STEALING THE SOULS OF YOUTH

There is a relationship of idolatry is worship of other gods and goddesses and pagan heads of state. Devils are always attached to different territories, leaders and have an emotional impact upon the people. An example of having to accept the local gods in order to prosper is recorded for us in (2 Kin. 17). Many churches today are becoming a New Age embarrassment where self-indulgent pagan “god experiences” and psychological mind control. These New Age experiences will kill you.

CHRISTIAN MOSH PITS

False Christian leaders just keep sinking lower and lower and their bewitched congregations are following these spiritually sick deviants down the slippery slope to hell! Christian pastors have fallen into such horrible darkness that could have not been conceived even five years ago. They are bringing voodoo demons into the former House of God. Satan has assumed his throne right in many of Christian Churches showing off his much degenerative, demonic pop secular culture. They are doing the latest worldly fad called the Harlem Shake dance.

DANCING WITH DEVILS

The Harlem Shake Dance originated from Voodoo Festivals! The guy in charge will wear a mask and a helmet. He starts the ritual and then everyone else wildly joins in whirling, spiraling; gyrating their bodies in sexual manifestations to their demonic gods. The man in the helmet and mask is magician or witchdoctor that calls up hoards of evil spirits which are Satan’s demonic terrorist to torment the participating individuals.

Ecstasy of God

Patricia King says, "we've got your children!"!

Oh yes, she's a shaker in the Third Wave Movement, and the Former "Pastor of the infamous Todd Bentley. To see what's taking place in portions of the so-called Christian Churches is very disturbing. What makes it more dangerous is they are reaching masses of young people who have never been taught the foundations and doctrines of the Christian faith. Those pastors who are promoting these doctrines of devils, are spiritually wrecking and consigning these young people to slide down a roller coaster to the Pit of Hell. The spiritual inoculation that they are receiving from these false ministers will make them spiritually sick enough that many will never recover from the spiritual poison of religious insanity.

These greedy men and women of darkness are willing to adopt the cultures practices to reach the culture. Whatever the latest fad reach the culture can easily enter into the churches right through the front door. In some churches today, a real Christian would have to infiltrate the walls of darkness to come into the deceptive churches. The disingenuous leaders are not only blinded but they are also spiritual dead.

Mom's and Dad's stay at home and watch football and send their young off to Sunday School and Bible camps and do not have a clue that the devils meet them at the front door of the church and lead them out the back, never to return to God.

In Disney World movies, we see the wicked black witch who has enslaved the subjects; at war with the beautiful white witch who is seeking to free them. Of course the white witch always wins the war over the wicked witch of the north. In the infiltration of the church, we see the Jezebel witch fighting against the entire Christian Church systems. However, Jezebel is winning the war for the minds of the men, women and children because Ahab, the ineffectual leader who has a lack of judgment, gives his leadership to over to her and she usurps his power. Jezebel uses the power of mind control and weakness of the flesh to overcome the anemic bloodless religion and denial of Jesus Christ.

Church leadership seems to be totally unaware of the schemes of the Devil, his strategies of distractions and bewitching demons. He has entered into an all-out assault against the old and young alike and has taken over entire denominations and congregations. Pastors with their non-judgmental attitudes of not using biblical spiritual discernment concerning sin, error, false prophets and false doctrines simply opened the door for truth to walk out of the church. Satan shows up every time a service goes and his company of infiltrators freely pushes his agenda and throws away all biblical things that pertain to sound doctrines. There remain no foundations or absolute truth found that is grounded in the Word of God and so, anything goes.

FOUNDATIONS BE DESTROYED

“Drumming Up Jesus”

Roger Oakland, in his article “Drumming Up Jesus” says:

Studying the Bible verse by verse is no longer a prerequisite for mature spiritual growth according to many emergent church leaders. Instead, innovative methods are being promoted to get in tune with “God” or get closer to “God” by re-introducing techniques practiced by the pagans. These are methods that bring instant gratification and sensation. Contact with the spirit world is guaranteed for spiritual seekers who want to have an encounter with “Jesus” by experimenting with the mystical and the metaphysical.

With the skill of a seasoned grand marshal, Cory Blake takes the discordant pieces and leads the group into an amazingly alluring beat. Listen for a few minutes and you understand why shamans use drums to lure themselves into trances. "It's a contemplative tradition," Blake says of the drum circle he's leading. "It speaks directly to the intelligence of the body." (3)

Is this what is happening in churches all over the country, and even around the world? Are Christians being lured by another spirit into trances that introduce them to another Jesus?

"Since Richard Foster and others have led the way for the popularization of the "contemplative tradition" in the name of spiritual formation in countless churches professing to be Christian, practices like shamanistic drumming are promoted as an excellent way to get into an altered state of consciousness in the name of Christ. However, while tuning one's brain into a hypnotic beat of a drum may "speak directly to the intelligence of the body," getting into a mindless trance can be lethal for one's soul. " 1

STEALING THE MIND OF OUR YOUNG PEOPLE

In Matthew 24 Jesus describes the world before He returns in His Second Coming, as a world where the love of most has grown cold because of false teachers (Matthew 24:11-12); and where "the Faith" will be nearly extinct (Luke 18:8).

The end of the church age is shown in Revelation 3 to be like the church at Laodicea where truth is light, self-centeredness is heavy; materialism and personal agendas run deep, and true Biblical spirituality is shallow. Today we see such a sweeping array of deceptive false teachers as just the foretaste of this birth pang, which Jesus warned about and described--forming before our very eyes.

Never before has immoral teaching and beliefs about God been more widely proclaimed than now. Untrue doctrines about God move around the world daily on radio, TV, cable, webcasts, podcasts, simulcasts, books, magazines. Increasingly filled with twisted Bible scriptures and lies about God and an growing cauldron of darkness entangling an entire generation that are hopelessly groping with insatiable fleshly desires for forbidden fruit that will drive their souls to hell.

Driven by forces of evil and the power of their flesh, they only see demons through eyes of fun and pleasure. These hidden demons control the sources of their enjoyment as they only seem to live for their flight of the imagination. These days, you can sin, counsel, sing, dance, eat and play your way to hell. However, the evil spirits truly exist and one day the music will stop.

- Pulling aside the supernatural curtain between the visible and invisible one will see, in the air above and the earth beneath are depraved evil spirits of esoteric mysticism which are powerful and ancient entities that behind the advancements of paganism known as “demons” to some and “gods” to others. They can appear in hideous forms or as beautiful angels of light. Comprising of Satan’s hordes of wicked spirits, (poneria: the collective body of demon soldiers), “rulers of darkness” (kosmokrators: governing spirits of darkness), “powers” (exousia: high ranking powers of evil), and “principalities” (arche: commanding generals over Satan’s fallen army) of Ephesians 6:12. They exist and promote mysticism among pagans, witches, New Agers and even lip serve Christians as the “gods and goddesses” of the underworld. These demons are working in the minds of young people using occult powers such as Hypnos—hypnotism, psychic dreaming, prognostication, e.s.p., clairvoyance.

ANCIENT HERESIES

Before the celestial judgments of the Tribulation are unleashed, God's Word describes a time characterized by false teaching and teachers SO strong, that it would try to even sweep away even true believers (Mark 13:22) if they were not sealed by the Spirit of God.

Truthfully, no one wants to hear, see or believe these reports. However, like the weeping Prophet, Jeremiah, some must obey God to tell the truth to awaken the slumbering church. The gates of Hell cannot prevail unless you continue to sleep.

Today’s church is becoming a modern New Age Supermarket where pleasurable and hedonistic “god experiences” are handed out like fresh fruit. We must examine the fruit they say- it is fine as long as the fruit is good. Well, yes I agree the fruit is good. If Sin were not pleasurable it would not tempt us. It is good to look at, it is good to hold, but should you be unfortunate enough to eat this New Age fruit- it will kill you.

Doling out more than her share of this mysterious new (AGE) fruit is Patricia King of Extreme Prophetic. Patricia King admits to being in both the occult and New Age prior to coming to Christ. Her teachings are blatantly New Age and she openly refers to herself as a “New Mystic.” I seen many people come out of witchcraft and become wonderful Christians. However, Ms. King’s most recent dalliance into neo-paganism comes with her promotion of “Ekstasis,” a form of trance dancing. Her itinerant pastor who doubles as a travelling DJ calls the show, “Club Mysterio.”

Ekstasis (Ecstasy) is from the Ancient Greek, ἐκ-στασις (ex-stasis), means to stand outside of oneself or to be removed to somewhere else. Ekstasis worship or trance dancing is known to every pagan culture and is meant to bring the participant to a level of excitement called ecstasy. Trance Dance is a “healing tool” with its roots in many ancient cultures. It is practiced by Shaman.i

“The purpose of a trance dance is essentially to bring you to a place in the sacred zone where the spirits can reach you...In trance dance, the rhythms and movements combine with the music to create an altered state of consciousness that allows entry into the sacred realm...Allowing the body, and parts of the body, to move to and express rhythms it finds engaging in the moment leads to this meditative state of mind and allows entry into a deeper mythic reality.” ii

PANTHEISM - TRANCE - CAPTURING THE MIND

Polytheism, the seeking after other gods, or believing ALL PATHWAYS LEAD BACK TO GOD has captured the imagination of many Christian leaders. They are boldly teaching this blasphemous error to unsuspecting churchgoing people to seize them for the One World Religious System that is being formed for the Antichrist.

Trance: These ungodly false Christian leaders are using the power of mass Hypnotism, Neurology, and psychometrics to bewitch Christian Churches.

Karen Berggren writes, “Across time and culture, dance has long been revered for its power to heal body, mind, and soul, strengthen the bonds of community, and to commune with spirit and nature allowing us to discover deeper aspects of who we are as human beings. Dance is also used as a form of worship, celebration, story-telling and myth-making, and to commemorate important rites of passage. We can glean some of the significance dance held in ancient tribal life, for next to hunting, it is the second most common activity shown in cave paintings.” iii

Ms. Berggren goes on to say, “Cut off from its healing and esoteric roots, western culture has reduced dance to a form of entertainment, a way to socialize, or to attract a mate. It’s generally not thought of as a way to pray [and] meditate, evoke visionary experience, or commune with spirit and nature. Yet in the past decade or so, it seems that the ancient understandings of dance as a healing and spiritual modality impress themselves upon the modern mind, as if welling up from old, vibrant memories of the tribal soul within. The idea of dance as a symbolic language of the psyche that can initiate healing, visionary, and ecstatic experience through rhythm and movement is being explored by increasing numbers of people searching for new levels of health, wholeness, and spiritual connection.” iv

Terrence McKenna defines ecstasy as a complex emotion containing elements of joy, fear, terror, triumph, surrender and empathy. It derives from the Greek word ekstasis, meaning "displacement, trance, to take flight, to drive out of one's senses." The Women's Encyclopedia of Myths and Secrets defines it as "standing forth naked." Einstein referred to it as the "ultimate religious feeling state," while author Chris Griscom views it as "the higher self in action."v

A defining trait of ecstasy is its immediacy. Ecstasy is not some splendid event, like a ravishing sunset, that happens in the external world before our eyes and ears. Ecstasy happens to ourselves. It is a momentary transformation of the knower, not merely a transformation of the knower's experience. -- Jourdain, Ecstasy and the Brain

HOLY GHOST PARTY ~ COME ON EVERYBODY

Come on everybody, let's paaaarrrrrrty!

When Aaron and his congregation lost their faith, first thing that happened, they built an altar to their new god, Baal. They gave him all the gold that they possessed to make his image. The next stage, they danced in a religious obsessive frenzy to their new god. Then every known perversion transpired and Aaron acted in the role of the priest of Satan. He collected the gold, he designed the idol and he led God's people into an enthusiastic departure from the Holy Worship of the Holy Spirit to the extreme veneration of their own flesh and mindless worship of Baal.

I, for one, certainly knew that the Christian Church was in dire trouble when I saw major mega-churches in my area running bus-loads of blinded Christians to Lakeland to the false revival, supporting the strange fire of the tattooed clown, Todd Bentley. Then, when I tried to expose this character's dishonesty and deceptive ministry, I actually had local pastors tell people, "Pat Holliday is going to Hell because she has touched one of "God's anointing." To this very day, I am shunned by these blinded pastors while the ministers from the Third Wave are received with open arms. They all flow together with the demonically controlled churches that are decorated like Rave Party drug bars.

The Gold dust revivals and the fake jewels that were being thrown on the congregation by modernly named angels were unbelievable to say the least. The fallen angel movement that was allowed to take over the position of the Holy Spirit.; today, when I saw the article and videos of Celebration Church's gross demonic activities, I wept before the Throne of God.

As I look around the Christian scene in Jacksonville, I cannot find one Christian Faith defender. I guess they just refuse to touch the devil's anointed. I believe we are now in the Great Falling away. We have fifteen "Gatekeepers Churches that joined together announcing an "Ecstatic Trance Party and they've had a Holy Ghost Party! They will dance themselves right into the pit of Hell.

TODD BENTLEY AND PATRICIA KING LED THE WAY TO DEVIL DANCING

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=93398rf6DcU>

DANCE YOUR FLESH AND SOUL TO HELL

The Apostle Paul discusses contention and disputing over doctrine. Believers have evidently slipped and need to "recover themselves from the snare of the devil, who are taken captive of him at his will." A born again Christian must make it a habit to give no place to the devil. "Neither give place to the devil. 28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.

29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. 30 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. 31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: 32 And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.," (Eph. 4:27 -32).

"And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them."
– (Eph, 5:11).

Isn't it fascinating who and what the church accepts these days to partner with for ministry that's in clear violation of God's Word?

If sin brought about the fallen state of many churches, just how is ignoring it going to solve the problem by ignoring it? Should we discard the cure as potentially divisive that being God's call to repentance and faith in Jesus Christ?

How does one work with pagans and their false gods honor the One True God, Jesus Christ Who wars us in His Word to not be "unequally yoke together with unbelievers" and commands us to "come out from among them and be ye separate"? (II Cor. 6:14-17).

KNOW THAT JESUS IS THE TRUTH AND LORD

We have to live our lives knowing that Jesus Christ is the truth. Jesus must be in control of our lives.

The Devil is shaking his fist in the face of God saying to Him, "I will conquer You because I have more people following me than You do." Friends, it doesn't matter how many people choose to follow the Devil to hell; God is still God on the Throne and is more powerful. He has truly more powerful than the Devil. However, God gave you the power to overcome the Devil. You have the power to become the purest. Get serious with God!

Revival fires will not come with Christians going to meeting after meeting, falling on the floor together and laughing crying out to God, "more, God, More"! The tickling of the ears and the flesh will accomplish nothing but destruction to their spirits and large bank account and churches for their leaders.

God is calling Christians to intercede for his people that are backsliding.

Meanwhile, hell is enlarging itself and its breath is getting hotter and hotter on our young people while Satan is destroying souls. "AWAKE NOW SAITH THE LORD, come unto Me all who are heavy laden and I will give you rest to your souls," (Matt. 11:28)

Biblical truth and doctrine are absolutely imperative for true righteousness and holiness and the spread of the Gospel. It is impossible to bring a clean thing out of an unclean thing. The Church's root and foundation must first be purified and established. If the doctrines are not pure, then the fruit cannot be pure. "For if the first fruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches," (Rom. 11:16).

The Holy Spirit in Proverbs said, "The wicked desireth the net of evil men: but the root of the righteous yieldeth fruit," (Prov. 12:12). Again, He said, "A man shall not be established by wickedness: but the root of the righteous shall not be moved," (Prov. 12:3). The Book of Job gives an eternal principle. "Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one." (Job 14:4). The impure doctrines of our present church systems have muddied the waters of religion until it hardly favors the Holy Bible and the true church. Revival is impossible until we return to "the love of the truth," (II Thess. 2:10). The love of the truth is the saving power of God.

The Apostle Paul reveals our position in Jesus, "But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light: 10 Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy. 11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; 12 Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation," (I Pet. 2:9-12).

OPEN OUR EYES WE WANT TO SEE JESUS

Those who have followed the leadership of evil men and women, whose minds have been darkened by the powers of the god of this world, must repent. (II Cor. 4:4), whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

Many have been waiting for the Lord to return. Will you be absent when He comes back for His bride without spot or wrinkle?

(Rev 22:17). "And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely."

HOW TO BECOME BORN AGAIN

1. Accept God's Word that He loves you and wants to give you an abundant life.

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life," (Jn. 3:16). "I am come that they might have life and that they might have it more abundantly," (Jn. 10:10).

2. Accept God's word that you are a sinner and this separates you from God and that you must truly repent or "turn away" from sin. "For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God." (Rom .3:23). "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord . . ." (Rom. 6:23). "But God commandeth His love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us," (Rom. 5:8).

3. Accept through His Word that Jesus Christ is our only contact with God. "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me," (Jn. 14:6). "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and man, the man Christ Jesus..." (ITim. 2:5). "And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel," (Heb. 12:24).

4. Receive Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord by your personal invitation. "But as many as received Him to them gave the power to become the sons of God," (Jn. 1:12). "Behold I stand at the door and knock; if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come into Him . . ."

Christ speaking (Rev. 3:20). God's solution is salvation by grace through faith in Jesus.

"Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility, for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble," (I Pet. 5:5).

"But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you," (I Pet. 5:10).

Make a decision and trust God for the results.

Will you receive Christ? You can be saved in seconds! Open the door to your heart and pray this simple sinner's prayer!

Dear Father, I'm a lost sinner. I repent. Please forgive me and come into my heart and save me. Thank You for saving my soul! In Jesus' name, only You can deliver me from the snares of the fowler and clear my mind. The Bible says, when I am weak, You are made perfect, Amen.

OCCULT TERMINOLOGY

ALL-SEEING EYE

A universal symbol representing spiritual sight, inner vision, higher knowledge, insight into occult mysteries...

EYE in top Triangle of the PYRAMID

Masonic symbol for the all-seeing eye of god

CHRISTIAN FREEDOM

Christians can live free from mental torture, panic, envy, hatred, pride, self-pity, addiction, gluttony and all other forms of bondage, oppression and defilement! There are two main causes for a person's inner problems. The first issue is as the Word of God calls it, "the flesh, or the 'old man,'" and the old man that part of the person who is living in the carnal nature of the person's flesh. It is the rebellious person's will that is being influenced and tempted by Satan. The second cause for inner problems is the working of evil spirits. Demons will tie themselves to the person's mind or flesh or emotions. This bondage will cause terrible physical manifestations. These demons will not relinquish their evil hold unless compelled to do so by a Christian who is empowered by Jesus.

Many Christians are totally unaware of the reality of the subliminal world of demons. They are invisible to the natural eye but they are real! The Bible says that my people perish for a lack of knowledge. Multitudes are tormented because people choose to ignore the power to cast out devils. Jesus had great compassion for the possessed. He used His power to free them. Then the first assignments that He gave His followers were empowerment to cast out devils.

However, remember that every problem is not because of demons. Some problems come from the person's willful sin life. The scriptural answer to the sins of the flesh is complete surrender to Jesus, (Rom. 6: 6-11). If the problem is caused by the person's submission to the sins of the flesh, then counsel must direct that person to commitment to the Lord and His Word. If it is a demon, then we must cast it out.

Clearly, correct diagnosis is of major importance. We must discern what we are dealing with each case. Is the problem being caused by oppression of the flesh? If this is the reason, then we must counsel the person to totally commit his/or life to Jesus Christ. (Gal. 5:24). "And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts." If it a question of demon possession, then we must cast it out according (Mk. 5, 8, 16:17 and Acts 8:7,) and only born again Christians have this supernatural ability. Remember, you cannot cast out a person's flesh nor can you crucify an evil spirit!

NEW AGE ~ THIRD WAVE OCCULT WORDS

"And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven (left, remitted, and let go of the debts, and have given up resentment against) our debtors," (Matt. 6:12).

ALCHEMY

This simple 17th century "sign" illustrates the blending of geometric shapes (circle, triangle, square) representing the various "elements" needed for spells and magic.

AMULET

A magic charm, worn to bring good luck and protection against illness, accidents and evil forces

ANKH

An Egyptian cross symbolizing a mythical eternal life, rebirth, and the life-giving power of the sun.

ANGEL

Symbol of good and evil spirits in religions around the world

ARROW

Through history, the arrow has symbolized war, power, swiftness, the rays of the sun, knowledge... as well as deities such as the Greek god Apollo and goddess Artemis (both hunters), the Hindu weather god, Rudra; and various gods of sexual attraction: Eros (Greek), Cupid (Roman), Kama (Hindu)... On ancient Roman coins, it represented the Zoroastrian god, Mithra. The native American Cheyenne warriors revered the "sacred medicine arrows" as symbols of male power. Arrows held by skeletons would point to disease or death. Today, they usually just point in the preferred direction.

CRYSTAL BALL

Used for divination (fortunetelling, scrying, clairvoyance...). When the heavy crystal balls were too expensive, witches often used glass-ball fishing floats, colored glass balls, or magic mirrors.

BAT

A symbol of good fortune in the East, it represented demons and spirits in medieval Europe.

BLAIR WITCH

A five-pointed compound symbol with a center triangle (see below) pointing down; the five lines resemble the microcosmic man with arms and legs outstretched inside a circle (with a pentagram in the background) -- a magic symbol or charm among medieval alchemists and wizards.

BUTTERFLY

To many pagans, its mythical meaning is linked to the soul (of the deceased) in search of reincarnation. For more on reincarnation and the afterlife, visit Lights of Heaven.

CIRCLE (sacred hoop, ring)

An ancient and universal symbol of unity, wholeness, infinity, the goddess, and female power; to earth-centered religions throughout history, as well as too many contemporary pagans, it represents the feminine spirit or force, the cosmos or a spiritualized Mother Earth, and a sacred space. Gnostic traditions linked the unbroken circle to the "world serpent" forming a circle as it eats its own tail.

CIRCLE with a DOT (BINDU) in the center

In the complex symbolic system of Hinduism and Buddhism, the bindu (dot) represents the male force. Together, the circle and the bindu symbolize the merging of male and female forces. (See "Sun Sign" below and "Circle" above)

CIRCLE (quartered)

The sacred circle filled with a cross, four equal lines pointing from the center to the spirits of the north, east, south, and west -- or to the basic element: earth, water, air (or wind), and fire. In Native American traditions, it forms the basic pattern of the MEDICINE WHEEL and plays a vital part in major spiritual rituals. Many contemporary pagans consider it their main symbol for transmitting the energy of the goddess. Christian churches have used variations of the same popular shape, usually calling it the Celtic cross.

COMPASS (Masonic)

The Masonic symbol of the compass and the T-square represents movement toward perfection and a balance between the spiritual and physical which resembles Egyptian and oriental mysticism. The compass (used to form circles) represents spirit. The ruler (part of a square) represents the physical.

COW

It symbolized the sky goddess Hathor to Egyptians, enlightenment to Buddhists, one of the highest and holiest stages of transmigration (reincarnation) to Hindus

CRESCENT MOON

A symbol of the aging goddess (crone) to contemporary witches and victory over death to many Muslims; in Islamic lands, crescent can be seen enclosing a lone pentagram.

CROSS

Christians believe that Jesus accepted crucifixion on a cross for the benefit of us all. This has not always been the case however. Christians didn't use the cross as their religious symbol for many generations after Christ was crucified. Rather than being a Christian symbol it had associations with executioners.

Initially, Christians adopted the fish symbol to identify their religion. Then, early in the fourth century, when execution by crucifixion was abolished by Emperor Constantine and Christianity became the state religion of Rome, the cross became the emblem for Christians.

The cross is used extensively in black magic and in many religions.

The Cross has been used to torture, to threaten whole civilizations, yet used as jewelry and sometimes worshipped. It has associations with an illegal psychedelic 1960s drug, SARS, BSE and bird flu, hatred and despair, love, valor and heroism, World War I, World War II, the Crusades, mythology, Satan, and salvation.

CROSS (IRON or EISERNAS KREUZ)

Also called Mantuan or Maltese cross; first linked to an ancient goddess temple on Malta, it was adopted as the Iron Cross in Prussia. During the First World War, it appeared on German fighter planes and tanks. Later, it became a fascist symbol in France, Portugal and other nations.

DOUBLE-HEADED EAGLE

A Masonic seal and initiation symbol; The number inside the pyramid over the eagle's head is 33. The eagle is a universal symbol representing the sun, power, authority, victory, the sky gods and the royal head of a nation.

DRAGON

A mythical monster made up of many animals: serpent, lizard, bird, lion... It may have many heads and breathe fire. To mediaeval Europe, it was dangerous and evil, but people in Eastern Asia believe it has power to help them against more hostile spiritual forces.

DREAMCATCHER

An American Indian magic spider web inside a sacred circle; after making dream catchers in crafts lessons in school, many children hang them on or near their beds as it is believed that dream catchers will block bad dreams but allow good dreams to pass through the center.

ELEMENTS

The four basic elements too many pagans are earth, water, air (wind or spirit) and fire. Many consider the first two passive and feminine - and the last two active and masculine. In Wiccan or Native American rituals, the "quartered circle" (similar to the Medicine Wheel) represents a "sacred space" or the sacred earth. The four lines may represent the spirits of the four primary directions or the spirits of the earth, water, wind and fire.

EYE OF HORUS

It represents the eye of Egyptian sun-god Horus who lost an eye battling Set. Pagans use it as a charm to ward off evil.

FROG

A symbol of fertility to many cultures; the Romans linked it to Aphrodite, the Egyptian to the shape-shifting goddess Heket who would take the form of a frog. To the Chinese, it symbolized the moon -- "the lunar, yin principle" bringing healing and prosperity. Since frogs need watery places, their image was often used in occult rain charms.

HEXAGRAM or SIX-POINTED STAR

When surrounded by a circle, it represents the "divine mind" to many occult groups throughout the centuries. Many still use it in occult rituals. But to Jewish people, it is their Star of David.

ITALIAN HORN

Also called the Cornu, Cornicello, Wiggly Horn, Unicorn horn, Lucifer's horn, or Leprechaun staff; the ancient magical charm or amulet worn in Italy as protection against "evil eye" has also been linked to Celtic and Druid myths and beliefs. Other traditions link it to sexual power and good luck. It is often worn with a cross for double protection or luck. In pre-Christian Europe, animal horns pointed to the moon goddess and were considered sacred.

LIGHTNING BOLT

In ancient mythologies from many cultures (Norse, Roman, Greek, Native American, etc.) the lightning bolt would be hurled by male sky gods to punish, water, or fertilize the earth or its creatures. Navaho myths linked it to the Thunderbird, the symbol of salvation and divine gifts. On children's toys, it represents supernatural power. Double bolts were used to symbolize Nazi power.

LIZARD

Its "sun-seeking habit symbolizes the soul's search for awareness." To the Romans, who believed it hibernated, the lizard meant death and resurrection.

MAGIC MIRROR

Used for "scrying" (foretelling the future, solve problems, answering questions, etc.). They are often decorated with "magic signs" during full moon rituals. Rosemary Ellen Guiley explains: "The ancient art of clairvoyance achieved by concentrating upon an object-- usually one with a shiny surface-- until visions appear....The term scrying comes from the English words descry which means 'to make out dimly' or 'to reveal'."

MANDALA

The Hindu term for "circle"; in Hindu and Buddhist meditations, it is used to raise consciousness. In meditation, the person fixes his or her mind on the center of the "sacred circle." Geometric designs are common. The center of some mandalas shows a triangle with a bindu (dot) inside a circle. It represents the merging of male and female forces.

MASONS (Freemasons)

The Masonic symbol of the compass and the T-square represents movement toward perfection and a balance between the spiritual and physical which resembles Egyptian and oriental mysticism. The compass (used to form circles) represents spirit. The ruler (part of a square) represents the physical.

MASK

Used by pagans around the world to represent animal powers, nature spirits, or ancestral spirits. In pagan rituals, the wearer may chant, dance and enter a trance in order to contact the spirit world and be possessed by the spirit represented by the mask.

MEDICINE SHIELD

A round shield decorated with personal symbols or pictures of the animal spirit(s) contacted on a Spirit Quest, as practiced by the American Indians. Its basic image is often the form of the "medicine wheel" or "quartered circle."

OM

Sanskrit letters or symbol for the "sacred" Hindu sound om (ohm or aum) called "the mother of all mantras." The four parts symbolize four stages of consciousness: Awake, sleeping, dreaming, and a trance or transcendental state.

PEACE SYMBOL or NERO'S CROSS

A broken, upside-down cross. To Roman emperor Nero, who hated and persecuted the early Christians, it meant destruction of Christianity. Revived in the sixties as a sign for peace, it now symbolizes a utopian hope for a new age of global peace and earth-centered unity.

PENTACLE or PENTAGRAM

A standard symbol for witches, freemasons, and many other pagan or occult groups; to witches, it represent the four basic elements (wind, water, earth and fire) plus a pantheistic spiritual being such as Gaia or Mother Earth. The pentagram is also used for protection. to banish evil energy or to draw positive energy, depending on how it's drawn."

PENTAGRAM (FIVE-POINTED STAR pointing down)

Used in occult rituals to direct forces or energies; often represents Satanism, the horned god, or various expressions of contemporary occultism, especially when a goat-head is superimposed on the inverted pentagram.

PHILOSOPHER'S STONE

The symbol of the Alchemist's quest for transformation and spiritual illumination, it was also the British title of the first Harry Potter book (the U.S. publisher changed it to Sorcerer's Stone). The double-headed eagle in the center is also used as a Masonic seal.

PHOENIX

A universal symbol of the sun, rebirth, resurrection and immortality, this legendary red "fire bird" was believed to die in its self-made flames periodically (each hundred years, according to some sources) then rise again out of its own ashes (some say after three days). Linked to the worship of the fiery sun and sun gods such as Mexico's Quetzalcoatl, it was named "a god of Phoenician" by the Phoenicians. To alchemists, it symbolized the destruction and creation of new forms of matter along the way to the ultimate goal: the philosopher's stone.

SCARAB

Symbol of the rising sun, the Egyptian sun god Chepri (or Khepera), and protection from evil; to ancient Egyptians, the dung beetle rolled its dung balls like Chepri rolled the sun across the sky. The "sacred" symbol adorned popular seals, amulets and magic charms (worn as protection against evil spirits or to overcome barrenness) first in Egypt, then in Phoenicia, Greece, and other Mediterranean lands. Medieval alchemists used its pattern in their magical diagrams.

SERPENT OR SNAKE

Most ancient earth-centered or pagan cultures worshipped the serpent. It represents rebirth (because of its molting), protection against evil, either male or female sexuality, rain and fertility, and is believed to act as a mediator between the physical and spiritual world. In the Bible it usually represents sin, temptation, destruction, and Satan. The circular image of the serpent biting its tail links the mythical significance of the serpent to that of the sacred "circle."

SPIDER

Linked to treachery and death in many cultures, it was seen as a "trickster" in ancient Africa, a "spinner of fate" in ancient goddess cultures and in ancient Greek myths the goddess Arachne was turned into a spider by her jealous rival Athena. Christian cultures have linked it both to an evil force that sucked blood from its victims and to good luck because of the cross on the back of some species. The Chinese have welcomed the spider descending on its thread as a bringer of joys from heaven.

SPHINX

The Sphinx was the ancient Egyptian and Babylonian guardian of sacred places—an idol with human head and a lion's body. The Greek sphinx would devour travelers who failed to answer her riddle. According to A New Encyclopedia of Freemasonry (by Arthur Waite, xii) the Masonic sphinx "is the guardian of the Mysteries and is the Mysteries summarized in a symbol... Their secret is the answer to her question. The initiate must know it or lose the life of the Mysteries. If he can and does answer, the Sphinx dies for him, because in his respect the Mysteries have given up their meaning."

SPIRAL

Linked to the "circle" Ancient symbol of the goddess, the womb, fertility, feminine serpent force, continual change, and the evolution of the universe...

SQUARE

In contrast to the circle which often symbolizes the sacred and spiritual (including the sacred earth), the square represents the physical world. Like the quartered circle, it points pagans to the four compass directions: north, east, south and west. While the circle and "spiral" symbolize female sexuality in many earth-centered cultures, the square represents male qualities.

SUN FACE

The sun face is a symbol that has been central to most major spiritual systems throughout history. Since the sun god usually reigned over a pantheon of lesser gods, his symbol played a vital part in pagan worship (and in the rituals of occult secret societies) around the world. In Inca myths, the sun was worshipped as the divine ancestor of the nation.

SUN & MOON JOINED AS ONE

A universal pagan expression of the merging of opposites; like the "Yin Yang" (below), the marriage of the male sun and the female moon represents unity in diversity, compromise instead of conflict, and conformity to a new consciousness where all is one...

THE ONI DEMONS

The Oni, or two-horned devil, is a popular image in the Japanese tattoo artwork of today. They are probably the most common of the ghostly beings in Japanese cosmology and are typically depicted as rampaging, violent, and cruel. Almost always shown with horns, their faces can be quite varied, similar to noh masks, and are typically pink, red, or blue-grey. In general, the Oni is a fearsome supernatural creature. They have been described variously as guardians of Buddhist hell, demons who act as torturers there, pranksters, devourers of human victims, hunters of sinners, and bringers of disease and epidemics.

SUN and SUN SIGN

The sun was worshipped as a personified, life-giving deity in Babylonian, Egyptian, Greek, Roman, and other major civilizations of history. The more common symbol is the familiar face in the center of the sun's rays. A dot or point in the center of a circle symbolizes the blending of male and female forces. Hindus call the midpoint in a circle the bindu - the spark of masculine life within the cosmic womb.

SUN WHEEL or RING CROSS

A universal symbol found on ancient slabs in Nordic countries, in pre-Columbian America and in Mediterranean countries. Like the swastika and other sun symbols, it represents power and supremacy. It serves as a logo for the Swedish national socialist party, Nordiska Rikspartiets, and for the French Jeune Nation.

SWASTIKA

Ancient occult symbol of the sun and the four winds or directions and their corresponding spirits; revived by Hitler, today it represents racism and the "white supremacy" of neo-Nazis. Like other occult symbols, it is often placed inside a "circle". Centuries ago it was a "fire and sun symbol occurring initially in Asia and later among the Germanic tribes," according to The Herder Symbol Dictionary. "The cross inscribed in a circle mediates between the square and the circle," emphasizing the "joining of heaven and earth...and "the perfected human being."

THEOSOPHY

To members of the Theosophical Society, as well as to countless non-members, the Theosophical Seal with its motto, "There is no Religion Higher than Truth", is everywhere evidence of the Society's existence. It is a distinguishing badge, representative of the character of the Theosophical Society. More than just a distinguishing mark, the Seal symbolizes the truths of the Ancient Wisdom which the Theosophical Movement was designed to promulgate in the modern world, and something of the mission and high destiny of the Society in the pure transmission of those truths.

TOAD

Linked to witchcraft and other occult practices

TONGUE (protruding)

Linked to flame, fire, fertility, sexual power and spiritual power; in nations around the world, images of deities or masks with protruding tongues have indicated active and occupying spiritual forces, often a union of masculine and feminine spirits. Such images were vital to pagan rituals invoking spirits. The sexual/spiritual forces represented by gargoyles with protruding tongues which adorned Gothic cathedrals were believed to protect the buildings from other spiritual powers.

TOTEM

Carved, painted representation of power animals or animal-human ancestors; o American Indians in the Northwest, who believe that all of nature has spiritual life, the animals in their totems poles represent the spiritual powers of animal protectors or ancestors.

UNICORN

To many New Agers, it means power, purification, healing, wisdom, self-knowledge, renewal and eternal life. Origin: In the 4th century BC, Greek historian Ctesias told about a wild animal with healing powers and a spiral horn on its forehead. Medieval myths suggested it could only be caught with help from a virgin who would befriend it.

UROBORUS

The "circular" serpent biting its own tail represents eternity and the cycles or "circle of life." Medieval alchemists linked it to the cyclical processes in nature.

WHEEL

A universal symbol of cosmic unity, astrology, "the circle of life," evolution, etc.; the pagan sacred circle plus any number of radiating spokes or petals form the wheel - a Wheel of Life to Buddhists, a Medicine Wheel to Native Americans, and a Mandala to Hindus. It symbolizes unity, movement, the sun, the zodiac, reincarnation, and earth's cycles of renewal. Pagans use it in astrology, magic, and many kinds of rituals.

WHEEL OF DHARMA

Buddhist wheel of life and reincarnation

WISHBONE

Civilizations dating back to the 4th Century (Etruscans, Rome, Britain, America), have held turkey or chicken wishbone contests. Pulling the dry turkey or chicken bone until it snapped ("lucky break"), they believing the winner's wish or dream would come true. Today, many believe that this symbol will "catch" their dreams, bring good luck, and make their wishes come true. As in contemporary witchcraft or magic, the object becomes a channel of "good" energy. Astrology and horoscopes link it to Saggitarius. It might also be confused with the Lambda (looks like a lower case, upside-down "y"), the Greek letter adopted by the International Gay Rights Congress in 1974 as the global symbol of homosexual "pride".

WORLD TRIAD

Originally an oriental symbol, it was "adopted by western Gnostics as an emblem of cosmic creativity, the threefold nature of reality or fate, and the eternally spiraling cycles of time. In Japan it was maga-tama or mitsu tomoe, the world soul. In Bhutan and Tibet, it is still known as the Cosmic Mandal, a sign of the Trimurti." This is also the symbol for U.S. Department of Transportation.
