and print blouse topped by a sweater, she nervously switched from one foot to the other. A pretty girl with dark brown eyes, yellowish-brown hair, she wore no make-up and her curly hair was pulled back in a pigtail tied with a scarf. A few wisps of hair had fallen loose and were in tendrils. She was wholesome looking rather than beautiful; quick and bright, she fixed her gaze on the group, and she cleared her throat nervously.

"My name is Jessica. I'm seventeen and had to care for my mother, Rita, during the time of her sickness." Rita sat straight with a small smile on her face. Our teens are subjected to so much more than we were," I whispered to her. "It's as though childhood is lost forever in our age of sophistication." My impression of Jessica was she looked older than 17 years.

"Della (not her real name) the witch – my brother and I called her Aunt Della, was very close to us. We've known her for about seven years. Her book, Woman Witchdoctor, was put together on the table in our house. The name of the book was also her CB handle. It's a book that's filled with potions, herbs and spell casting formulas. It sells for about two dollars. She showed me how to do a spell to get my boyfriend back. Although she calls herself a white witch, she gives out potions even if you really want to hurt someone."

This is one of her witchcraft spells that she taught me. "You have to kill a frog," put it on an anthill and when the ant eats it you sort through the bones. Then find a piece of clothing or picture of the boy and hook it and then bury it. She taught me a little chant to say over it and it was supposed to get your boyfriend back." Although Jessica seemed shy, she forced herself to talk. Her fingers were white as she clutched the tiny white Bible. She nervously worked her tongue around to moisten her mouth, obviously dry. Someone passed her a glass of water. She sipped the water while gazing over the rim of the glass at the people . . . Most people present had teenagers just like her. So, they were very interested in what she had to say.

She cited a little history about witchcraft. History shows that a person associated with witchcraft becomes the object of diabolic attack. In 1324, a witch of Coventry, England, stuck a pin into a doll image of Richard D. de Sowe. The pin pierced the doll's head and de Sowe immediately went out of his mind. Later, the pin was thrust into the heart of the effigy. Three days afterwards de Sowe died. Following his death, Robert le Mareschel of Leicaster turned himself into the King. His shocking confession revealed his part in a plot to kill the King and six others. Twenty-seven customers were to pay the witch twenty pounds (and Robert le Mareschel fifteen pounds) to affect the deaths. They molded seven figures of wax and canvas to represent their enemies. But after de Sowe's death, the guilt was too much and Robert turned King's evidence. The customers escaped. The witch died in jail. Satan does have powers of darkness to kill.

Today, in America, Christians are not afraid of witchcraft. In fact, most do not believe that it is real and most pastors don't believe that witchcraft can have an effect on a Christian. However, if a person walks onto Satan's highways of evil, he has powers and will work them. Furthermore, the powers will work on the Christian because of the open doorways of sin. The Bible clearly declares that prior to the return of Jesus Christ to earth, Satan will use supernatural miracles to deceive masses of men and turn them away from God says, "And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do." (Rev. 13:14).

Jesus left no room for doubt about His enemy's miracles. Speaking of conditions before the end of the world, Christ said: "For there shall rise false Christ's, and false prophets and shall show great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect," (Matt. 24:24). As the Bible predicted, masses are being led astray by the miraculous signs and wonders of witchcraft by ministers working under the power of Angels of light.

Jessica continued to describe the diabolic attack on her own life as a result of associating with the witch: "About two years ago, I really started to have problems. I had a very good childhood with loving parents. I liked to go to Sunday school to play but I wasn't a Christian and didn't want to be. I thought if I became a Christian, I'd have to give something up. I didn't know what, but I just felt that if I have to give something up, I'd do it when I became older. So, I refused to become a Christian. I went to Church for social purposes, you know, to meet boys."

Jessica resumed to report about the demonic assault as a result of fellowshiping with Della, the white witch: "As soon as I could, I got a job in a grocery store. I didn't know the woman who worked in the store was also a witch. (We've got three covens in our town). She was a Mexican; her name was Gracia and her mother's name was Marie. They told me they had power to do supernatural things. Mom and Dad asked them to exorcize me because I was having so many problems. They told my parents that I did have a lot of demons in me and they were going to exorcize me. They used holy water and prayers; but that's still Satan working and it just brings more evil spirits into you. Of course, we didn't know it was Satan's power at the time; we would not have stood for that. We didn't know that Satan was a real supernatural being that was able to affect your life. My parents didn't believe in demon. They thought it was a bunch of mumbo jumbo stuff."

Jesus said, ". . . Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand: And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?" (Matt. 12:25). These scriptures show that it is impossible for witches to cast out evil spirits! Witchcraft is a part of his kingdom and Satan does control witches, whether they realize it or not!

"My family believed Gracia would take the evil spirit into herself because that's what she told us. Then she said that she would leave our presence and goes off alone and put them in a bottle to get rid of them. Demons really do collect demons when they are cast out because the more demons they get, the more power they get.

"Pat Holliday told me that witches can't cast out demons. She said that only Jesus could make them leave."

"I worked there for about the rest of the summer. Mom and Dad went on vacation. I stayed at the witch's house. I have no idea what she did to me while I was asleep. All I know is, she'd put me under a spell. I did care what Mom or Dad said because what the witch said was more important. When Mom had a heart attack, instead of wanting to be home with her, I wanted to be with Della, the witch! Mom and I always had a good relationship, but the witch placed me under spells like you can't believe. Whatever she said . . . I did. I was totally being controlled by her. It did not matter if it went against Mom, Dad or anybody! I followed her like a slave."

Deep hurt and guilt appeared in Jessica's mother's eyes. She glanced over at her parents, seeing the color mount in her father's face. Checking herself, she changed the subject. I noticed her hands were now trembling.

"I began to hear voices in the back of my head. At first, it scared me. The voices always were nice to me and they even helped with my school work. (Many of my friends later told me they had the same experience). Now, I know they were demons telling me to do things. Sometimes they are not really bad things . . . but, they're not good, either. I've always enjoyed reading. I'd read anything that I could get my hands on except my school books and the Bible. I wanted to read instead of doing housework or homework. When Mom wanted me to do something, I'd sneak off into the bathroom and read. Something kept drawing me to disobey her. One day, Mom threatened to kill herself if I didn't stop my rebellion. But, I couldn't stop. The demons inside of me were telling me to go ahead and do it. It wasn't such a big thing, but it was tearing me apart." She sniffed.

"I usually heard one voice in the back of my head. I know it wasn't my imagination because it was not telling me to do good things. At bedtime, it would talk to me and I'd talk back to it, inside me. Dad would ask me a question and the voice would tell me to answer him with something mean or hateful. It told me to say I just didn't care about him and hated him. Now, that's not how I felt at all. It was just a way for the demon to keep me in trouble. I didn't know what was going on. Maybe I was crazy . . . I wondered if anyone else ever had these kinds of things happen." Jessica looked down at her clenched hands. Little beads of sweat poured out of skin on her forehead and slid down her face.

Every parent in the room suddenly had new insight into teenage rebellion. Imagine: demons telling them to disobey their parents. Many probably had never even thought of that before today.

Jessica pushed on with her testimony. "At times when I'd really get into trouble, get depressed and I'd think about committing suicide. The witch told me that she could help, but she didn't help. She made everything worse! She gave me all kinds of magical drinks. Sometime they will affect me like drugs, I'd feel really lightheaded. Finally, I had to realize what she was." Jessica bit her bottom lip. "It was like she was my . . . mother. I even cared about her more than I did my mother! She just had me completely under her spell." How diabolical!

Silence, all eyes focused on Jessica, faces were clearly affected by her strange confession. One lady sat head down, hands folded in her lap, and eyes clouded and seemed to be in a world apart from the others and absolutely no reaction to the testimony. I'm certain Satan had captured her mind from hearing the story of his darkness being uncovered.

Breaking the silence, Jessica continued to share: "All my life my mother had been sick but never enough that I had to take complete care of her. It really gave me a lot of nurse's training though, and I had always wanted to be a nurse. Many times, I wanted to run away from the responsibilities. Once, Mom was really mad and told me she did not love me. Usually I would retaliate; but this time, I was really hurt. It would hurt anyone to hear their mother say those awful things. She kicked me in the chest and knocked me against the wall. She didn't like depending on us carrying her around. She'd get really angry about it. I didn't realize that she was not herself but that demons were making her act like that."

I looked at Rita's face. Pain ran across her eyes from the recovered memory and public exposure. Her eyebrows knit tightly together as she turned the pages of her Bible. (A funny thing about her Bible, I noticed: Although she was a new Christian, many passages were already highlighted - she was already studying the Word, that's for sure).

"I really got tired of it. I'd come into the bedroom and she'd slap me. I know that I deserved it sometimes, because I'd lost my temper and all control, too. It's kind of hard for a kid six-years-old to realize that their mother is mentally ill. By this time, I realized that I was, too. I knew that once that she got help. I would need help, also. But I was just sick of it . . . she was constantly screaming and yelling. I thought: the heck with it; I don't need this. I've got one-hundred and twenty dollars from my income tax return. I'll just run away.

FINDING HOPE

"When I read Pat Holliday's Book, Holliday for the King, I realized what was causing Mom's problems. Their backgrounds were so much alike . . . both were in politics and had witchcraft involvement. I know that Mom was going through the very same things Pat described in her book. It helped me a great deal with my own problems and with dealing with Mom's possession. It helped me know that it wasn't her that was evil and ugly . . . it was something else in her that was driving her and controlling her."

Next, I read Deliver Us from Evil, by Don Basham, mentioned in Pat's book. I began trying to do deliverance on myself. It didn't work because I wasn't saved. Actually, I had confessed Jesus, but didn't mean it from my heart.

"Finally, I was delivered by Mr. and Mrs. White, the same people who had ministered to my Mom. So grateful to them for what they had done for Mom, we invited them to dinner. I thought we were just going to have dinner but the Lord had already told the man that day I was to be delivered. We were sitting in the kitchen and he came over and gave me a big hug. He held onto me gently. He was very kind. I didn't know what was going on, except my stomach hurt a lot. (That happens when you are about to be delivered because the spirits inside you get really stirred up). I was delivered by the power of Jesus. I had seven spirits inside of me and there was one that came out screaming.

"Right after deliverance, I received the Baptism of the Holy Spirit. The gift of tongues was in my head, but somehow, I couldn't get the words out of my mouth! I still had doubts. Until yesterday actually, I was still really having a lot of problems renouncing Satan. Then my brother, John, was saved, delivered and received the Baptism of the Holy Spirit at Pat's house. I knew he couldn't be faking what had happened to him because he had not heard anything that had happened to us. He had been away in the Navy. When I saw it happen to him, I knew it had to be real. Then, I believed in my heart. There's no way that I can doubt it anymore."

"After Pat ministered to John last night, we were all so happy. We went swimming. I went into the sauna and began to sing in the Spirit. I received tongues. I had never sung in the Spirit before. It was beautiful. A little while later, I went back in there and sang in the Spirit again. Incredible!"

Jessica did not realize it, but she was giving thanks to God in tongues. (1Cor. 14:15-17), tells us: "What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also. I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also." Praise His Holy Name.

Some faces were radiant with the light of new hope. Still others had the tense, set features: reluctant about believing all that had entered into their ear gates that day. Her testimony moved many to tears. (I had cried). This young lady had been through a terrible experience with a practicing witch. At the same time, she had been victorious through faith in Jesus Christ.

Resist the Devil. Align yourself with Jesus Christ' invincible power, Satan and his demons will flee from you. It's scriptural . . . and God cannot lie!
